Miss Rose Young has returned from a visit with relatives in Silverton.

Wanted—100 Loganberry pickers at G. M. Aupperly's, 1½ miles east of Jefferson.

Come to Scio Tuesday night, July 4th. Big dance at the Z. C. B. J. hall. Remember.

Mrs. Don McKnight and babe are visiting Mrs. Esther Ray in McMinnville for a fortnight.

"Picture Ahead"—Kodak as you go, then bring your film to J. F. Wesely for developing.

Fred Bilyeu is getting in the swim and making his garage look like new with a fresh coat of paint.

W. Wilson, of near Jefferson, was a business visitor in Scio yesterday and made the Tribune a pleasant call.

Geo. Stoddard is taking a 10 day vacation from his duties at the Scio State Bank, and is seeing the sights in the Willamette valley.

Increase your milk production by using one of several good brands of fly chasers, which we carry.

J. F. Wesely.

Dr. Fieq and J. F. Wesely went fishing for perch in the sloughs near Albany last Thursday and brought home 30 of the finy tribe.

Ed Myers is spending a great deal of time and money on improving his beautiful home, and also is our good friend Riley Shelton.

Miss Mary Jiroch, who is employed with the Pacific Telephone Co., in Portland, spent Sunday with her parents, John Jiroch and wife.

Mrs. I. V. McAdoo is attending summer school at the O. A. C. for the next six weeks, and ye editor will have a nice time doing his work and getting his own meals.

A large number from here attended the O. W. Garland sale near Richardson Gap yesterday. He is quitting farming as he has a milk route for the cheese factory.

C. W. Hodge has about completed remodeling his home, and will soon have one of the best homes in the city. He has builded on another room and made other improvements.

Mrs. Frank Gill returned last Sunday from a week's visit with friends in Portland and McMinnville. On that day Mr. Gill and Miss Kotan drove to McMinnville and brought her home.

Excavation for concrete sidewalks on Main street has been made, and as soon as the filling becomes sufficiently packed, the pouring of concrete will begin, and it will be some street when completed.

The first test well at Sweet Home was completed last Saturday, and the second well has been started. It is said the oil seepage is excellent and that the prospect of finding oil in paying quantities is good.

R. A. DeLano, of Albany, has been busy for several days laying the new hardwood floor in the J. S. Sticha home. John will soon have the best home in the city.

Dr. and Mrs. A. G. Prill were business visitors in Albany Monday. According to the Albany Democrat, the doctor will shortly have a story in that paper concerning his recent trip into Harney county and the bird specimens he found there.

Mrs. Art Shelton and son, Elden Knaut, returned Saturday from a three weeks visit with a daughter and sister in San Francisco. They report a most enjoyable visit and a pleasant trip both going and returning. They like Oregon best, though there is much to see in and around Frisco.

J. L. Kelly and family drove to Cascadia last Sunday morning, returning the same night. John is something of a good roads enthusiast, says Cascadia would be more popular if a few dollars and a scarifier were used on the road from Lebanon on.

John D. Densmore, Jr., is in Portland taking instruction in Radio. Since erecting his set he has become greatly interested in the service and hopes to be able in a short time to act as trouble shooter for one of the big companies, and also to be able to set up stations for new operators.

J. N. Weddle and constable Henry Smith, of Stayton, captured young Schulte, who stole two horses and several sets of harness Tuesday night between Corvallis and Junction City, Wednesday afternoon. All property is accounted for and the suspect is now in jail in Benton county.

Do you want a good ball team in Scio? Of course you do, and as the boys have promised shifts, a new manager and a better team, let's go to the game next Sunday and show them that we really want a team here. Shaw will be the opposing team, and it has a splendid record. Next Sunday afternoon at Scio.

A postal card from Mrs. R. L. Ellwood, a former resident of this community, says she is now living near Lake City, Iowa, having moved from Axtell, Neb. Mrs. Ellwood says the Tribune is like getting a letter from home each week, and she cannot get along without it. She says she is real well and that several good rains have made the crops look fine back there.
