

LOCAL NEWS BREVITIES

Scio pays a very high city tax, but what do we get for it in return?

Sheriff Kendall was joy riding over as far as Scio last Sunday.

The Scio power line now has the wiring completed to Jordan.

Scio will miss E. C. Peery in public affairs when he removes to Portland.

Miss Hazel Philippi spent Sunday at home with her parents.

Anton Liska returned Tuesday from a short trip to Portland.

Three noisy airplanes headed north roared past Scio Friday noon.

Miss Ruth Muller spent the week end at her home in Eugene.

Ed and Ad Fleming motored to Albany Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Shimanek of Mill City spent Sunday at the home of Ed Posvar.

William Downing and son Orville of Lyons were in town Thursday looking after business interests.

M. Bilyeu, who has been serving on the jury in Albany, returned home last Wednesday.

George Balsiger, the merchant at Lyons, was transacting business in town Saturday.

Mrs. Rose Bennett of Nebraska arrived last Sunday at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. W. Shimanek.

Last Wednesday evening Mrs. W. S. Carpenter entertained the teachers of the Scio school at her home. A delicious supper was served.

Mrs. J. C. Edwards was called to her home in Spokane Tuesday by the sickness of her husband who has pneumonia.

Miss Edris Peery likes the present fine weather of Scio so well that she has concluded to prolong her visit another week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Ellwood left Tuesday evening for Nebraska and intend to make their future home there.

A recent convention of plumbers was delayed while the chairman went back to the shop for a gravel.

Mr. Kimsey and others were over from Albany Sunday, visiting at the home of E. C. Peery.

Scio's contribution to the Chinese relief fund was $135, which was forwarded to the county committee.

Seems like good old times to meet a man now and then, again, with egg on his vest.

J. A. Moist of Lebanon, former owner of the Scio Produce House, was in town Monday buying potatoes.

Dr. J. G. Gill and family of Lebanon were over last Sunday visiting his parents, the M. C. Gills.

What has become of the o. f. little girl who put on long skirts and played house?

Editor W. L. Jackson and family of Albany visited at the E. C. Peery home Sunday.

The Easter program at the federated church Sunday night is said to have been very fine.

Easter Sunday was the forerunner of a short spell of good weather anyway. Mill street mud nearly disappeared.

Riley Shelton, road overseer, was smoothing up the road to West Scio Monday. The road was said to be badly cut up.

Country Club, the Scio brand of condensed milk was selling in Salem last week for 11 cents a can, while here at home where the milk is put up we pay 15 cents a can.

Mr. Bowser, proprietor of the Scio Produce House, expects to move his place of business to the building now occupied by J. D. Densmore, who will move just across the street.

The program at the church Sunday night was well received. At the close a collection amounting to $13 was taken for the relief of the starving Chinese.

Gail Jones drove over from Albany Wednesday for a short visit with relatives and friends.

Mrs. Wm. Brenner, Mrs. J. S. Sticha and the Misses Doris Weddle and Vella Brenner were shopping in Albany Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis of Salem were week end guests of Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Hobson.

Mrs. Lewis, who has been visiting her sister Mrs. E. H. Hobson, returned to her home in Salem Thursday.

Enoch Shelton will blossom forth next week behind the steering wheel of a brand new Ford with all the fixins, purchased this week. Speed cop, take notice.

Mrs. W. F. Gill and Mrs. F. T. Bilyeu went to Portland Friday returning home Sunday by auto with Fred Bilyeu as chaperone and chauffeur of a new car.

Let us hope that as Linn county will have but two members in the lower house and one in the upper, that men of ability be selected for the places.

Do you remember the old fashioned workman who used to come down town Saturday night and boast about how much work he could do in a day?

D. C. Thoms, Sam Zysset, Art Shelton and J. A. C. Brant went to Jefferson last Thursday night to see the E. A. degree conferred on three candidates by Jefferson lodge No. 33, A. F. & A. M.

No change has been made in the coyote bounty law; $4 is allowed for females and $2.50 each for male coyotes and pups. Pelts are marked as in the past.

When Dr. Hobson was asked a few days ago about the general health of the community, he replied "It's distressingly healthy."

W. H. Galvin of Mill City was in town Wednesday on his return trip to Mill City. He is interested in the stock business.

News was received here Wednesday morning that Mrs. Isaac Diekey who used to reside in Scio had died and was going to be buried at the Franklin Butte cemetery Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. John Kelly was hostess Friday evening to a card party given in honor of Mr. Kelly's bulldog. The color scheme of white and yellow was carried throughout the decorations. The luncheon consisted of ice cream and cake. The guests were Messrs and Mesdames E. G. Arnold, J. S. Sticha, P. H. MacDonald, Herman Eckhart, Walter Bilyeu, Roy Shelton, Dr. A. G. Prill, Dr. E. H. Hobson. Fred Jones presented Mr. Kelly with a handsome cigarette case.

