Facts Worth Knowing and Telling

Scio is the trading center of the north forks of the Santiam.
Scio has population of about 500.
Scio is in the heart of the best dairying section of Linn county.
Scio farms grow most anything that can be grown from soil.
Scio owns its water and electric light plants—plenty of power at a cheap rate for any number of enterprises.
Scio has a milk condensery, and no better milk is canned any where.
Scio has a flouring mill, and its product finds a ready market at all times.
Scio is close to billions of feet of standing timber, and soon big mills will be busy making it ready for market.
Scio has a hospital second to none.
Scio—if you want to know more about Scio and the surrounding country, write to the bank, the mayor or to the editor of this paper.

LOOKS like Newberry stands to lose his seat in the Senate—and will if some motive akin to the primary is not used. There are too many of his calibre in the Senate now.

CANDIDATES for governor will soon be as thick in Oregon as fleas on a hungry dog. The office pays quite well, thank you, but we have decided to remain at our present post of duty.

It can't be possible that Harding with his arms limitation will meet the same fate as Wilson with his league of nations. Press dispatches affirm and deny that Harding and Hughes have crossed wires over the meet. There is no such thing as disarmament when individuals and nations carry chips on their shoulders.

We have opened our columns to the people for discussion of facts and things of interest to them. So far two people have used the columns, and both have been chastising our business men. We believe if the people would privately insist what they say so publicly to the business men the results they want would be forthcoming.

It must be dreadfully embarrassing to be rich. First, every woman wants you; one captures you, and she soon decides she doesn't want you, sues for divorce, gets alimony of a $100 a day, and finally cops off your best estate and $3,000,000 besides. It sure is embarrassing, because that is the only line of business the millionaires are engaged in that the public gets to know about.

According to a statement issued by Adjutant General George A.
White, of the National Guard, Oregon has derived a net profit of $119, 077 from its national guard during the past year. There are now 2400 members, all of whom receive government checks.

J. S. Sticha and wife made a trip to Albany Monday, attending to business and doing some shopping.

SLIPPING AWAY FROM SCIO.

Editor Scio Tribune:

Seeing an article in the Tribune of last week signed "Cash Customer," in which a cause was given for not trading in Scio.

It seems to me if I was a merchant in Scio now I would get busy and put an ad in the Tribune that would back Albany off of the map.
My experience, and that of many others, is the same as Cash Customer's.

We do most of our trading in Albany. Not only this. You can go to Albany most any day in the week, and especially on Saturdays, and you will find more people from the immediate vicinity, and even from Scio itself, trading in Albany than you will see in Scio doing trading in a whole week. This should not be.
Scio is in the center of the best part of Linn county, both as to agricultural and dairy products.

Albany can remember, and I remember distinctly, when the principle part of the taxes of Linn county came from the Forks of the Santiam, during the "Scotch Loan and Mortgage days," that many will never forget.

The reason Scio has never grown to be of any more consequence as a thriving and prosperous city is the "hold-up" attitude its business men have always manifested. If ever there was a business house empty, its doors would hardly be closed until some one in business would gobble it up so as to keep out competition. I believe I express an absolute truth when I say that most all kinds of merchandise has always sold higher in Scio than in any other town in the county, except a few years, when the Wesely Bros. conducted a general store. It seems now that most of the business men have become ossified and don't know that the war is over and excessive profiteering is not carried on in any other place but Scio.

Get busy, Scio merchants, and advertise—advertise prices that will draw, and your little town will not have parking room for cars for the people who will come to Scio to do their trading.

A ten thousand dollar stock of goods bought and resold ten times in a year at 10% profit is much better than turning the same stock over once or twice at 25% or 50% profit.

Scio merchants, wake up! Your cash customers are slipping away from you, because you don't advertise what bargains you have got—if you have any. Don't get sore at the editor for publishing this. Don't get sore at me for expressing the truth about business conditions in Scio, which must undergo a radical change if we expect to see Scio grow. Your success is my interest, and my interests is your success in a general welfare and community uplift for both town and country.
Give and it will be given back to you in a ten fold ratio.

