

Bible Thoughts for This Week

Sunday.
STAY WITH THE LORD:—The Lord is with you, while ye be with him; and if ye seek him, he will be found of you; but if ye forsake him, he will forsake you.—2 Chronicles 15: 2.

Monday.
WAIT PATIENTLY:—Wait on the Lord; be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart: wait, I say, on the Lord.—Psalm 27: 14.

Tuesday.
A LOVE FEAST:—Better is a dinner of herbs where love is, than a stalled ox and hatred therewith.—Proverbs 15: 17.

Wednesday.
THE ONLY SAFE TRUST:—Some trust in chariots, and some in horses; but we will remember the name of the Lord our God.—Psalm 20: 7.

Thursday.
SPEAK THE GOOD WORD:—Heaviness in the heart of man maketh it stoop; but a good word maketh it glad.—Proverbs 12: 25.

Friday.
PRAYER FOR WISDOM:—So touch us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.—Psalm 90: 12.

Saturday.
HOW TO CONQUER AN ENEMY:—When a man's ways please the Lord, he maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him.—Proverbs 10: 7.

LOCAL BREVITIES

See Lester Bilyeu's sale ad in this paper.

Ross Hibler came in Saturday for a short visit with relatives.

C. E. Kendle is installing a band-saw in his blacksmith shop.

Joe Dolezal and wife were in Albany Saturday on business.

Mrs. Katherine Kester spent a part of last week in Portland.

Helen and Albina Dobrkovsky were in Albany Monday on business.

Wm. Rhoads went to Albany Saturday to see how fast the town was growing.

Will Hofflich, of Albany, came up Monday to witness the Fordson demonstration.

Mrs. Dave Patterson, of Albany, arrived yesterday for a visit with relatives and friends.

Firestone Cord Tires, 30x3 1/2, at $12.45. Get them from the Bartu Motor Co., Scio, Oregon.

Mrs. Mylo Bartu has gone to Santa Cruz, California, for a month's visit with her folks.

Best prices for your canning peaches if ordered through Meadow Shade Dairy. Order now.

Sam Stoller and wife, Mrs. Will Sims and Mrs. J. N. Long were shopping in Albany Saturday.

Ed Jones and wife came over from Shelburn Saturday on business, and while here called in to see the editor.

William Brenner hied himself away from work long enough Saturday to go to Albany and transact a little business.

R. C. Pettit was one of the pleasant callers at the Tribune office Monday.

New supply of Work Shirts just received. The price is right. Get your needs here. J. F. Wesely.

E. F. Gilkey, Alvin Gilkey and Misses Pauline Sims and Frieda Thayer were Sunday visitors in Portland.

H. L. Ballin and wife and son and Miss Mildred Couey went to Portland Saturday and returned Tuesday.

The Albany cannery will not operate this year, according to a statement by the new owners, Salem people.

Mrs. Lillie Hibler and son, Lionel, of Seattle, arrived Monday by auto for a week's visit with the former's parents, M. C. Gill and wife.

Saturday night is the date for another big dance at the Z. C. B. J. hall. Arnold orchestra will furnish the music. Everybody invited.

Louis Bowerman and son, Ralph, of Portland, came up Saturday to hear the debate, but were disappointed—Mr. Pierce failed to appear.

John Clelan, an Oregon pioneer, died at the home of a son in Albany Saturday night and was buried Tuesday morning. He came to Oregon in 1847.

Arthur Griffith, the founder of the Sinn Fein in Ireland, died of heart failure last Friday in Dublin. He was said to be the strongest of all Irish Free State leaders.

There are but four vacant houses in Scio, at the present time, and as soon as school opens these will be taken. Many changes have taken place recently, in selling and renting.

Charley Goins and S. H. Goins were in Saturday to attend the debate, but there was none, owing to the absence of Mr. Pierce, whose wife was ill and he had gone to her bedside, at LaGrande.

Lester Bilyeu is advertising his personal property for sale preparatory to moving to his ranch in Montana. He wants to be close to the oil wells thereabouts and protect his interests. The sale occurs the 31st.

Viscount Northcliffe, the eminent English newspaperman, died Monday of a mysterious disease contracted while in Germany, and a public burial will be accorded him today. He was a power in Europe, despite society's opposition.

Edwin Holland, of Portland, a son of Mrs. Fred Roadarmel, has rented the house formerly owned and occupied by late Mary Ann Richardson, and which G. W. Morrow has recently purchased, and will move here in a few days.

