

AMATEUR HIGHWAYMAN ENTERS PEACEFUL SCIO

Flourishes Revolver in Face of Mrs. Joe Nemic, Drops It to Floor While Making His Demands

An amateur burglar and prowler attempted to get some practice along the line of his chosen vacation in Scio Sunday night about 9 o'clock, starting in on Mrs. Joe Nemic, whose husband is away on business.

Some friends had spent the evening with Mrs. Nemic, and when they left she accompanied them to their car, spent several minutes outside and when she went back in the house she was confronted with an ugly looking revolver. When the prowler and Mrs. Nemic met, the burglar dropped his gun, picked it up and started talking.

Mrs. Nemic was too frightened to listen to what he said, but she replied "there is only 75c in the house, take that and leave me alone." The prowler looked around for a few moments, dropped his gun again and then apparently became frightened and fled.

Mrs. Nemic says she has seen the face of the burglar before, and will instantly recognize him again if she should see him. No arrest has been made so far.

It is thought the burglar knew of Mr. Nemic's absence, and thinking Mrs. Nemic might have a considerable sum of money on hand, prompted the attempt at burglary to be made at this home.

Local Market Quotations

Corrected at Noon Tuesday

POULTRY, VEAL AND EGGS

Hens, 4 lbs and over	$.21
Hens, under 4 lbs	.11
Springs, 2 lbs and up	.19
Broilers, under 1 1/2 lbs	.25
Stags	.15
Veal, fancy no. 1	.13 1/2
Dressed pork, no. 1 blockers	.12 1/2
Eggs, cash, 41, trade	.43
Eggs, white select	.41
Butter fat	.47

FEE

Mill run	$1.13
Scratch	2.90
Egg producer	2.90
More fat, for hogs	2.00
Ground barley	2.10
Rolled barley	2.80
Corn	2.25

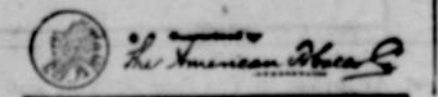

FLOUR

Hard wheat	$2.25-2.35
Soft wheat	1.64

Mrs. I. Morris of Eugene was a Scio visitor the last part of the week.

Notice this delicious flavor when you smoke Lucky Strike—it's sealed in by the toasting process

CLUB MEMBERS WINNERS

Scio Youths Have Occasion for Joy When Prizes Are Awarded

There were a number of mighty happy club members in Scio last Friday when the county fair awards were made public, all three of the Angora goat awards going to local raisers. Lona Zysset took first prize, Marion Gilkey second, and Arnold Zysset third.

Millard Shelton exhibited four Shropshire sheep at both the state and county fairs, taking two first prizes, 1 second and 1 fourth at the state fair, and two first prizes, three seconds and one third at the county fair. Donald Shelton sold one of his fine lambs to a stock farmer while at the state fair in Salem.

Arnold Zysset, Millard Shelton and John Scott represented the Scio school team at the county fair.

CITY DADS HOLD MEETING

Passed Six New Ordinances and Transacted Routine Business

The regular monthly meeting of the city council was held last Thursday night at the office of the city recorder. After routine business was attended to and bills allowed, the council passed all the new ordinances recommended by the State Fire Marshal, and the passing of these ordinances was outgrowth of these recommendations, which was published in the Tribune in its issue of September 8. The text of each ordinance will be found in another column in this issue.

The power plant at Jordan was discussed and its possibilities put forth in every detail.

No further business appearing, the council adjourned.

Notice To Scio Citizens

The citizens, taxpayers and property owners, are hereby notified that six new city ordinances have been passed by the city council, the same complying with the recent recommendations of the State Fire Marshal, and those interested and likely to be affected, are requested to call at the city clerk's office and familiarize themselves with their provisions. The titles of the several ordinances follow:

"An Ordinance to Provide for the Safe Construction of Chimneys, Flues and Fireplaces."

"An Ordinance to Enlarge the Duties of the Chief of the Fire Department of the City of Scio, to Provide for the Registration of Persons, Firms and Corporations Engaged in the Installing of Electric Appliances and to Regulate Electric Wiring in or on Buildings, Awnings and Additions to Any Building, all Within the Limits of the City of Scio, and Providing a Penalty for Noncompliance."

"An Ordinance Regulating the Storage of Explosives."

"An Ordinance Regulating the Storage and Handling of Gasoline."

"An Ordinance Regulating the Burning of Refuse."

"An Ordinance Providing for the Cleanliness of Streets, Alleys and Premises."

Published by authority of the City Council, this 13th day of October, 1921. J. S. STICHA, City Clerk.

FOR SALE—Old papers, 10c per bundle at the Tribune office.

WAYNE THOMS WRITES FROM SOUTH AMERICA

In Short Letter Tells Some Interesting Things About the People, Their Homes and Country

Scio has its native son in the South American county of Bolivia, and he writes to a friend near Jefferson, who was kind enough to allow the Jefferson Review of that city to publish his letter in part. It seems that while Mr. Thoms likes South America he would appreciate a good Oregon fire, and we imagine a North American city would look good to him. The writer is the son of D. C. Thoms, of this city.

U. S. Consulate,
La Paz, Bolivia, S. A.
August, 18, 1921.

Dear Robert:

I think that this is the first time I have written you since I took the work in Louisville. As you note by the above address, I am in S. A. for a time at least. I came to do some geological work in northern Chili, and did not return to the states when that job was completed. I came to La Paz to look into the mining business and get placed if possible. In any event the trip is worth while and I shall have a grasp of the language that I would not obtain any other way.

