

Local News Notes

R. A. Scott and wife were in Albany Tuesday on business.

Mrs. E. H. Hobson and Dorris Weddle were in Salem Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arch Holt of Albany, spent Sunday with relatives near Seio.

Fall grain in the Crabtree district is said to be quite good, although the yield is small.

Tim Kelly took two truck loads of hogs to Salem Wednesday from the Crabtree district.

W. A. Ewing and family and Frank Gill are spending the week at Cascadia having gone up there Sunday.

The Sokols held a very pleasant picnic on the grounds of Ed Pelan Sunday, nearly all members being present.

Z. J. Clark, who has been suffering from blood poisoning in one of his hands, is now recovering. He was having a time of it.

Teddy Bino, while driving a team for his uncle, Al Hazelcamp, near Shelburn, suffered a few minor bruises and scratches last Thursday when the team ran away.

A municipal drinking fountain is to be dedicated in Brownsville Saturday night to the memory of Ray Templeton, who lost his life on the aviation field in Michigan. A good program is planned.

The roof of the gymnasium is all shingled now except the dormers, and they soon will be. A little more cash in the sale of a few more bonds and the gymnasium will be ready when school opens. Can it be done? We hope so.

J. F. Wesely and son Max and Albert Young spent Sunday on the North Santiam canoeing and fishing from Stayton to Green's bridge. A few harrowing experiences were had when they encountered some of the rapids along the route.

N. I. Morrison and wife and Mrs. Katherine Kester and little daughter spent Saturday and Sunday at the Crown mines. N. I. says they have excellent prospects for a rich strike there, and when it comes, many from here and Lebanon will be made rich.

The following letters remain un-called for and will soon be sent to the dead-letter office unless claimed: Mrs. Mabel Crabtree, Mrs. J. M. Holt, N. I. Morris, Paul Wyrach, E. A. Ruce, Hoel L. Calaway, Frank VanBuskirk, Frank A. Thomas.

J. S. Sticha, Postmaster.

Mrs. I. V. McAdoo, who is attending the summer session of school at Corvallis, came home Friday night. On Sunday the editor and Mrs. McAdoo went to Vancouver to visit their son, who is stationed there in the Medical Corps of Uncle Sam's army. The son and his wife enjoy the army life, they say.

The city has finished rebuilding the flume at the Jordan dam, and a two-day shutdown was all the time lost to consumers of electricity. The power was turned on last night and everybody is happy again. The Jordan mill also built a strong concrete wall to protect its property against high water.

The "Get-together" club held the last meeting at the home of Mrs. G. L. Muzzy Wednesday, it being the 60th anniversary of her birth. A pleasant event of the gathering was the presence of her two daughters, one from Wisconsin, and Helen from Medford. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Krebs on the second Monday in August.

While in Vancouver last Sunday, the editor and wife viewed the famous apple tree there that is said to be 96 years old. It is fenced off to keep souvenir seekers from cutting it down in small pieces. It is said the tree grew from a seed brought to the United States from London, England, by members of the Hudson Bay Company and planted there.

The home of Mrs. Mary Parker, aged 86, at Tangent, was destroyed by fire Saturday morning. Mrs. Parker is said to have been ill for several months, and by heroic work on the part of the men there, she and her household effects were saved. Other houses were threatened, but the men formed a bucket brigade and saved them.

Iva Abbot, Florence Shelton, and Emogene Arnold last week attended a birthday gathering in honor of Anna Calavan at the home of Dr. J. G. Gill and wife in Lebanon, Mrs. Gill being a daughter of Mrs. Calavan, and a pleasant gathering and celebration reported. Mrs. Calavan and husband L. L. Calavan, are moving from near Lebanon back to the State of Washington.

While you are threshing and harvesting will be a good time to save out samples of your grain for display at the state fair through the Community Club exhibit there under the direction of President Leonard Gilkey—you can help your community get publicity by so doing and also help yourself most. Notify Mr. Gilkey of what you have and he will call for it if you do not have time to take it to him. Do it now.

Geo. Sutherland was in town Tuesday making arrangements for a joint debate between Hon. Walter M. Pierce, democratic nominee for governor, and Mr. J. R. Heran, manager of the Oregon Single Tax League, on the tax question. It will be a humdinger, and all who can should come to Seio on Saturday, August 12th, at 2 p. m. Other announcements will appear next week with more complete details.

Tuition Fees Raised

Non resident fees for students in the college and the university were increased from $60 to $105 a year, effective with the opening of the next fall term, by action of a joint committee of regents of both institutions in Albany.

The two Oregon institutions by this action, taken as a means of reducing the burden of state taxation, puts the two Oregon institutions on a par with the state universities of Washington and California in respect to non resident tuition. In each of the neighboring states the differential between the charges paid by the residents and those paid by the students from outside the state is equal to the $105 to be charged in Oregon.

Graduate students in both institutions will be exempt under the new fee. The committee of regents emphasizes that the increased fee is not retroactive; any non-resident who has entered the university or the college under the present fee of $60 a year will be permitted to finish his course at that rate. To put the fees where they would be prohibitive and at the same time would be on an even basis with other states, so that the flow of non-resident students would neither be entirely cut off nor become a flood which would tax the institutions' facilities, was the aim of the committee.

Members of the joint committee considering fees were J. K. Weatherford of Albany, chairman; Walter M. Pierce of La Grande, and President W. J. Kerr from the college and Judge J. W. Hamilton of Roseburg, chairman; C. E. Woodson of Hepner, W. S. Gilbert of Astoria, and President P. L. Campbell from the university.

Watermelons on ice at the Meadow Shade Dairy

MONEY!

Contrary to our usual custom, and which is caused by a need for a large amount of "simoleums," we are taking this means of asking our readers who know themselves to be in arrears to come to our rescue and help us out. To do this may entail a little hardship on you, but we are going to help you help us. We will lose in the transaction, but the need is now. We will for the next six weeks, or until Sept. 1, sell to all old and new subscribers The Scio Tribune, if paid one year advance,

$1.25

This gives all ample time to take advantage of this liberal offer. We plan to make the TRIBUNE better as we grow older with you. We hope our friends will heed this appeal and give us the aid needed. The recent change in the junior partner retiring makes this request necessary. Do it today, don't delay.

NEEDED!