THURSDAY, OCT. 13, 1921

THIS must be some crime wave.
A little ripple of it washed up on Scio Sunday night.

READ our clubbing offer on another page. Just a little gift of 75c to our friends, old and new, who care for that much saving.

A NEW feed mill, a new lodge hall, some new cement sidewalk and talk of a new church during the past month, show that Scio is on the map and growing daily.

THE TRIBUNE is rapidly gaining in subscriptions and advertising.
There's a reason. All the news of the community is given each week with the aid of an efficient corps of correspondents.

SINCE "Billy" Sunday has shown so much sympathy for "Fatty" Arbuckle since his first arrest on the charge of murder, we wonder how big his tears will be for him since his arrest for bootlegging?

THERE is a column in this paper that is the most interesting of all, because there is where the human interests begin. We refer to the column headed "You'll Find Your Wants Here." Turn to it now.

No Scio resident has reported seeing Roy Gardner in this "neck o' the woods" so far. We claim the distinction of being the only city of any size on the Pacific Coast he has not been seen in since his escape.

If the disarmament conference in Washington next month can clear away the smoke of the oratorical bombardment of our congressmen and senators and make them servants and not bosses of the people, there will be cause for hope of a permanent peace among peoples.

CONGRESS is still figuring on how it can saddle the taxes on the consumer so that Moneybags will be relieved. Five out of nine members announce they have found a way.
Now let the machinery begin to revolve, give employment to millions idle men and fair profit to the farmer, and they will bear the burden, as they will have to anyway.

The Oregonian says it is happily a good thing for the members of the Republican and Democratic parties do not have dues to pay, as do the Socialists and Nonpartisan League.
It is right in the sense meant to be conveyed, but bless your heart every citizen pays big tribute to the men and corporations that finance the old parties. It would be better if dues were paid—the rank and file would then have something to say about legislation, and now it is just go and vote and there it ends.

TIME FOR DRASTIC MEASURES TO BE USED

During the past week there has been three deaths and several injuries on the streets of Portland due to incompetency of automobile drivers.
In one instance, a woman who had lived in a certain part of the city all of her life did not know on what streets the car tracks were, and, with a borrowed auto she knew nothing about, killed a boy nine years of age and nearly killed two women. This happened last Saturday.
Friday a laborer who was crossing one of the less busy streets jumped to miss being struck by one car and saw himself directly in the path of another—in trying to avoid both he was struck by both. Neither driver gave assistance, for he was just a laboring man. In the case of the woman her car was damaged so she could not get away, was arrested and released on bail.

Sunday night an 18 year old girl was struck down and run over as she left a friend's home, and that driver made all haste to get away, leaving the girl with a fractured skull to die on the public streets, but she was found and taken to the hospital, where little or no hope was held out for her recovery.

Stop and think. Is it not time a strict law was passed compelling every person who drives a car on a public thoroughfare to be examined by a competent board of examiners before being licensed to drive a car.
This board would know whether or not the person being examined is competent to handle a car with safety to the lives of pedestrians and to the property of others. This plan would help to eliminate accidents by eliminating the incompetent. As it is now, anyone can get a driver's license by paying 25c for one to the State of Oregon. A cheap price we would say for the right to the rascally inclined to become a public menace and to leave death and destruction in their path. We also are mindful of the fact that certain duties fall upon the pedestrian, one of which is crossing streets at intersections, and if followed many accidents will be averted. The careful driver has enough to watch without looking after the jaywalkers—the careless drivers looks out for nothing.

If the authorities can do nothing with the criminally inclined drivers, then may the good Lord take a hand before another such accident occurs.

Wonder where Roy Gardner is now? We haven't heard from him for a long time.

"Fatty" Arbuckle's chief attorney, Dominguez, has quit him, it is said, because of a disagreement in regard to the amount of the fee asked—about 10 times what Roscoe wanted to pay. Can it be possible that a movie star is in process of going bankrupt?

Funny thing about this Brumfield fellow—sometimes he is insane and sometimes he isn't. Wonder which part he is acting now?

We suppose the reason the flies can't see the fly paper is because they left their "specks" behind last summer.
