

LOCAL BREVITIES

R. C. Peppering was in Albany on business last Thursday.

W. A. Ewing and wife were business visitors in Albany over Saturday.

Mrs. J. Williams visited friends in Albany a couple of days last week.

Mrs. S. A. Gamber of Scio was an arrival last Friday to visit with Mrs. Haggie Miller.—Halsey Enterprise.

Mrs. Clara Griffin, daughter of Mrs. A. Pomeroy, has returned from Suntext, Eastern Oregon, and will locate again in Scio.

Mrs. Julia Bilyeu spent Saturday and Sunday in Portland on business for the Pythian Sisters, of which she is Grand Chief for Oregon.

Bertha Patry spent Wednesday of last week in Albany.

Even Thomas creek is getting all swelled up for Bargain Day.

Dr. and Mrs. John Gill, of Lebanon, were Scio visitors Sunday.

George Leever, wife and daughter of Providence spent Sunday in Scio.

Mr. and Mrs. Anton Rasprofka spent the week end in Albany on business.

Mrs. Jack Cook was confined to bed the first of the week with a sore throat.

S. B. Cola and wife of Crabtree spent Sunday calling on friends in this city.

Mrs. Price Neal and son were business visitors in the county seat Saturday.

Louis Calavan and wife, of Lebanon, were visitors here over the week-end.

Trade with the store that has the Bargain Day card in the window. It will pay you to.

E. W. Alden was among the many who spent the week-end at Linn county's capitol.

Mr. and Mrs. John Frost spent a pleasant day Saturday shopping in the Albany stores.

Watch for Bargain Day cards in the windows.

Isaline Keater was confined to bed for several days with a severe cold and a touch of tonsillitis.

F. J. Weid and family and Miss Myrtle Myers of Jefferson spent a few hours in Scio Sunday.

Clair Thomas, of Scio, and Hal Shelton, of Lyons, were county seat visitors the last of the week.

John Wesely is rebuilding the old shack opposite the fire hall and will use it for a store house.

F. D. Cornett, Mr. and Mrs. Stout and children and John Crabtree of Crabtree were county seat visitors Tuesday.

Elmer Ray, who was operated on for a pias appendix at the local hospital several days ago is recovering nicely.

W. H. Young and family arrived from Camas, Wash., last Friday for a visit with relatives and friends over Sunday. They returned home Monday.

Fred Bilyeu, Chris Bilyeu and Nolan Parrish returned Saturday night from a hunting trip to Quartzville. They have not said anything about their luck.

Mike Bilyeu seems to have a very good reason for going to Albany so often, if what we hear is true. He was one of the Albany visitors last Saturday.

Among the large crowd of Scioans in Albany on Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Roe Phillips, who spent the day shopping and renewing acquaintances.

R. V. Craft spent Friday in the county's metropolis attending to a few urgent business matters, as well as visiting old acquaintances and a few relatives.

Lloyd Henson, Virgil Henson, Frank Turnich and E. W. Barcliff of Lacombe were Scio visitors Sunday. They were accompanied by their wives and sweethearts.

Rev. Boyce, of Lacombe accompanied by his son and daughter, spent Sunday in Scio attending evangelistic services. Mr. and Miss Boyce sang in the choir.

Mrs. Art Shelton and son Eldon accompanied Mr. Shelton to Albany Saturday. Mr. Shelton went to interview the court, while Mrs. Shelton put in the day shopping.

Miss Emma Kruml, of Seattle, spent last week in Scio with her parents. She says she is one of the lucky ones who have good jobs, being employed by the Seattle Wheel Works.

J. N. Weddle spent last Thursday in Salem taking medical treatment, and returned by way of Albany. Either while in Albany or on the train he had the misfortune to lose a five dollar bill.

Eventualy, why not now? A bigger, better and growing town, Scio. Bring your trade to Scio and help make this the liveliest town in Linn county. Start Saturday, September 24. Bargain Day.

If some of the backward ones who are against any higher taxes for roads had to change tires at half past one Monday afternoon it would soak into them that money could be spent in no better way.

Ona Shelton, of Scio, and G. H. Bilyeu, of Lebanon, are at Tekoa, Wash., looking after farming interests there. They went by auto and will take in the Pendleton Round-up before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Long and son Eldred spent Saturday in Albany shopping and assisting their other son, Spencer and wife, in leaving for Portland, where Spencer will undergo another operation.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Arbuckle and daughter Blanche and Mrs. Clara Smith were in Albany shopping last Saturday. The Arbuckles expect to leave soon for Petaluma, Calif., where they expect to reside.

Dr. Prill has proved the old adage of "a stitch in time saves nine", at least to himself. Two weeks ago he performed an operation on Elmer Ray for appendicitis and somehow managed to poison his finger, and blood poison became so bad that it was necessary for the doctor to remain in bed for five days. He is now well on the road to recovery.

Ford
THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Genuine Common Sense

Many Ford owners can afford to own and operate any car they choose, but they prefer a Ford "because it is a Ford."

For "because it is a Ford" means dependability, ease of operation, efficiency—and it means sure, quick transportation.

And "because it is a Ford" means good taste, pride of ownership and genuine common sense.

The Ford Sedan, a closed car of distinction, beauty and convenience, is the ideal all year 'round car, for pleasure or business—for the farm, town or city. It gives you all that any car can give at a much lower cost for operation and maintenance.

Ford Cars of all types are in great demand, so place your order at once if you wish to avoid delay in delivery.