A Citizen of Scio.

was taken up and thoroughly discussed. It appears that the committee appointed from the line did not see the president as was suggested by Secretary Couey, but had become busy at something else. A report was in circulation here, as announced last week, that this line had discontinued with Albany and

In Our Big Sale of Men's and Boys' Clothing

When a Sale IS a Sale

In the past year or so a great many so-called sales have only been the marking down of merchandise to the market price. This is one thing of which we have been very careful—never to advertise a sale when the price was just reduced to market.

This Is a Real Sale

The merchandise on sale will go back to the former price (which is market) as soon as the sale is over. Merchandise for spring is just as high as last fall, and in some cases a little higher. So you will make money if you take advantage of this opportunity now.

Sale Starts Thursday, Jan. 12, running seventeen days, closing Saturday, Jan. 28. Below you will find only a few of the many bargains. Watch the papers, or better still, pay our store a visit.

	1920 Price	Present Market Price	Sale Price
Overcoats—Men's mixed wool coats	$27.50	$17.00	$12.50
Men's all-Oregon Wool Coats	37.50	25.00	19.75
Men's wool double-breasted coats	45.00	32.50	24.75
Men's Kuppenheimer, our very best	75.00	45.00	37.50
	80.00	50.00	40.00

Shoes	Such prices will not last. Buy an extra pair:	1920 Price	Present M. Price	Sale Price
47 pair men's brown calfskin, English last		$16.00	$10.00	$6.85 37 pair men's brown English welts		12.00	7.00	3.85 connected with Lebanon. This was reported untrue Saturday at the meeting. A committee was, on motion, appointed to immediately see the committee of the line, that very afternoon, and if necessary call a special meeting of the Scio Mutual for further action. Unofficially this paper learns that the committee of the Scio Mutual met with a hearty response and that connection is quite probable.

The question as to whether or not the association should incorporate was thoroughly discussed, and finally referred to a committee to investigate and report.

Sheriff's Sale of Real Property on Foreclosure

Notice is hereby given, That by virtue of an execution duly issued out of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Linn, and to me directed on the 24th day of December, 1921, upon a judgment and decree duly rendered, entered of record and docketed in and by said Court on the 14th day of December, 1921, in a certain suit then in said Court pending, wherein C. P. Neibert was plaintiff and A. C.
Brown and Sarah L. Brown, his wife, E. M. Sherlock, R. D. Norton and Alice E. Norton, his wife, were defendants in favor of plaintiff and against said defendants, by which execution I am commanded to sell the property in said execution and hereinafter described to pay the sum due the plaintiff, of $2028.50 with interest thereon at the rate of 8 per cent per annum from the 26th day of February, 1920; and for the further sum of $89.77 as taxes paid by said plaintiff; and for the further sum of $154.00 attorney's fees together with costs and disbursements of said suit taxed at $28.90 and costs and expenses of said execution. I will on Saturday, the 11th day of February, 1922, at the hour of 11 o'clock A. M. of said day, at the front door of the County Court House in Albany, Linn County, Oregon, sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in hand on day of sale, all the right, title, interest and estate which said defendants and all persons claiming under them subsequent to the date of the mortgage inof and to said premises hereinbefore mentioned are described in said execution as follows, to-wit:

The East Half of the Northwest Quarter and the West Half of the Northeast Quarter of Section Seven, in Township Thirteen, South Range One West of the Willamette Meridian, in Linn County, Oregon, containing 160 acres, in Linn County, Oregon.

Said sale being made subject to redemption in the manner provided by law.

Dated this 10th day of January, 1922.
C. M. KENDALL,
Sheriff of Linn County, Oregon.
V. A. GOODE, Attorney for Plaintiff, Roy Building,
Stayton, Oregon.
