

LOCAL NEWS BREVITIES

The next stated meeting of Scio lodge of Masons will be Saturday evening, January 29.

Mrs. Florence Everett entertained the 500 club yesterday.

Ralph Hollis has parted company with measles.

M. P. Long is looking for a tenant for Spencer's farm.

L. E. Shimanek of Mill City spent Sunday at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Anton Rosorafka motored to Albany Saturday.

Landlord Al Warner of Hotel Scio was a business visitor in Albany last Friday.

Guy and Mrs. McKnight were in town from Gilkey last Friday on a shopping tour.

John Compton of Independence came over Friday to visit with his mother, Mrs. J. W. Compton.

Misses Elma Cox and May Stoddard made a trip to Albany Saturday.

Mrs. Fred M. Grimes of Mill City spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Bilveu.

Sunday Frank Bartu brought to town a foot from a big bobcat that was killed in the hills near Larwood.

Quite a bit of petty thieving is going on about town, we are told. Parents should know where their children are of an evening.

Rol Morris, Dale Poindexter and Dr. Hobson went to Portland yesterday to see if Jack Dempsey is the boxer he is cracked up to be.

The chief value of cowpea hay lies in its high percentage of digestible protein. This has been verified by numerous feeding tests.

Maybe it is possible to telephone to Europe, but what of it? Listening on a four party line in one's own neighborhood is just as exciting.

It is reported that creditors of the Morris Bros. flaseo will be paid about 75 cents on the dollar they put up for interim certificates.

Dr. Ficq and family are again residents of Scio, arriving Monday evening. They secured a residence from Mrs. L. W. Pomeroy.

Cecil Eichinger attended the auto show in Portland and says that there were so many fine cars there it was difficult to make a choice.

If you want to spend a most enjoyable evening attend the dance at Wesley hall tomorrow (Friday) evening. A good time is assured all.

Mr. and Mrs. N. I. Morrison left by auto Tuesday headed for Portland and the hardware men's convention in that city.

If there is a muddier town in Oregon than Scio The Tribune has no desire to see it. Our city council should restore the old board crosswalks if this mud business is to continue.

Congress has another salary grab bill up to raise the salary of a congressman from $7500 to $10,000. Many people think quite a good many congressmen are not earning their present salary.

It is claimed that our girls basketball team has not been defeated this year. Halsey, Shedd, Crabtree, Silverton, Coryallis, Mill City, have gone down to defeat because of the superior ability and team work of our ballettes.

Mrs. L. B. Devers and daughter, Audrey, of Bridal Veil, who have been guests of Dr. and Mrs. S. C. Browne since Thursday last, returned to their home on the Columbia highway yesterday.

Dr. Lloyd Mott, who until recently was a captain in the medical department of the U. S. army for 49 months, and who has been at Mill City for a month, was a guest at the home of Dr. and Mrs. S. C. Browne Tuesday night. Mrs. Browne is Dr. Mott's aunt.

Don't forget that Shelton & Large is buying poultry and veal. Thanks.

Miss Ina Parrish of Portland came home Friday of last week to spend the week end with home folks.

J. H. Hildreth, A. L. Plummer, Misses Ruth Muller, Esther Humphrey and Christine Shindler attended a Christian Endeavor meeting at Albany Sunday.

Mrs. L. W. Pomeroy has this week painted and papered the residence across the street from the Scio hospital which Dr. Ficq is going to occupy upon his return to the city.

Miss Florence Bone of Salem, who has been visiting with her cousin, Mrs. Z. J. Clark, left Saturday via Albany to which place she was accompanied by the Z. J. Clark family.

D. C. Thoms drove to Portland to attend the doings of the shriners, and says the highway via Jefferson is the best way to get to Salem and the worst part of the road is between Scio and Munkers.

It's lucky Christmas doesn't come but once a year, for between that and the tax collector Dad's left hind leg is pulled 6 inches out of plumb.

Shall women uncover their heads? asks an editor, discussing a judge's decree that they shall when in court. The Tribune's force demurs, they ought to draw the line somewhere.

The fact that Scio has a good winter road via Sanderson bridge to Albany, is indicated by the number of people from Scio and vicinity to be seen on Albany streets almost every week. Last Saturday a large number of Scioans were at the county seat.

There was a time when a man refused to wear ear tabs, for fear he would miss an invitation for a drink; but what we started out to say was that Abe Powell was on our street in just that sort of headgear accessory the other morning and we wonder if all hope is gone.

