

U. S. ARMY HEAD ASKS ARMENIAN AID

Washington. — Major General James G. Harbord, recently appointed General Pershing's assistant Chief of Staff, has gone on record in support of the work of the Near East Relief in Armenia. He says, in a letter to the Near East Relief: "Of all the heart-breaking distress that exists in other countries, I believe that the Near East situation should most appeal to our charitable people. There are many thousands of helpless orphans—children of Christian parents in a Moslem land, who must be helped by our people if they are to survive. The Armenians have preserved their race, their religion and their language under conditions of distress for over a thousand years. They are worthy of a better fate than to perish, and I believe that will be their fate without substantial financial and moral support from the good people of our country."

"J. G. HARBORD, Major General, U. S. Army." General Harbord is one of the trustees of the Near East Relief organization, now making a general appeal for funds to continue its work among the destitute of Bible lands.

Oregon Made Home Knitting Yarns.
A great surprise for the home knitters of Oregon, but still a fact. Furthermore, this yarn is absolutely virgin wool yarn; the wool was grown in Linn county, sold by Mr. Senders to the Oregon Worsted Company (mills located at Sellwood), made into worsted yarn by Roy T. Bishop, son of C. P. Bishop, proprietor of the Woolen Mill Store of Salem. Oregon knitters try this yarn out. All colors. 45c per ball of 2 ozs. Samples sent on application. Address C. P. Bishop, Box 75, Salem, Oregon.

The harvest of winter wheat and oats continues, according to the weekly bulletin of the weather bureau, and harvest of spring grain is well advanced except in elevated districts, while considerable threshing has been done. Hot, dry weather has caused material injury to late spring grain in most parts of the state. Irrigated corn is growing well under the influence of the warm weather, but unirrigated corn is in serious need of rain.

Shipments Almost Double

Carload shipments of fruits and vegetables this season up to July 2 were nearly twice as great as those during the corresponding period last season, despite increase in freight rates, according to statistics just published in the Market Reporter, official publication of the Department of Agriculture.

So far this season, according to that publication, carload shipments have totaled 598,524, compared with 315,597 during the corresponding period last year. The Oregon Growers Association contributed to this big increase by the shipment of 45 carloads of cherries alone.

Tabulations by states as to carload shipments up to June 4 show that of thirteen fruits and vegetables, decreases occurred in only two while increases were reported in eleven.
