SCIO, LINN COUNTY, OREGON, FEBRUARY 3, 1921

$1.75 THE YEAR

FISH, GAME BOARD REQUESTS $91,300

F. M. Warren of Commission Says Revenue From Salmon Industry was $12,000,000

Salem, Jan. 31.—Representatives of the fish and game commission appeared before the joint ways and means committee tonight and urged an appropriation of $91,300 for the present biennium.

F. M. Warren of the commission informed the committee that during the last year the gross revenue from the salmon industry in Oregon was $12,000,000. He reviewed the work of the fish commission and declared that since launching what is known as the Oregon system of propagating salmon the annual pack has increased steadily. That the natural propagation of salmon was inadequate, and without assistance on the part of the fish commission the supply of salmon would soon become exhausted.

The Ryan-Vinton bill to tax all bonds and securities issued outside the state would only make it harder for Oregon as a borrowing state to sell its own securities, as it must, in outside markets. A high personal tax on foreign securities would meet with retaliatory legislation and withdrawal of financial firms that now are the largest buyers of Oregon bonds. The people of Oregon would help themselves by buying their own bonds, but can never do it by erecting a wall against outside securities seeking this market.

Mr. Shulmerick of Washington county was in town last week in the interests of the new Farm Bureau. He said the Farm Bureau is intended to become a sort of federation of all farmer organizations.

Hymeneal.

On January 28, 1921, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Long in Scio, Sam Stoller and Miss Maysell Minnie Long became man and wife. The wedding was a quiet affair yet very nicely arranged. A bounteous dinner was served after which the bride and groom left by auto for Salem, Portland and other places on their honeymoon. They will soon return to Scio where Mr. Stoller will resume his duties as freight and express carrier. Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Her and the members of the family were all that were present. The wedding took place at 11 o'clock, conducted by H. B. Her.

SANTIAM FARM TOPICS

As this is the first of February we are in hopes of good weather soon; we're worn out with so much rain and blustery winds.

John Griffin of Salem dropped in Saturday for a short visit; Jack came too, and will visit his sister, Mrs. Jennie Lovejoy, at Dallas who he has not seen for 9 years.

Patterning after Ed Kalina Dave Horsburgh has cut the timber on 10 acres and will sow grass, as it is worth more than shade.

Ed Kalina is blasting stumps; 2 fir stumps took a box of powder costing $10. Ed's a goer.

The neighbors around here are hog wild over a little bit of new road around Franklin Butte which will be a godsend to the people living east of the Scio road and is only a fraction over three-fourths of a mile further to Scio. I hope the court will grant the new road so as to save the hard pull over the hill.

Since visiting my brother John I find him to be in bad shape. His right side is paralyzed and he worries to be confined to the house. He is 84 and was never sick.

Some of our boys are making trouble in the school and their parents should look after them. Miss Anene Small is trying to have a good school and we're sorry to hear of the disturbance.

Newton Crabtree received word from Aberdeen where his wife is under treatment for cancer, that she is very low.

Rev. Alvin of Albany has services at our school house Sundays.

Anyone wanting potatoes at 50¢ a bushel, onion seed at $1 a pound, or fine baled out straw at $5 a ton, can get the same at Santiam Farm.

Hits a Western Industry.

The cooperage industry in the northwest will be hit to the tune of $15,000,000 if a new classification rule is adopted.

The little rule proposed requires that all barrels must be made of well seasoned hardwood and have 6 steel hoops weighing 9 pounds.

It is estimated that 95 per cent of the food products made on the Pacific coast, aside from milling products, are shipped in fir barrels.

The fir cooperage industry has $15,000,000 invested on the Pacific coast and thousands of people are employed. Much of the lighter cooperage has wooden hoops and the change in classification is plainly in the interest of eastern manufacturers, and would increase the cost of dairy, fish and food products to the consumer.

SCHOOL NOTES.

Scio high school plays Stayton high school at a boys' basketball game in Wesley hall tomorrow (Friday) evening. Stayton defeated Scio earlier in the season 23 to 12. Both teams have undoubtedly improved since then. Scio has not yet been defeated on her own floor except by the alumni. Will Stayton be able to win? Other games this season will be Scio and Shedd boys' teams February 18, and Scio and Halsey double header February 25. The girls play Chemawa here on March 4.

Lebanon won the triangular debate contest from Scio and Sweet Home by defeating Sweet Home 3 to 0 and Scio 2 to 1. Scio won a 2 to 1 decision at Sweet Home. The score stands Lebanon 5, Scio 3, Sweet Home 1.

The new course in higher arithmetic is very popular. About 30 students have enrolled.

Watch for announcements concerning the seniors' play to be given soon.

The January meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association was held on the 27th and the program prepared and rendered by the men members proved a very acceptable one. F. T. Thayer presided and called on the following to speak a piece, play a tune, sing a song or tell a story.

On the following day she was taken to the hospital where she could have better care than at home. Owing to her advanced age the attack is likely to prove serious.

As we go to press this morning, Mrs. Dugger lies in a comatose condition and is not expected to live throughout the day.

AMERICA APOLOGIZES FOR BERGDOLL AFFAIR

Colonel Is Sent to Tell Germans That Commander Did Not Give Order for Arrest.

Berlin, Jan. 31.—Brigadier-General Henry T. Allen, commander of the American army of occupation, has made a formal apology to both the Berlin and the Baden governments for the attempt by men connected with the American forces to arrest Grover Bergdoll, American draft evader, and his chauffeur, Isaac Stecher, says an official German government statement today.

The statement says Colonel Stone, acting on orders from General Allen, called on the imperial commission for the occupied Rhine area and declared General Allen desired to make an apology to the German and Baden governments, and further said he had given no orders for the attempt against Bergdoll, which he deplored.

The order for Bergdoll's arrest, General Allen stated, was issued by the provost marshal in Coblenz, who only recently arrived and who was under the impression Bergdoll was sojourning in the French occupied zone.

Farm and Home Reminders.

[From O. A. C. Departments]

Milk, eggs and well cooked vegetables will produce better growth of children than meat which should be used sparingly or not at all until the child is six or seven years old. For very young children the vegetables may be cooked, put through a sieve, and given with milk, or on toast.

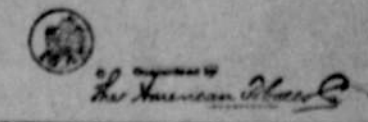

Vegetables grown in the northwest should be grown from seeds grown in the northwest. Climaticization of these seeds makes them better. This is especially so of sweet corn, cabbage and root crops. Seed obtained from a reliable dealer is preferable to that bought in packages at the grocery, most of which is middle western or eastern seed.

Bride—Is there any age at which children cease to be a care?

Nonagenarian—I can't say. My oldest is only 70.