To conserve the cooks' patience and keep them from being posterized, Landlord Warner has established visiting hours for the kitchen. They are: 2 to 5 and after 8 p. m. We don't wonder at the string of visitors at all hours for the attraction is irresistible.

Senator Chamberlain is now confined in a Washington hospital and has had two operations and has probably finished his congressional work. His time will be out March 4 and he will hardly be able to take up active work in the short time yet remaining, providing he gets well.

H. H. Corey, member of the Oregon public service commission, has been appointed on the service, accommodations and claims committee of the National Association of Railway and Public Utilities Commissioners.

Oregon apples won five first prizes in the fruit show conducted in Louisiana, Mo., by the Mississippi Valley Apple Growers' association, according to a notice received by A. Johnson, of the seven Oaks Orchard company, in Ashland.

The Booth-Kelly Lumber company mills at Springfield, employing seventy-five men, closed down last week. Manager A. C. Dixon announces the mill will not be reopened until the conditions of the lumber market are changed.

A late opening season at Crater Lake for 1921 is forecast by a report received by Alexander Sparrow, superintendent of the park, that the snow is now 9-12 feet deep at the rim. Last year at this time, the depth was only 5-12 feet.

Threshing is still in progress in Lake county and it is possible that it will be finished before spring work forces a stop. Bound grain that was stacked properly is turning out well, while headed grain has been injured more or less.

When a carrier upon which he was riding gave way with the result that he fell 26 feet with 12,000 feet of lumber on top of him, Ed Dempsey, a mill employe at Mabel, suffered concussion of the brain and many other serious injuries.

Ward Again Jailed.

James Ward, who is awaiting trial at the March term of circuit court on the charge of illegally possessing liquor, and who caused the death of M. Story of Sweet Home, is again in the county jail because his father-in-law, John Hampton, surrendered him and cancelled his bond. This action on the part of the bondsman followed difficulty that Ward is alleged to have encountered in Salem last Friday.

Ward's relatives were in Albany Monday trying to arrange a new bond, the amount being $2,000.

Meanwhile Ward will remain in custody and unless he raises another bond will serve in jail until court convenes.

The Portland city council has passed a stringent ordinance governing the manufacture and sale of "soft" drinks, including cider in all its various guises and aliases. The ordinance is aimed to prevent the marketing of fermented and intoxicating "soft" drinks.

The seal sale for Oregon during the 1920 holidays will surpass that of 1919 by $5000 in the report given to the executive committee of the Oregon Tuberculosis association. The Portland sale amounted to over $20,000 and the state sale will total $37,000.

The largest sale of Clatsop county timber land reported for many months was made last week, when the Minnesota & Oregon Land & Timber company of Minnesota sold to the Crosssett Timber company of Iowa a tract of 7508.35 acres of fir timber for a consideration of $1,200,000.

To determine just how great is the health menace from the increased consumption of moonshine liquor, the state board of health has decided to analyze a number of samples from the stocks seized by the authorities and determine to what extent the beverages are poisonous.

There were two fatalities in Oregon due to industrial accidents during the week ended January 13, according to report prepared by the state industrial accident commission. The victims are W. R. Plumblee, engineer, St. Helens; Thomas Dunsmore, laborer, Salem. A total of 433 accidents were reported.

The Oregon Agricultural College Radio club has been negotiating with the radio club at the University of Washington for the establishment of a system of wireless communication between the two schools, eventually to include stations at the University of Oregon, Leland Stanford and the University of California.

Why the state of Oregon should be compelled to sell its bonds at a heavy discount, while the little state of Rhode Island disposes of its securities to local banking institutions at prices ranging above par, was the question directed to the money interests of the state in a statement given out by Governor Olcott last week.

With alarming divorce statistics facing them and the uncontradicted assertion that Oregon has more divorces per capita than any state in the union, district attorneys of Oregon, in convention in Portland, recommended the amendment of existing divorce laws so that interlocutory decrees only may be granted at the conclusion of a hearing, and cannot be made final until three months later, after the fashion of the California law.

With their contention based upon an old treaty, Jeff Riddle, Joe Ball and Clayton Kirk, members of the Klamath Tribal council, have gone to Washington, D. C., where they will appear before the secretary of the interior and endeavor to relocate the boundary of the Klamath reservation as now recognized by the government. The Indians assert the boundary should be four miles south of the present line. About 700,000 acres are involved and the value of this land is estimated at $10,000,000.

