Oregon Made Home Knitting Yarns
A great surprise for the home knitters of Oregon, but still a fact. Furthermore, this yarn is absolutely virgin wool yarn; the wool was grown in Linn county, sold by Mr. Senders to the Oregon Worsted Company (mills located at Sellwood), made into worsted yarn by Roy T. Bishop, son of C. P. Bishop, proprietor of the Woolen Mill Store of Salem. Oregon knitters try this yarn out. All colors. 45c per ball of 2 ozs. Samples sent on application. Address C. P. Bishop, Box 75, Salem, Oregon.

December 19

Lawrence and Edwin Bartnick and Theodore Snyder started to Scio Tuesday and left their car standing temporarily in front of the A. R. McDonald place. When they returned in a few minutes it was enveloped in flames. They finally succeeded in putting the fire out after it had done a lot of damage to the car. They got a ride to town, then went home and got a team of horses which they hitched to the front of the car and drove home considerably slower than they started. The origin of the fire is not known.

Mrs. J. S. Funk and Lila returned from Yamhill county last Sunday. They left Ivan Funk much improved in health.

Peter Peterson and wife returned last week from an extended visit to their daughter, Mrs. Cora Cantrell, at Hood River, and friends at Joseph and Enterprise, Wallowa county, and another daughter, Mrs. D. Eckley, near Tampa, Idaho. Mr. Peterson's son-in-law presented him with a tanned deer skin and a pair of buckskin gloves of which he is very proud.

Our farmers union held a very interesting session last Saturday evening, with S. B. Holt, our new president presiding.

A charavari was held Saturday evening at the Hanke home in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Hanke, who were married recently in Albany. Mrs. Hanke was Agnes Ray, daughter of Will Ray's, who live near Sanderson bridge.

J. W. McHenry and wife, of Corvallis, drove over Tuesday to look after their orchard, the "Mistletoe" at Gilkey.

Clifford Kelly, of Post, Crook county, was a visitor at the Leonard Gilkey home Wednesday.

Grace Bartnik returned to her work in Camas last Tuesday. L. W. Muzzy and wife, of Newberg, who also came for the funeral, left Wednesday for their home.

James Richardson has been ill with rheumatism ever since threshing last fall. He is too ill even to play his violin.

The ladies aid have been making comforts for some motherless children, which we call a very good deed.

Frank Prokon and family motored to Albany Friday.

Plans are being made for a big Christmas entertainment at our school house next Friday, December 23.

The attendance at our Sunday School is still increasing. Last Sunday officers were elected as follows; Supt., W. A. Gilkey; Asst. Supt., S. P. Crenshaw; Sec. Tres., Leonard Gilkey.

W. A. Gilkey and Leo Zellar attended the Pete Beebe trial today.

Louis Leo, of Crabtree, well known here, has been discharged from the state hospital for the insane.

W. A. and Leonard Gilkey and G. Miller, of Shelburn, local appraisers for the Federal land bank of Spokane, were appraising land near Jordan Thursday.

E. F. Gilkey visited at the George Flook home in Mehama the first of the week.

Charles Apple and two sons were calling in these parts last Saturday.

Mrs. Ahna Sommer is visiting her daughters in Stayton, Mrs. Clarence Beauchamp and Mrs. Margaret Shafer.

Our little frosts Thursday and Friday were no surprise as they were the first since Sept. 10.

Our appointments of our school board for a special meeting in district No. 77 on December 17 for the purpose of voting on a budget to raise some $300 was a fizzle from the start as there were only four members out. It seems as though our district is not much interested in our school.

John Griffin made a run over to visit with Com Brown Saturday.

Mr. Berget has a fearful cold and has also lost a fine buck lamb.

Lewis Conser, formerly of Jefferson but now of Portland, was my last weeks visitor with also his sons Lug and Wain, of Lacomb.

Our school, under the management of Miss Moore, is proving to be quite satisfactory.

Newt Crabtree called in Sunday afternoon for a chat with his sister Mrs. S. W. Gains.

Ed Kalina was out in the pasture Sunday afternoon and ran across a large coyote.

Mr. Garland was out early Monday morning soliciting names to show the court we are highly elated over Wm. Gilkey as road boss and highly recommend his reappointment for the coming year as he is well versed in road building and as economical as any man could be and he knows where the work is most needed. We cannot do without him and he is our choice.

Monday mornings snowstorm is a reminder of old times. We hope it will soon be over.

Santiam farm has 5 tons of cheat hay and 4 tons of vetch and oats for sale at $12 a ton. We also want 6 to 24 Rhode Island Red pullets or hens. Let me hear from you.

Dave Horsburgh is picking 26 fine roosters which he will ship Tuesday to Portland.

Rev. Koradan, of Albany, has made an appointment to deliver a series of lectures on the old and New Testaments, beginning New Year's day at our school house.

The temperature was down to 20 Tuesday morning. A little snappy to start.

Enters Debating League

Following the custom of last year, the High School has entered the Oregon High School Debating League. Last year the question for debate was: "Resolved, that the direct primary law in Oregon should be abolished." In the debate with Sweet Home, Scio won 2 points and Sweet Home 1. The decision in the debate with Lebanon was Scio 1, Lebanon 2.

The team this year will consist of Mary Shimanek, John Densmore, Maurice White, Ray McKnight, Kenneth Sims, Murrel Gilkey. They will debate the question: "Resolved, that the Plumb Plan for the control and management of railroads should be enacted into law."
