S. H. GOIN says he is in the legislative race to win, although he is on the minority ticket. Mr. Goin is a progressive farmer and if elected ought to be a progressive legislator.

We have faith in L. M. Curl, S. H. Goin, Charles Childs, E. W. Cusick, S. M. Garland or any other public man in Linn county to do his duty in enforcing the law or in making the laws. They need only the moral courage of their constituency to assist them.

THE promised debate at Richardson Gap hall in the near future between Hon. Walter M. Pierce, candidate for governor on the democratic ticket, and J. R. Herman, manager of the single tax league of Oregon, ought to draw a big crowd. Both men are speakers of ability.

THERE ought to be a lesson to the mothers and fathers of Scio in the little affair that took place at one of the swimming holes the other day. Small boys and girls have been going swimming, it seems, without a chaperone, and no distinction has been made between where men and boys swim, nor of the place used by women and girls, and the animal of the boy asserted itself with the result that the bathing suit of one of the girls was torn from her body. Young girls and young boys should not be allowed to go swimming without a chaperone—decency demands it, if not the safety of the virtue of the girl. Mothers and fathers, awake! Protect the innocence of your children. If you can not do it, the swimming holes must be closed and the curfew law enforced.

Single Tax Debate

Arrangements have been made, so it is said, whereby Hon. Walter M. Pierce, democratic nominee for governor, has agreed to meet Mr. J. R. Herman, manager of the single tax league in Oregon, in joint debate on the single tax at Richardson Gap hall in the near future.

S. Veatch, a conductor, and F. J. Connolly, an engineer, representing the S. P. Ry., were in Scio yesterday interviewing the business men on how they felt about the unmerging of the S. P. and Central Pacific. They found sentiment against unmerging, and a belief that it is a good policy to let well enough alone. The gentlemen are pleasant to meet, and have been with the S. P. for a quarter of a century.

E. V. Leach, of Portland, is assisting C. W. Bragg at the West Scio depot. Work has grown there so that one man cannot handle the business.

D. C. Thoms and D. H. Pierce, county commissioners, and Mr. Penland, county engineer, went to Mill City Tuesday on business for the county.
