

LOCAL NEWS BREVITIES

Miss Ruth Muller spent last week end with Albany friends.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Hildreth motored to Albany Thursday.

F. I. Thayer was threshing his clover the first of the week.

Election day was exceptionally quiet in Scio. Indications during the day were for a light vote.

Mrs. H. C. Miller of Sisters is visiting relatives and friends in this vicinity.

William Downing of Lyons was looking after business interests here last Thursday.

Mrs. B. F. Titus returned to her home Friday evening from visiting her son Ernest who lives at Crabtree.

Miss Helen Grigsby of Albany spent the week end with Miss Ruth Muller.

Miss Daisy Buckner, who went to Portland to testify in the case concerning the bank robbery, returned home Thursday.

Mrs. Fred Bilyeu, Mrs. E. D. Myers and Miss Esther Humphrey motored to Corvallis Saturday to witness the big football game.

Elenor Dempsey won the Democrat's subscription prize of a Nash car, and Louis K. Geil of Sweet Home the Ford touring car.

Jim Bilyeu came home Tuesday to vote. He has been sub-janitor at the courthouse in Albany for the past month.

F. B. Studnicka is a new business man in Scio, coming from Harrisburg. He will open a country produce house in a part of the Bartu Motor Co. building.

California wiped the earth with Oregon football teams Saturday. O. A. C. was beaten at Corvallis and Oregon University submitted to a "whitewash at Palo Alta, Calif.

Following are the newly elected officers of the Christian Endeavor for the ensuing year: A. L. Plummer, president; J. H. H. Hildreth, vice president; Miss Ruth Muller, secretary and treasurer.

Skunks yielded $1,000,000 worth of hides to New York state farmers and trappers in one year. The department of agriculture, in a circular on the fur industry, gives suggestions for making this supposed pest into a profitable friend of the farmer.

"Dempsey" Kelly fell out of the family auto last week and broke one of his legs. A doctor's services placed the leg in splints to which Dempsey submits willingly. Dempsey is the bull pup and is the youngest member of the Kelly family.

Printer Brant had a birthday last Thursday and was agreeably surprised to find that it was remembered by a daughter in Venice, Cal., who sent her father a box of Mазetta Kisses (candy) made by the Guenther Co. of Venice.

Saturday night the small kids indulged in hallowe'en tricks, but on Sunday night the big kids got busy, some of whom have been voting for years. They may think it smart, but it only shows a low, contemptible spirit which dares not make itself known. Each of these young, or old, men should be fined heavily if the guilty parties should become known.

Attention, Farmers!

If you have any fat hogs ready for shipping stop in and see

HOLECHEK BROS.
We will give you the highest market price.

We are in the market for hogs every week.

All the hogs are weighed on Morrison's scales and we take them from there.

Anyway 17 republicans in Scio had enough sand to vote for the interests of Oregon.

Gordon Wesely came from Portland Tuesday for a 10-day visit at home.

Mrs. John Wesely drives an up to date Ford sedan, a present from her husband.

J. S. Warwick went over to Albany Tuesday afternoon to hear the election returns.

With three produce houses in town farmers ought to feel that they get top prices for their produce.

Republicans have pushed all government responsibilities onto democrats for the past eight years. Now they will have to assume responsibility. That is to say after March 4 next.

One week from today, November 11, is armistice day, so proclaimed by Governor Oleott. The public schools are granted a holiday in observance of the same.

The parties who wilfully destroyed property carried on Main street by hallowe'eners should have the manhood to at least tender pay to the owners. They are welcome to The Tribune's signs, which added to the bonfire, as the office is so well known now that signs are not needed.

Republicans who have been very hungry for office for eight years will now have an inning. If they will do all the good things they have promised they will be continued in power. Otherwise there will be trouble four years hence.

Give me a chance to buy your produce. I pay the highest cash market prices. F. B. Studnicka, the tall produce man.

Mrs. W. A. White will pay a reward for any information of or the return of a lap robe stolen from a buggy which her son was driving on Saturday night, October 30. Any information will be thankfully received. 12 3t

Announcement

Morrison leads, others follow. As the discount given on stoves and ranges was so good a success, I have decided to give a 10% discount for cash on my entire line of merchandise, including hardware, furniture, paints, oils, machinery; and 10% will be given on all purchases of $1 or over, except on nails, wire fence, &c.

Remember, my regular prices are from 5% to 20% lower than elsewhere; this offer is only to those that want to make a saving on their purchases.

This discount will be given only on goods on hand, and will be continued until further notice.

Yours for more business,

N. I. Morrison
