Albany should have had her home products show simultaneous with her fourth of July races. Functions so near together in the same town are not apt to attract the number of visitors they would if pulled off at the same time.

Don't forget the farm bureau picnic at Wilson Park Sunday. W. W. Poland, the farmer orator, will deliver the main address.

Miss Winnifred Ferris, nurse at the hospital, is enjoying a two weeks vacation at her home in Clatskanie.

The continuous movies given by Frances Wesely and Ruth Eichinger at Sunny Crest terminated Tuesday, when Miss Frances returned home from her visit with Miss Ruth.

Mrs. D. C. Thoms, who has been on the sick list several weeks, is able to be about again. Her father, Mr. Osborn, who at one time was very low, is improving as rapidly as could be expected, considering his age.

Brownsville is entertaining the pioneers and incidentally a large crowd of men and women born in Oregon, who know of ox teams across the plains only as a family tradition.

Commissioner Butler when here last week reported that work would begin last Monday in completing and rocking the road near Greens bridge. Work on this job was begun last year, but the early rains interfered.

The Tribune wonders if Mill street is to be improved this year. This is the fourth year the improvement has been called for. Time to get busy.

Scio needs several new residence structures. Lumber is now at a price when buildings can be erected at reasonable cost.

SANTIAM FARM TOPICS

Our school meeting was a success with a fair turnout. Elected Cara Lucas director and Hubert Burgett clerk.

We are enjoying two of the longest days of the year; from sun to sun 15 hours 40 minutes; night 9 hours 20 minutes.

A great demand for lambs and sheep for shipment to Portland.

Willis Mulligan and wife of Portland came up Saturday for a visit with brother Jim returning Monday.

Lester Bilyeu made a flying trip to Salem prospecting for an auto.

The Santiam Farm can furnish loganberries next week at 25¢ gallon; pie cherries soon; new potatoes at 5¢ pound, when wanted.

The old man had a fine patch of hay and could get no one to mow it, so he took his old scythe Sunday at 5 a. m. for exercise and at 5 p. m. had down an acre and a half. Guess I'm worth two dead men yet.

Elmer Griffin has his new house about finished and will soon hang out his bait to induce some susceptible widow to keep house for him while he runs with the chickens.

Our long looked for rain came in the nick of time, so now we will have fair crops and plenty potatoes.

Newt Crabtree returned home Friday from pioneers' meeting in Portland and reports a good time; says he saw the elephant with a long tail.

Dave Horsburgh has treated himself to a new Dodge car and now can take the family out for a joy ride—when he finds time.

PIE EATER.

Oregon Made Home Knitting Yarns.

A great surprise for the home knitters of Oregon, but still a fact. Furthermore, this yarn is absolutely virgin wool yarn; the wool was grown in Linn county, sold by Mr. Senders to the Oregon Worsted Company (mills located at Sellwood), made into worsted yarn by Roy T. Bishop, son of C. P. Bishop, proprietor of the Woolen Mill Store of Salem. Oregon knitters try this yarn out. All colors. 45¢ per ball of 2 ozs. Samples sent on application. Address C. P. Bishop, Box 75, Salem, Oregon.

Do You Know Why Our Customers Ask for Kryptoks?

Because Kryptok lenses and blanks are of the finest quality.

Because Kryptoks are the only invisible bifocal and they give the greatest amount of satisfaction to the wearer.
