Oregon Made Home Knitting Yarns

A great surprise for the home knitters of Oregon, but still a fact. Furthermore, this yarn is absolutely virgin wool yarn; the wool was grown in Lane county, sold by Mr. Sanders to the Oregon Worsted Company (mills located at Sellwood), made into worsted yarn by Roy T. Bishop, son of C. P. Bishop, proprietor of the Woolen Mill Store of Salem. Oregon knitters try this yarn out. All colors. 45c per ball of 2 oz. Samples sent on application. Address: C. P. Bishop, Box 75, Salem, Oregon.

Sid Stringer went to Scio last Thursday to buy fence wire for his chicken yard. He says he will not allow chickens to destroy his garden peas and injuns.

Mrs. Wm. Larwood, John Davenport and wife, Mrs. Lilly Tichner, Mrs. Daisy Elliott, and Mrs. C. C. Davenport were guests of Wm. Smith Friday afternoon.

Carson Davenport and family attended the dance at Crabtree Saturday night.

John Roekwell, who has been on the sick list for some time, does not seem to improve very fast. He intends to undergo an operation in the near future.

Mabel Davenport, who is attending high school at Lebanon, spent the week-end with home folks.

Chas. Rorer, wife and little boy visited Mrs. Rorer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John White last Sunday.

Ben Schmitt and wife, Wilfred Elliott and wife, of Portland, and Hazel Howard called on Robert Elliott and wife Sunday.

J. L. Davenport and wife, Mrs. Lilly Tichner, Mrs. Daisy Elliott and Mrs. C. C. Davenport visited at the home of Lee Gaines and family one day last week.

Chance Stringer and his sister, Mrs. Rex Perry, met with a slight accident to their car while enroute from Portland to visit their brother, Sid Stringer and wife.

Wilfred Elliott and wife and Mrs. Lilly Tichner, of Portland, were guests of the J. L. Davenports last week.

We admire the editorial in last week's Tribune and the stand the editor takes in regard to the unfairness of our dog tax law. If we are to have a dog tax law we advocate the spending of this tax for public purposes and not for private purposes as at present. The state legislature of Oregon at the session of 1919 enacted a law known as the Home Rule Law for Oregon counties. According to its provisions the people of every county are "Authorized to enact, amend or repeal all local laws for their county by initiative and referendum process." INCOGNITO.

Saturday morning the home of St Phillips was visited by the stork which left a wee baby girl. Family on the improve.

OREGON MEET.

Cancer of the Toe-Nail.

One of the rarest diseases known is cancer of the nail, only four cases being on record. The most recent one is described by Dr. Carlos C. Chagas of the medical college of Belo Horizonte, Brazil. It is that of a laborer, aged sixty, who had it on the nail of his right great toe. The toe was amputated and the man, apparently cured, disappeared. The toe was examined microscopically and confirmed the diagnosis.

SANTIAM FARM NEWS

April 11

Lester Bilyeu is having quite a time with his tonsils, and at times he is not able to talk. He went out too soon.

The old man and good wife made a run for Scio Friday, finding the roads real bad and the city very quiet, as all were so "elated" over so much rain and having a good rest for the sunshine, if it ever comes.

Ed Kalina has all his plowing finished and was out of a job, so to amuse himself he made a run to Scio to get a box of stump powder and blow out the few stumps he has left.

M. C. Gaines, of Crabtree, did not have time to crank up his Ford Lizzie, so he gave it to Fred Bilyeu and bought a new self-starter, as he has no time lose.

The old man made a flying run with Ed Kalina in his tin Lizzie around Cape Horn by way of Crabtree and Thomas to converse with Dr. Prill as to what was wrong with his kidneys. The doctor found I had the spuncules, or smarting colic. He prescribed some tablets resembling a small sized hen egg, but the color does not correspond. To get them down reminded me of loading a muzzle-loading a shotgun and I have to have a ramrod to get them down. They ought to kill or cure.

Ed Kalina had bad luck with one of his $100 cows. While getting up she got one of her hoofs caught on one of the teats and almost tore it off, so Ed had six hands around to milk her.

Sunday school was in full blast with a fair attendance. All are invited to attend and take part and be sociable.

As it was too wet to make garden or go to church, Ed Kalina concluded to celebrate Sunday by taking his new powder down to the stump patch where he blew stumps from h-i to breakfast. Ed is like blasting powder—he goes off all at once.

Mrs. William Lee called in Sunday evening after Sunday school closed.

Mr. Berger had quite a runaway with his sled and hog trough, landing in a ditch, with one horse on top of his mate so as to hold him down till he came up.

We learn the Paine family, who pulled out from here with two teams, have reached Roseburg.

Our Scio Tribune, published by McAdoo & Son, is improving every issue. All are anxious to read it, as it gives all the local news and fine editorials. The Producers Call is also an eye opener.

We have had but 14 days since the New Year without rain or snow, 75 days with high winds and 17 fairly pleasant days. This winter takes the premium.

There will be more cheat in fall sown grain this spring than ever known before, as damaged grain always turns to cheat.

This is poor farm weather, still the old man has set out 500 new strawberry plants, planted a bushel of potatoes, set out 10 lbs. of onion sets, planted a gallon of peas, beats, carrots, lettuce, a pound of onion seed and a hotbed full of plants. The mountains are full of snow, the weather here is cold and windy, occasional frosts, with no prospects of summer.

And the mule threw Logan.

PIE EATER.

Gates in a Roman Camp.

The "praetorian gate" was the name of the front gate in a Roman camp. It was always the gate that faced the enemy. Every Roman camp had four gates. The "decuman gate" was opposite to the praetorian gate, and was the farthest from the enemy. The gates on the right and left sides of the camp were called respectively the porta principalis dextra and the porta principalis sinistra.