La Paz is a town of about 80,000 people, situated in a deep gulch at an elevation of 13,000 feet above the sea. One notices the elevation when climbing the steep cobblestone streets. Any exertion produces a shortness of breath. The streets are rather narrow and crooked. They are also not overly clean. Many of the churches date date back to the Spaniards. Most of the buildings are made of mud although some are of brick. There are no heating stoves in the city and as it is now winter nearly everyone is about frozen. Fuel is scarce and expensive, so that is one reason why there are no stoves.

There are many beautiful furs and pelts and native blankets to be obtained at very reasonable prices considering the present exchange rate.

Mail is rather scarce and somewhat slow here, but I would like very much to hear from you sometime.

With best regards to all.
Wayne.

A display of furs from Bolivia, the property of H. W. Thoms, a son of D. C. Thoms, is being used as a decoration in the show window of the Blain clothing company this week. Mr. Thoms sent the furs, which are from the Alpaca and Jaquar, the principle fur bearing animals of the high South American mountains to his mother.

Parent-Teacher Meeting

The first Parent-Teacher meeting for this school year will take place Friday evening, Oct. 14th, at eight o'clock, in the High School auditorium. Everyone invited to attend and join the association, especially parents who have children attending school. At the close of the meeting a reception to the school faculty will take place. M. G. THOMS, 9c President.

Tell the advertiser you saw his ad in The Tribune.

SCIO MAN IS RUN DOWN

Truck Driven by Lacombe Man is Cause of Injuries—Accidental

W. T. Lee was struck by a truck belonging to a Lacombe resident at noon Wednesday of last week while in Albany attending the fair. He sustained a bruised head, an abrasion on one leg and a bruised thigh but was not seriously hurt. It is said that the right front wheel of the truck passed over Mr. Lee's legs.

The Scio man was crossing First street northward when the truck came from the east. It is reported that Mr. Lee was hurrying across the streets in an endeavor to pass before the truck should arrive.

The truck driver turned his machine into the rear of another truck that was parked in front of the Sternberg store at First and Broad-albin streets in an endeavor to avoid the accident. The trucks were not damaged.

ATTENDING GRAND LODGE

Grand Chief Julia Bilyeu and Local Delegates in Portland for Session

For the past year Scio has been honored by being the home of the Grand Chief of Pythian Sisters, and Scio has appreciated this honor.

Monday morning, Grand Chief Julia A. Bilyeu left for Portland to be present at the sessions of her committees preceding the opening of the 28th annual session of the order at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning in one of the Pythian halls in that city.

The work devolving upon the Grand Chief is becoming heavier with each succeeding year, and this year has been the most arduous of all. During the year Mrs. Bilyeu has traveled more than 5000 miles, has written more than 900 letters or an average of three for each working day, has issued nearly 90 special dispensations, has instituted 6 new temples, reinstated 3 temples, and has 6 new temples in process of formation. Altogether a big year's work, and never equaled by any predecessor, although the others have performed splendid work.

The rules of the order, we understand, prevent a Grand Chief from succeeding herself, and in this case it is too bad such a tireless worker cannot be rewarded by reelection.

The delegates from Leodas Temple besides Mrs. Bilyeu, are Mrs. Jennie Jones and Mrs. Lizzie Wesley.

The Sir Knights are also holding their annual convention in Portland and at the same time. The lodges of the K. P.'s have also experienced a substantial growth and are in the best of condition. The delegates from here are Henry Stepanek and John Sticha.

Planning For Eats

On Tuesday night the Intermediate B. Y. P. U. of the Baptist church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Milo Bartu to arrange for refreshments and appoint a committee to attend to this duty for Saturday night, on occasion of the visit of Geo. Young, the state organizer and director of the movement. Those present were, Misses Bertha Thayer, Ethel Bodie, Oreta Arnold, Grace Long, Maysell Hassler and Mildred Couey; Messrs. Marvin Long, Arthur McLain and Eldred Long; Mr. and Mrs. Milo Bartu and Rev. and Mrs. H. B. Iler.

A NEW CHURCH FOR SCIO IS IN PROSPECT

Meetings With Dignitaries Being Planned For the Immediate Future—Plans Are Being Drawn, However

Ever since the close of the special evangelistic services there has been considerable talk by the members of the Baptist church for a new home on the site now occupied the old church building and the parsonage. In fact, the members are so in earnest that a local contractor has been asked to formulate plans for the structure and have them ready for inspection and criticism, or approval, when Rev. J. C. Austin, of Portland, of the department of Baptist promotion for Oregon, comes here on the 23d for the purpose of hearing reports and looking over the plans. No definite action will be taken by the local members until Mr. Austin's visit, at which time Rev. Iler and his official family expect to receive wholesome advice upon the subject.

Rev. George H. Young, D. D., director of the department of religious education, will be in Scio next Saturday and Sunday, says Rev. Iler, and on these evenings Mr. Young wants to meet as many of the young people as possible and organize a Baptist Young People's Union in the local church. All young people interested in religious work should attend these meetings.

Having His Troubles

Everyone meets with disappointments in every undertaking. Something goes wrong for everyone sometime, and J. D. Densmore is just now meeting with his share of troubles in the building of his feed mill. Tuesday his blueprints arrived, over a week late, and they do not answer for his purpose at all. He has not said just what the trouble is, but he is going to Portland today for a conference with his engineers and to have the plans remodeled. The building has not been started yet, and it is not known just when construction will begin.

Heads, I Win; Tails, You Lose.
"What am I doing? I'm spinning a dime. If it's heads, I'll go to the lodge. If it's tails, I'll go down to the billiard hall. If the dime stands on edge, I'll stay home with you."—Athens Globe.

WHILE THEY LAST

We will give a package of Klenzo Dental Cream with every 40c Tooth Brush. Come early.

Kelly's Drug Store