THE Irish question is like the prohibition question—nearly settled.

ALL signs point to a revival of business soon after the first of the year, not because of congress, but in spite of it.

No one is more competent to sympathize with President Harding than ex-President Wilson on this armament question. The same belligerent minority is still in congress.

THE Lebanon Express and Hubbard Enterprise were the only two of our exchanges issuing special Christmas editions. They were a credit to their community and merited the patronage accorded them.

THE new High School paper, The Scio Sphinx, made its bow to the public on the 20th. It is a 4-page paper, well edited, and liberally patronized by the local merchants. It is the intention of the students to issue the paper monthly during the remainder of the school year.

RUMOR has it that Postmaster General Will Hays is soon to resign his post in the Harding cabinet and accept a meagre situation with the motion picture business at a paltry salary of $100,000 a year. Most any of us would be glad to receive a salary of even $10,000 a year.

THE special session of the legislature is now in full swing. We suppose the members will each have a pet bill or so to muddle the situation as regards the 1925 fair and the protection to our paved highways. It is said Gov. Olcott will veto all bills except the two for which the special session was called.

THAT Illinois convict who escaped three days before his execution was some daring bird. Illinois will have to try him over when captured, because under the law he is now legally dead for the crime committed, for which he was tried, found guilty and sentenced to hang. No trace of him has been found.

Let the Tribune do your printing.

High School Notes

December 19

A gymnasium is now the main athletic topic up for discussion.
Scio surely needs one, and if it were built it could be paid for in time by basketball money alone.

Scio easily defeated Halsey in basketball last Friday. Halsey is one of the teams out for championship honors, so this victory gives Scio a firm step on the ladder.

The Scio Sphinx was published and distributed Monday afternoon.
Copies may be purchased from the circulation manager at 10c a copy.

The Student Body met last Tuesday to discuss student affairs. The new constitution was adopted with a few slight changes. It was also decided to have a Christmas tree.
Committees were appointed for program, decorating and drawing of names. We expect some lovely (?) presents—maybe.

Last Wednesday each class met to elect a representative for the student council for their respective classes.

A reception was given Friday night in honor of the Halsey basketball teams. REPORTER.
