Facts Worth Knowing and Telling

Scio is the trading center of the north forks of the Santiam.
 Scio has population of about 500.
 Scio is in the heart of the best dairying section of Linn county.
 Scio farms grow most anything that can be grown from soil.
 Scio owns its water and electric light plants—plenty of power at a cheap rate for any number of enterprises.
 Scio has a milk condensery, and no better milk is canned any where.
 Scio has a flouring mill, and its product finds a ready market at all times.
 Scio is close to billions of feet of standing timber, and soon big mills will be busy making it ready for market.
 Scio has a hospital second to none.
 Scio—if you want to know more about Scio and the surrounding country, write to the bank, the mayor or to the editor of this paper.

HAVE you registered yet? If not, attend to this now and save annoyance later—on election day.

THE city lost a conscientious servant when it lost J. S. STICHA as city recorder. But it also secured a conscientious servant when it found MILD BARTU to succeed him.

Now that steps have been taken to organize a community club, let us all talk it and boost for it. The plan is for all—farmer, laborer, merchant—to compose its membership. Surely democratic enough to suit republican, democrat, prohibi-tionist, and socialist.

Do you read the advertisements in the Tribune? If you do, do you tell the advertiser you saw his ad? If not, you are missing a rare opportunity to secure bargains not otherwise advertised. You will help yourself and the advertiser by telling him you saw his ad in the Tribune.

REPORT has it that District Attorney Llewelling has ruled that the present incumbent of the office of county school superintendent does not have to file to become a candidate to succeed herself, but that Commissioner D. C. Thoms will.
 By what process of reasoning or stretch of law, such a ruling can be made we cannot understand. Both are appointees of the county court, to fill unexpired terms, and if one can hold more than two years without election, so can the other.
 There is no difference as we see it

Let's Reason Together

You sell milk, don't you? Do you get full value for it? These two questions are pertinent to your success as a dairyman. Butterfat is worth real money, more so than whole milk, and you can have the skimmed milk for feeding purposes, which means more money. The road to success is in buying and using a

Simplex Cream Separator

You will make more money than you are today and will have the skimmed milk to feed. Sell your Butterfat. Price is right, terms if desired. See me for further particulars, or write.

in the election laws for a term exceeding two years when made by appointment. The office must be filled by election. While we have no objection to either party, we believe his ruling should apply to both.

THE business outlook becomes brighter with each day. New mills are being planned, and old ones are resuming operations, while farm products are picking up in price; slowly to be sure, but nevertheless a fact. All these presage a greater business for 1922 than for the last two or three years.

APRIL and May are the months to clean up and paint up, and is universally observed everywhere.
 Let Scio citizens follow in the proception and make our little city one of the most beautiful in the entire valley. The cost will not be much and the satisfaction of knowing we are progressive and up-to-date will more than repay. Let us begin now.

THE readers of the Oregon Journal will miss the "Uncle Jeff Snow" articles in that paper from now on, as Alfred D. Cridge, the writer, passed to his great reward the other day. "Uncle Jeff Snow" was full of wit and humor, yet each story carried its own point. He will be missed as few writers are missed, and the Journal is a great loser.

THE dairy edition will be out April 20th. We hope to make it worth while to our farmers and dairymen, and thus bring greater returns to those industries. The condensery, the cheese factory, the cream buying stations and dealers in supplies for the farms and dairymen should use liberal space to ex-toll the benefits each is giving to the community. Let us all boost for a greater number engaged in this great industry.

L. R. COMPTON has resigned as warden of the Oregon penitentiary, to accept the superintendency of of the Anti-narcotic League, with headquarters in Seattle. Deputy Warden Lewis succeeds him. Gov.
 Olcott has been having a hard time keeping some one over a year in that laudable position. Probably the thought of having to be the legalized murderer of so many men has as much to do with the resignations as anything else. No one likes to become a murderer, even if it is made legal by law.

THERE is some talk of a union school in the districts to the east of us, and sooner or later will take root and bear fruit. The question of union schools is gaining ground everywhere and the districts which have thus organized are saving money. Scio citizens should get busy, look into this matter and start the ball to rolling looking toward bringing them to us. This is not idle talk, but something real live and interesting. If not attended to soon, it may be too late. Get busy, Scio citizens, we have been asleep too long now.

Removing Mildew.

Chloride of lime, used intelligently, will remove mildew. Do not use too much. A teaspoonful to a small tub or pail full of water is plenty. Be sure lime is thoroughly dissolved, or better still, tie it up in a stout piece of cloth and run water onto it, pressing the cloth with a stick; then allow it to float in tub. Immerse article to be cleansed and allow to stand several hours. Remove and rinse thoroughly in several waters. Repeat if necessary, but do not increase quantity of lime, as it will eat the material.

Perdido River.

The Perdido river is a small river and bay on the western border of Florida, separating it from Alabama.
 The word is Spanish and means "lost."

SOUGHT TO ENHANCE CHARMS

Roman Beauties Well Knew the Value of Time Spent at the Toilette Table.

The toilette of the Roman beauty was a vastly important affair. The maids who assisted in it were usually Greek slaves, and the length of time devoted to it may be judged from the fact that, like beauties of France so many centuries later, the Roman woman often had the poets and the philosophers of the day to divert her during its progress, a favor of which they seem to have been less appreciative than their descendants in France.
 The equipment for the toilette was both elaborate and complete. Combs, mirrors of burnished bronze, bottles for perfumes and boxes for rouge and whitening preparations are all to be found in collections of Roman toilette articles, and many are the harsh words on the subject of the feminine toilette to be found in the writings of their masculine contemporaries who disapproved of charm in their women, yet seem with masculine inconsistency to have disapproved equally of women without charm.

Watch and Wait.

While it is true that we never know what trouble or disaster may befall us, we likewise never know what great opportunity is going to come into our lives from an unexpected quarter. If we read the lives of the men of our country who have risen from poverty and obscurity to the greatest heights of success, we find that there were certain times in their lives when great opportunities presented themselves, that much of the success of these men was due to the fact that they were able to take advantage of such opportunities when they came.

How often have we witnessed the unhappy spectacle of some man falling to rise to the complete possibilities of opportunity as a result of thriftlessness!

Thriftless habits will undermine any character and eventually lead to ruin.