Condensery Notes.

The Scio milk condensery, owned by the Henningsen Produce company of Portland, is reported to be receiving 12,000 pounds of milk per day at present with prospects in a short time of perhaps double that amount. The company at present has orders for a month, it is said, but the price of the product in the general market is down. The usual activity of gathering milk from the various sections of the country by auto truck will be followed this season. Local manager E. C. Peery is to be transferred to the main office of the company in Portland, but will continue to be manager of the Scio plant, it is reported.

House and two lots for sale. If not sold by April 15 will rent to desirable tenant. Will also sell furniture in whole or in part to suit.

J. R. JONAS.

Five-h. p. upright gas engine in good running order for sale cheap.

OREGON NEWS NOTES OF GENERAL INTEREST

Principal Events of the Week Briefly Sketched for Information of Our Readers.

The Crater Lake Oil & Gas company has leased several thousand acres near Merrill.

Hubbard Bilyeu, 72, a resident of Oregon and Linn county for 69 years, is dead at Albany.

A coast artillery company of the Oregon National Guard, with 70 men enlisted, was mustered at Albany.

W. T. Kutch, one of the oldest pioneers of Oregon, celebrated his ninety-fifth birthday at Carlton last week. Improvements to cost $75,000 have been started on the naval radio station on Youngs bay, south of Astoria.

Reduced rates on lumber and shingles from the Pacific northwest to eastern markets are effective March 31.

The Dalles police have started a coast-wide search for W. J. One, local merchant, who disappeared last Monday night.

Wheat stocks now held by Umatilla county farmers will be assessed at 60 cents a bushel, according to R. O. Hawks, assessor.

The Malheur county farm bureau has fixed the wages of farm laborers for the coming season at 20 cents an hour, room and board.

Daniel Lane, living eight miles north of La Grande, was burned to death in his home when flames completely destroyed his residence.

Farmers from all sections of Marion county assembled in Salem and organized what will be known as the Salem Broccoli association.

Early construction of the $125,000 municipal auditorium in The Dalles, bonds for which were voted last summer, has been decided on.

A. C. Howlett, who celebrated his eighty-ninth birthday at Eagle Point on March 16, is rounding out 63 years as a newspaper correspondent.

Taxes levied on gasoline and distillate sold in Oregon during the period February 26, 1919, to February 28, 1921, netted the state $854,272.

The Eugene office of the United States employment service sent 49 people out to jobs during the last week. Of this number 11 were farm hands.

The Gold Hill cement plant, which suspended operations last December, has resumed with a crew of 110 men. The output of the plant is 1200 barrels daily.

State headquarters for the Oregon Grain Growers' association will be established in The Dalles, it was announced by directors of the new association.

The Hood River Apple Vinegar company, which has been engaged for several years in bottling soft drinks, is planning to can soups, vegetables and spaghetti.

The general board of education of the Presbyterian church has offered to give $100,000 to the endowment fund of Albany college provided the college raises $200,000.

Another drop of $3 a thousand in the price of common lumber was announced last week in Vale, making the total reduction about 50 per cent below last year's prices.

Dr. Norman Bouchet, slayer of his sweetheart, Ruth V. Richards, was found guilty of manslaughter by a jury in the court of Circuit Judge Stapleton in Portland.

Five candidates for postmaster at Roseburg have definitely announced their intention of seeking the appointment by the republican administration to succeed Postmaster Reizmatine.

Fire which was believed to have ignited in a woodshed at the rear of the building caused a loss estimated at $45,000 to the women's apparel store conducted by Kafoury Bros. in Salem.

All national guard units in Oregon, with the exception of a hospital organization to be located at La Grande, have been completed and are functioning, according to Adjutant-General White.

Spencer Carlson, Marshfield, has been appointed principal midshipman to Annapolis naval academy by Representative Hawley. Wallace J. Walsh of Newport has been named first alternate.

The state convention and campmeeting of the Seventh-Day Adventist church will be held in Eugene in May if the citizens pay half of the expenses of bringing the big tents and other paraphernalia there.

O. E. EICHINGER, Pres.

D. C. THOMS, Sec. and Manager

Scio Milling Company

Prices for week ending April 9, 1921.

Golden Pheasant Flour	$2.00	Olympic Hard Wheat Flour	$2.75
Graham Flour	2.00	Wheat Hearts, 10s	.80
Rye Flour	2.75	Pancake Flour	.75
Corn	2.10	Corn Meal, per lb.	.05
Corn, cracked or ground	2.25	Alfalfa Meal	1.80
Mill run, 80s	1.50	Alfalfa and Molasses	1.90
Bran, 100s	1.80	Scratch Feed	3.40
Wheat Chop	3.00	Egg Maker	3.40
Oat Chop	1.40	Cocanut Meal	2.00
		Oil Meal	3.90

Always Comes Back.

