VOL. XXIV. NO. 15.

SCIO, LINN COUNTY, OREGON, NOVEMBER 25, 1920

$1.75 THE YEAR

OREGON TO GET 1921 GRANGE CONVENTION

City Where Meetings Will Be Held Not Yet Selected, But Portland Is Favored.

The securing of the National Grange convention for Oregon next year was the result of efforts made by grange organizations in the state and the work of C. E. Spence, master of the Oregon state grange, who represented Oregon at the convention.

The movement to bring the national meeting to Oregon was started by Lents grange last May. The plan found the support of other grange organizations, and the state grange in annual session at Bend endorsed the movement.

It is considered probable that Portland will be chosen as the convention city by the executive committee.

Children's Farm Home.

Thayer, Miss Christine Shindler, Mrs. Walter Bilyeu, Mrs. Rolla Shelton, Scio; O. M. Baker, Kingston; Ray J. Fox, Lyons; J. H. Kelly, Thomas.

The drive is to begin Monday, November 29, and close Friday, December 4. The object is most worthy and Scio should easily raise her quota.

Parent-Teachers

The largest gathering of people interested in the work of the Parent-Teacher Association assembled last Thursday evening in the high school auditorium where they were delightfully entertained.

Mrs. Barnes' orchestra furnished the music and were heartily encored, as was the vocal solo by R. M. Cain. Mrs. Thoms gave a sketchy report of the doings of the state association which she attended as a delegate from here.

Every grade in the school was represented on the program and all acquitted themselves creditably.

As usual, after the program was finished all repaired to the domestic science room where refreshments were served and social converse indulged in.

The program, after it got started, went with a snap. The Tribune therefore, wonders why local affairs never start on time.

Our condensery is not closed, head lines in the Albany papers to the contrary notwithstanding. They are simply making sweetened condensed milk and ship it in barrels instead of putting it in cans.

The big football game at Corvallis last Saturday between the Eugene and Corvallis college teams resulted in neither side being able to score.

30 PRESENT AT THE BILYEU RE-UNION

Family Members and their Friends Join in Celebrating 92d Birthday.

Scio, Ore., Nov. 18.—Ninety-two years ago Thursday, November 10, Mrs. Nancy Bilyeu first saw light of day. Commemorating the anniversary of this event on the farm home that Mrs. Bilyeu has occupied for 60 years east of Scio, a family reunion was held and it was a red letter day in the history of the Bilyeu family.

Mrs. Bilyeu is the mother of 14 children of whom nine are still living, the eldest 70 years old and the youngest 45. There are also 31 grandchildren, 22 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild.

All of the living children were at the reunion, they are: P. R. Bilyeu of Scio; Lydia Sumpter, Crabtree; Mrs. Haman Shelton, jr., Crabtree; Joseph E. Bilyeu, Spokane, Wash.; Jacob E. Bilyeu, Crabtree; Perry Bilyeu, Crabtree; J. N. Bilyeu, Crabtree; Mike and Evaline Bilyeu, who are living with their mother.

Among the grandchildren were: W. M. Powell and son Orville; Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Shelton and son Howard; C. R. Riggs and children Harold and Helen; Isaac and Helen Campbell, Albany; George Sumpter and daughter Lois; Mrs. Perry Bilyeu and daughter Ima; Mrs. J. N. Bilyeu and daughter Lucille; Mrs. Lydia Metcalf and son Jake of Montesano, Wash.; J. A. Sumpter and son Don; Violas Kinzie who is a great grandchild, and Rome Workman a grand nephew who lives at Laomi, Illinois.

Other relatives present were Mrs. P. R. Bilyeu, Mrs. Ollie Shelton and Mrs. Jacob Bilyeu.

Friends of the aged pioneer who were guests at the reunion are: Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Weidman, Mrs. J. Fleming and son Ben, W. L. Gearhart and Henry Burmester who entertained by singing pioneer songs and story telling.