Co-operative non-profit associations of farmers, for the marketing of the wheat crop of the state, and the wool and mohair produced in western Oregon, were definitely launched at the session of the Oregon Farm Bureau federation in Portland last week. A meeting for perfecting the organization of the proposed association for the marketing of wheat will be held at The Dalles as soon as plans for the contract can be perfected. In the case of the wool and mohair growers, a meeting will be held at Albany on January 21, at which the plans will be definitely outlined and presented for adoption.

O. E. EICHINGER, Pres.

D. C. THOMS, Sec. and Manager

Scio Milling Company

Prices for week ending January 29, 1921.

Golden Pheasant Flour	$2.10	Olympic Hard Wheat Flour	$2.65
Graham Flour	2.10	Wheat Hearts, 10s	.80
Rye Flour	2.75	Pancake Flour	.75
Corn	2.20	Corn Meal, per lb	.05
Corn, cracked or ground	2.25	Alfalfa Meal	2.00
Mill run, 80s	1.75	Alfalfa and Molasses	2.20
Bran, 100s	1.95	Scratch Feed	3.75
Wheat Chop	3.25	Egg Maker	3.75
Oat Chop	1.40	Cocoanut Meal	2.25
		Oil Meal	3.90

For sale—Hand power stump puller and Ottawa gas drag saw; or will trade both for Ford car in good running order. F. J. KULA, Shelburn, Ore.

All stock remedies at reduced prices. Kelly's Drug Store.

Just arrived, new shipment Ever-sharp pencils and fountain pens at Kelly's Drug Store.

For sale—A team, light wagon and harness; 3-year old Holstein cow, to freshen March 1st, gives 2 gallons milk per day now. Call on Scio Tribune.

The landlord who asks others to join him in putting rents down to a reasonable basis is not yet the center of a crowd.

The way to pay the expenses of the country for the next four years is to levy a tax on applications for federal offices.

Ford Owners Attention.

Does your Ford need attention before spring driving commences? If so, why not bring it in now before the spring rush is on and have it overhauled? We use only genuine Ford parts. Insist on genuine Ford parts. FORD GARAGE. 24 2t

Jaywalker—A term applied to the unfortunate who guesses which way the driver would turn and guessed wrong.

In a way getting married is a good deal like using the telephone; you don't always get the right party.

Notke to Cream Producers.

We pay Portland price for cream and I test every day, and I can show you just what your cream tests. No underhand work. Give us a trial. Call phone No. 525. Swift Produce F. B. Studnicka, Manager.

True.

Susie—Papa, what makes a man always give a woman a diamond engagement ring?

Her Father—The woman.

Get More Money for Your Eggs

I will pay you, three cents above market price for select eggs. Call and get instructions regarding select eggs. I also pay highest price for veal and pork. Phone No. 525. F. B. Studnicka, Swift Produce.

Farmer relief measures have been successful. The government has decided that a man can drink his own hard cider.

About the meanest man that can be found nowadays is the one who will steal his girl's last package of cigarettes.

Fat Hogs Wanted.

I am in the market for fat hogs, sheep or cattle at all times. We pay all the market will stand.

You can get the same price for your stuff delivered to my scales at West Scio as you can at the packing house at Albany. So why make the long haul? J. D. DENSMORE.

Vincent Astor had a narrow escape. The fender of his car was badly bent.

Conceit is not fatal until a man begins to believe all he says about himself.

While we are at it we might also try something to bring our matrimonial bonds up to their face value.

If our examination reveals the fact that you are enjoying the maximum of eyesight efficiency you will get a lot of satisfaction out of knowing it.

If some new correction is needed you will be able to have the fault remedied with a minimum loss of nerve energy and health.

E. B. Meade
Optometrist.
ALBANY, ORE.

HAROLD ALBRO,
Manufacturing Optician

GLASSES FITTED
BY
Graduate Optometrist
PRICES REASONABLE
Private office for examinations
F. M. FRENCH & SONS
ALBANY

WE HAVE EVERYTHING OPTICAL
EYE STRAIN
Is the cause of many HUMAN ILLS
BANCROFT
Optical Company
313 W. 1st St., Albany

WANTED
Hay Grain Potatoes
HIGHEST MARKET PRICE
M. G. REED
Office—Albany State Bank
ALBANY, ORE.

All Kinds of Hauling
Short and Long Distance
at Reasonable Rates
SAM STOLLER
Expressman

RURAL CREDIT LOANS
Our twenty year rural credit plan of loaning money to farmers, helps you to get out of debt. Under our form of loan the total amount of interest paid during its entire period of twenty years is actually less than 54 per cent interest. Write us for booklet.
OWEN BEAM, Agent.
133 Lyon St.
Albany, Oregon