J. P. Quigley of Harrisburg was in town Saturday.

Miss Ruth Muller left for her home at Eugene Friday to spend the week end.

Where the deuce does a girl get vaccinated now so that it won't show?

Jerome Smith of Seapoose was looking after business interests in town Monday.

Tuesday, with its bright sunshine, was more like an early summer day than the fog end of winter.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Bilyeu, Mrs. Hassler and Mrs. Her and children motored to Albany Wednesday.

It is reported that Uncle Johnnie Gaines is suffering from another attack of paralysis.

A. C. Roussin, who is teaching in the Gaining district, was looking after business interests in town Saturday.

W. I. Burton, who has been laid up for a few days, was again on the milk route Thursday.

C. R. Apple and Leonard Gilkey are reported as enjoying a siege of mumps.

Miss Helen V. Crawford of Lebanon made a hurried trip to Scio on Monday evening to be with her sister, Mrs. T. L. Dugger, who was suddenly taken ill.

Monday N. J. Weddle was out with a force of men disentangling telephone wires in order to keep patrons in good humor.

Our tie mills are likely to be quite busy during the coming summer as a home demand for their output is probable.

Ray Eshelman of Salem and a relative of W. M. Abbott, is not expected to live. His sickness is due to heart trouble.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Crawford and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Crawford of Albany came over Tuesday, called here by the severe illness of their sister, Mrs. G. A. Dugger.

Possum dog in Texas treed 18 quarts of moonshine. Fellow over in next county wants to know price of the dog.

The high wind of Saturday afternoon did some damage in the Scio country, tangling telephone lines, etc.; but it did things to the new Linn county fair grounds at Albany is the report.

"Every day I find something new about my car," said the printer. "So do I," said John Crabtree. "This morning I found three hairpins and a powder puff."

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Studnicka and Miss Anna Kotan motored to Harrisburg Saturday. Miss Kotan will spend the week end with her sister Mary, who is teaching school at that place.

During the absence of Sam Stoller who went and got married and is now on a honeymoon tour, Frank Bartu is acting as captain, pilot and roustabout of the freight and express truck with neatness and dispatch.

Following are the officers of Scio lodge of Masons: John Kelly, W. M.; Z. J. Clark, S. W.; John Sticha, J. W.; E. D. Myers, treas.; J. D. Densmore, sec.; E. G. Arnold, S. D.; Geo. Griffin, J. D.; John Frost, S. S.; P. H. Macdonald, J. S.; A. L. Shelton, Tyler.

The Henningsen Produce company has sold its Portland Hazelwood creamery business which includes the country cream stations as well, but it does not include the produce business nor outside creameries, condenseries, etc. The Scio condensery still belongs to and is operated by the Henningsen people.

"How should I manage a campaign?"

"Promise anything."
"I mean to win a girl, not office."
"The same rule applies."

"Do you think men ought to be prohibited from standing on the corner and giving the short skirts the once over?" "Certainly not; I don't believe in anything that interferes with the freedom of the seas."

There was a little hen and she laid a lot of eggs;
She hatched 'em into chickens with feathers on their legs!
The chickens grew to pullets, as such like chickens orter;
And each sold in the market for two dollars and a quarter.

It's wonderful to think about
The power of the press.
It tells us what the statesmen say
And how the ladies dress.
What's on at every movie show
And who is going wrong.
Without this monitor and guide
We couldn't get along.

Railroad engineers were busy about Scio last week. They run a line near the condensery and another to the south and west part of town. It is whispered that neither line leading to Crabtree is satisfactory.

Governor Elliott has designated February 14-19 as prune week. It seems that the growers were unable to dispose of their crops and the idea of the governor is for everyone to stock up with prunes during that week. Our printer says every week is prune week because they make him feel young.

E. Carlson of near Shedd was in the Scio country last week in the interests of the Farm Bureau. He desires The Tribune to say that he is greatly pleased by the friendly and courteous treatment he received from the people and also that he nearly fell in love with the Scio country.

The Tribune is informed its statement concerning the shooting of young Hassler of last week is incorrect. We gathered our information from street reports. No one pretended to know the facts. A good plan, boys, is to give the editor the facts about incidents of this character. If he is compelled to gather his data from street reports and they are incorrect, who is to blame? The shooting is a fact; the why and wherefore is another matter.

Riley Shelton, the veteran real estate broker of Scio, and John F. Kukaeka of Scio, who has experience in the business of land selling, are now operating together in a general real estate brokerage business in Scio; both are bonded, licensed brokers under the laws of the state of Oregon, and are now ready to handle land deals, provided the price is right, for those who desire to sell. Call and list your farm lands, city property, and farm and city property for rent. We assure you, the seller and purchaser fair and just treatment.—Pd. adv.