Editors have been called most everything; now it is an editor himself who has discovered that the editor is a worm—that seldom turns. For, says the editor of the Wheatland Gazette of Iowa, "You can criticize his paper, call it the village joke, send your jobwork out of town, pan him whenever you wish, but he always comes right back, if he is the right sort, with a boost for the town."

Pure home rendered lard for sale in quantities to suit. F. T. Thayer.

If you have a house or farm to sell or rent, come and see E. C. Shelton, who has his office at present at H. B. Iler's barber shop.

For sale—30 head pigs and shoats. Phone Lebanon 41 F 22, or Chas. C. Davis, R. 3, Scio, Oregon. 2t*

For Sale—Three year old Registered Holstein Bull. Joe Novak. 3t

Farm hand wanted—Phone or see Fred Roadarmel, R. F. D. 1.

Let us hope the abutting property holders will improve Mill street this year and get at it early. Delay in public work is sometimes disastrous, as witness last year. The condition of the street during the past winter and at the present time was and is a disgrace to our town. Also some sort of crosswalks on Main street should be provided that would serve a double purpose—keep pedestrians out of the mud and prevent auto speeding.

L. H. McMahan of Salem has filed with the state engineer's office an application to appropriate 150 second feet of water from Mill creek and the North Fork of the Santiam river for the development of 512 horsepower.

Joseph C. Poeschl, slayer of Charles J. Schnabel, prominent Portland attorney, was found guilty of murder in the second degree by a jury which recommended the maximum penalty under the law of life imprisonment.

A committee from the Eugene chamber of commerce has been appointed to act with a like committee from the University of Oregon to arrange for a formal dedication of the woman's building at the university of Oregon early in May.

Director Davis of the reclamation service is expected to name the commission within a few days which is to make an examination of the Deschutes Irrigation project in Oregon, for which congress has made an initial appropriation of $400,000.

There are approximately 925,000 acres of irrigated land in Oregon, exclusive of Deschutes county, which has about 75,000 acres under water, according to a report of the United States census bureau received at the offices of Percy A. Cupper, state engineer.

Examination of stills seized in Deschutes county reveals the fact that the man who drinks moonshine whiskey literally takes his life in his hands. Sheriff Roberts declares. Evidence shows that 70 per cent of Deschutes county distillers are rank amateurs.

The divorce action of Marjorie Hawley against Willard P. Hawley Jr., of Oregon City, appealed from Clackamas county, will be heard by the Oregon supreme court early in June, according to an announcement made by Arthur Benson, clerk of the supreme court.

Jed Edsall and a number of other residents of Jackson county have filed a petition with the Oregon public service commission asking permission to operate a motor car over the tracks of the Pacific & Eastern railroad which extends from Medford to Butte Falls.

DR. J. W. GOIN,
Veterinarian,
Authorized Auction Sale and Interstate Inspector.
Phones:—Palace Feed Shed, 184 J
Residence, 500-R
ALBANY, OREGON

For sale—3 registered shorthorn bulls, coming 2 years old, at bargain price. David Horsburgh, R 3-294*

For sale—Jersey cow, due to be fresh very soon. Also a 200-chick brooder. F. J. Kule, Shelburn. *

Fifteen goats for sale cheap if taken at once. T. B. Prospal. *

For Sale—Red Clover Seed re-cleaned not damaged by fall rains, Price 25c. per lb.

John Shimanek, Scio, R. F. D.

Clover Seed—I have a quantity of red clover seed, re-cleaned for sale at 25 cents per pound.

Harry Chrisman, Scio, Ore.

Red clover seed for sale at 25¢ lb; Oregon standard purity and germination. F. T. Thayer.

Oregon Made Home Knitting Yarns.

A great surprise for the home knitters of Oregon, but still a fact. Furthermore, this yarn is absolutely virgin wool yarn; the wool was grown in Linn county, sold by Mr. Senders to the Oregon Worsted Company (mills located at Sellwood), made into worsted yarn by Roy T. Bishop, son of C. P. Bishop, proprietor of the Woolen Mill Store of Salem. Oregon knitters try this yarn out. All colors. 40¢ per ball of 2 ozs. Samples sent on application. Address C. P. Bishop, Box 75, Salem, Oregon.

KRYPTOKS CLEVERLY CONCEALS THE FACT THAT THE WEARER NEEDS DOUBLE VISION GLASSES. In improving the appearance and conserving the eyesight, Kryptoks are a priceless possession.

J. D. Meade
Optometrist.
ALBANY, OREG.

HAROLD ALBRO,
Manufacturing Optician

GLASSES FITTED
BY
Graduate Optometrist
PRICES REASONABLE
Private office for examinations
F. M. FRENCH & SONS
ALBANY

WE HAVE EVERYTHING OPTICAL
EYE STRAIN
Is the cause of many HUMAN ILLS
BANCROFT
Optical Company
313 W. 1st St., Albany