At noon all of the guests had arrived and they were seated at a table that was overburdened with good things to eat, chief among which was a monster birthday cake placed in front of Mrs. Bilyeu, who sat midway between the two ends of the table. On the cake were 92 candles. The cake was baked by Mrs. Inez Campbell and this as well as the remainder of the dinner was pronounced by the guests "the best ever."

Despite her years Mrs. Bilyeu is in excellent health and takes delight in reviewing the pioneer days and in telling of the changes that have occurred during her long residence in Oregon. For example, she said she never had seen a match until she was a grown woman. She tells of the Indians and how she used to spin yarn, weave cloth and make clothing for her family.

Mrs. Bilyeu crossed the plains in 1853 by ox team with her husband, L. J. Bilyeu and settled in the same neighborhood that is now her home. She was born November 10, 1828, in Missouri.—Albany Democrat.

SANTIAM FARM TOPICS

The eastern storm has reached us with high winds and plenty of Oregon mist.

George Griffin and Billy Richardson returned from the Portland stock show and report prices on fine stock greatly cut.

Byron Bilyeu after goose-chasing through California and Washington, returned to the old stamping ground a much wiser boy.

The Weaver sawmill near George Bilyeu's farm, has built a plank road way to the county road to haul out 20,000 ties.

Ed Kalina took a coop of chickens to Scio Wednesday and got top price at the new produce store; also a few sacks of prize corn at $1.25 per bushel.

The old one-eyed Pie Eater and good wife called on his son M. C. and wife Sunday for a square meal as grub was short at Santiam farm, finding the son with plenty.

Who gets the birds the farmers raise? Hunters steer clear of hunting notices, but as soon as they are down flock in like a lot of crows and hunt in and out of season. Neighbors here are sick of this trespassing.

We were in Scio Wednesday and noted Mill street is a credit (?) to the city as trucks hauling wheat go only hub deep; we call it a humdinger of a road.

Our schoolhouse is receiving a new roof on the south side.

Ed Kalina is trading his corn for Duroc pigs.

ARTICLE 10 IS MADE MEMBERSHIP ISSUE

Other Responsibilities Also Will Be Considered in Granting Admission to League.

Geneva, Nov. 21.—The responsibilities of the league of nations and the responsibilities of its individual members under article 10 of the covenant is one question the commission on admission of new members is considering in connection with the applications of 14 states, not including Germany. They are: Finland, Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Austria, Bulgaria, Albania, Lichtenstein, Georgia, Armenia, Azerbaijan, Ukraine and Costa Rica.

Besides responsibilities under article 10 committees will consider in respect to each applicant the following questions:

Is its application in order? Is the government applying for recognition de jure or de facto, and by which states? Has the nation applicant a stable government and settled frontier? What is its population and size? Is it self governing? What has been its conduct including both acts and assurances with regard to international obligations?

The latter question is supposed to have been inspired by the French member of the committee with a view to any proposition that may be submitted to elect Germany.

The prescriptions of the league as to armaments will also be considered in connection with the military power of each applicant.

Final concrete solutions are not expected on all questions because most of the important problems are complicated by the absence of the United States, Russia and the central European powers.

Slight amendments to the covenant may be made, though many delegates hold the entire question should await propositions from the United States which they expect as a result of President-elect Harding's consultations.

$63,900 Deficiency Allowance.

Salem, Nov. 22.—Deficiency appropriations aggregating $63,900 declared to be necessary to care for the wants of various state institutions pending action by the next legislature in January were authorized at a special meeting of the state emergency board today. These allowances are exclusive of deficiency appropriations approximating $395,866 authorized at previous meetings. $20,000 of this is for the penitentiary. It was stated that when the prison budget was pruned by the legislature two years ago it was understood that any deficiency would be made up by the emergency board. This assertion aroused the ire of Seymour Jones, speaker of the house, who said he did not believe it was in the province of the board to authorize deficiencies unless real emergencies existed. Upon rollcall, however, Mr. Jones voted to allow the penitentiary appropriation.
