SOKOL CLUB ORGANIZED

Club Starts With 35 Charter Members and Fosters a Clean Citizenship

About three weeks ago Thomas B. Prospal, of Scio, assisted by Bohumil Siller, of the Portland Gymnastic Club Sokol, called a meeting of the Czecho-Slovaks of Scio and vicinity for the purpose of organizing a gymnastic club here. The meeting was well attended and an organization started with a charter list of 35 members.

The following officers were elected: Thomas B. Prospal, president; Ignacius Faltus, vice-president; F. B. Studnicka, secretary; Ed Pelan, accountant; Mat Doubek, treasurer; training masters, Mylo Bartu, Chas. Pietka, Frank Bartu, jr., Lada Dvorak.

The object of the club is to develop a clean, healthy body, strong character and brotherhood. It also stands for the betterment of the community and good citizenship. This is not a local club, but a branch of a national organization in America.

The club at the present writing has been in existence but three weeks and the membership is about 50 now. The club holds practice drills every Friday evening, and so far has been fortunate in having Mr. Siller present, who is an old time Sokol and much interested in the success of the local club.

J. N. Weddle was in Albany last Thursday.
