Oregon Made Home Knitting Yarns

A great surprise for the home knitters of Oregon, but still a fact. Furthermore, this yarn is absolutely virgin wool yarn; the wool was grown in Linn county, sold by Mr. Senders to the Oregon Worsted Company (mills located at Sellwood), made into worsted yarn by Roy T. Bishop, son of C. P. Bishop, proprietor of the Woolen Mill Store of Salem. Oregon knitters try this yarn out. All colors. 45¢ per ball of 2 ozs. Samples sent on application. Address: C. P. Bishop, Box 75, Salem, Oregon.

THURSDAY, DEC. 1, 1921

GET that friend a Christmas present that will last a whole year, and each week be a source of much pleasure in the home. Subscribe for them to the TRIBUNE, $1.75 the year, in advance. Christmas subscriptions in by December 10 will receive a copy of the big Christmas edition of the TRIBUNE.

Present conditions indicate a bigger and better Christmas edition of the Tribune than we at first hoped to put out. Any one of the three big features of the paper will be well worth the price, and worth more than mere money to the relatives or friend who has moved to another city. Give us the name and address of the party you wish to send a paper to and ten cents and we will mail it to them.

ONE of the big packers, Armour & Co., announce sweeping wage reductions ranging from 3¢ per hour for those receiving 50¢ per hour, 5¢ per hour from those receiving 35¢ to 45¢ per hour, and 7¢ per hour from those receiving under 35¢ per hour. Thus again it is abundantly proven that the underpaid wage-earner bears the burden of the overhead and other expenses of the large corporations. No wonder there are radicals in such institutions—don't they get their first lessons from the employer? No man, whether native or foreign born, can remain a good honest citizen and see his family undernourished and half clothed.

SHELBURN ITEMS

November 28

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, of Washington, have been making C.V. Ashbaugh's a visit.

Miss Beatrice Lockhart and Miss Iris Powell returned to their home in Jefferson Tuesday. They were visiting with A. L. Powell's.

John Ransom, of O. A. C., spent the week-end with his parents in Shelburn.

Mr. and Mrs. Com Osborne were Sunday visitors with Clint Trexler.

George Miller and mother, Mrs. Miller, were Thanksgiving dinner guests of Mrs. Rose Gibbons.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Darby and little daughter, Ariene, called on Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Powell Sunday afternoon.

Ernest McCrea and family, of West Scio, and Virgil and Glen Shilling of Munkers, spent Thanksgiving with H. O. Shilling and family.

Mrs. Annie Hiron and son, Kenneth, of Corvallis, spent Thanksgiving with A. L. Powell's. They returned Sunday evening.

Mrs. W. H. McLain returned home Saturday evening from Salem, where she has been visiting her children.

About fifty of Mrs. Trollinger's friends and neighbors gave her a surprise party Thursday evening.

Arthur McLain, who is attending high school in Salem, spent the week-end with his parents.

J. W. Hiron and wife were Albany callers Thursday.

John Ortwein and son, Ernest, were transacting business in Stayton Wednesday.

Carl Follis and wife, who have been visiting relatives here, have returned to their home at Stayton.

Will Hiron and wife were shopping in Salem one day last week.

Fred Bowman and wife spent Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Tindall.

John Ortwein and family were Sunday dinner guests at the Quincy Crumes home.

Aunt Rosa Miller was visiting her daughter, Mr. Lena McLain, today.

Mr. Fleska, who is contractor on the James Trollinger home, has just returned from Jefferson, where he went to eat Thanksgiving dinner with home folks. He expects to have the house completed in a few days, and Mr. Trollinger will immediately occupy it.

Charlie Oglesby, of South Santiam, took Thanksgiving dinner with the Trollinger brothers.

Mrs. Guy Wyman and children have returned from a visit at the Billy Man's home.

The surprise party that was given Grandma Trollinger at her home on Thanksgiving evening, was enjoyed by all. There were 72 guests present.

John Wolf and wife and Mr. Wolf's parents, spent Wednesday with Quincy Crumes and family.

High School Notes

The Scio and Brownsville eleven played at Brownsville on Thanksgiving day. The score was 30 to 0 in favor of the latter. The Scio boys were not used to so much water and mud, and it seemed that all they could do was to get at the top of the hill and slide down—it seemed as if the goal was at the wrong end. The Scio eleven has won three and tied one game out of the ten games played this season. This is pretty good for a "green" team against the best teams in the valley.

The High School teachers and almost all of the High School students accompanied the football team to Stayton Nov. 18. Scio eleven won 13 to 7.

The boys basket ball team has been organized, with "Buck" White as captain and Gordon Wesely the manager. Practice will begin in earnest this week. The first game of the season will be played Dec. 9 with Jefferson in Wesely's hall.

There will be a program and pie social at the High School auditorium on Friday, Dec. 23, for the benefit of the girls basket ball team.

Several of the teachers were unable to attend institute last week on account of the flood.

Miss Miller has almost entirely recovered from a nervous breakdown and was able to return to her home at Eugene Sunday. She has spent the past three months in a Portland Sanitarium.

As the storm entirely destroyed our school flag, Roy Shelton has replaced it with another.

Rex Cobb is absent from school on account of illness.