Thos. Small, wife and children, Anene and Tom, spent Saturday in Albany on business. They brought home with them their daughter and sister, Mrs. Sigbert Myers, whose husband met his death recently in Albany when he came in contact with a live electric wire while employed by the Mountain States Power Co.

Frank Bartu, Sr. and John Ager have been elected delegates by the local lodge, Z. C. B. J., to represent it at the 5th convention to be held in Omaha, Nebr., beginning Sept. 5, and lasting five days. This organization holds their convention every five years. They will leave here on August 31.

Mrs. Fred Bilyeu won one of the prizes offered contestants in the Fordson parade on Tuesday. It was an auto mirror, and was given for the heaviest person in the parade—no, it was not herself, but Grant Pirtle, who was in her car, that gave her the prize. She could not use it, so gave it to Mr. Pirtle, who owns the St. Francis hotel.

R. A. Scott will hold a public Auction August 29th.

Dr. A. G. Prill and wife were Albany visitors early Monday morning.

Sell your berries to the Winner Produce Company, at Scio or Jefferson.

Lyle Ficklin came up from Portland Friday evening for a short visit with his mother.

Jim Studnicka was up from Jefferson Monday, where he is managing the Winner Produce Co. branch.

O. S. Hutchison, of Portland, is visiting relatives. He was at one time in the hotel business in Scio.

J. T. Funk came in Monday to the Ford demonstration and while here found time to call at the Tribune.

Joe Bartu was in from the farm Friday on business. He is driving one of the big trucks for the Cameron sawmill.

Federal Tires are now cheap in price but not in quality—$16.95 and a tube free. Get them at Bartu Motor Co.

W. L. Wolcott and E. B. Titus, of near Sanderson's bridge, came in Monday to see the Fordson demonstration and to do some trading.

J. M. Swank, of Tailman, came over Monday to see the Fordson Power demonstration, and while here called at the Tribune office.

Winter is coming, and not far distant. Get your rubber boots, wool overshirts, underwear and Army blankets at the People's Store.

It is reported around that sheepmen are now offering $9.00 to $10.00 for good breeding ewes, with prospect of being worth more money in the near future.

At last the highway is to be paved through Jefferson, according to the Jefferson Review of last week. It is surely needed and may the work progress rapidly.

Don't forget the Scio Tribune's liberal offer. By paying all arrearages, you get the paper for the next 12 months for $1.25. This also applies to new subscribers. Help your home paper to become better by giving it unlimited support.

The best line of vegetables in Scio will be found at the Meadow Shade Dairy.

John Miller and wife came up from Marion County Saturday to visit Mrs. Miller's mother, Mrs. L. W. Pomeroy.

Eunice Knauf and Verda Oeder, of Silverton, came over Saturday for a visit with Mrs. Art Shelton, the former being a niece of Mrs. Shelton.

C. A. Ramsden, of Portland, was here over Sunday visiting at the J. D. Densmore home. Mr. Ramsden is a Radio man and looked over the Radio outfit of Johnnie Densmore's, and took a part of the equipment to Portland with him for adjustment.

You'll Find Your Want Here

5c per line, but nothing under 25c per line.

FOR SALE—Good straw. Inquire of F. T. Thayer, Scio, Oregon—2c

FOR SALE—16 inch fir wood. See Vilas Arnold, Scio, Oregon. 2p

Cows for Sale—All giving milk some to freshen soon. Inquire of G. L. Flanagan. 1tf

Lost, Strayed or Stolen—Black Gordon Setter Dog from its home in Richardson Gap. Finder please notify J. D. Densmore.

BRING your Evergreen Blackberries to C. W. Hodge. We are receiving in the J. F. Wesely express office. Square deal to all. Market price paid. We pay cash. 2c

For Sale—One 16-inch Syracuse chilled plow, one 12-inch J. I. Case steel plow, one double disc plow, one good horse and buggy, one young mare weighing about 1200. Inquire of Arnold Boyanovsky. 2c

Hopstickers wanted—For largest ranch in Oregon. We furnish wood' water, tent, or room, for families, straw for bedding, and pay 50¢ per box. Write for registration card and circular. F. Clemens Horst Co., Independence, 52-1c

Money to Loan at 5 1/2%—The Federal Land Bank of Spokane, Wash., will make loans through the Forks of the Santiam National Farm Loan Association in amounts from $100 to $10,000, for a period of 5 to 33 years, on first mortgage security. Inquire of W. H. McLain, Sec.-Treas., route No. 2, Scio, Oregon. 49-4t

Fried Chicken Dinner
 60c
 From 12 to 2 Sunday

Scio Hotel

Cherro Flour

You will appreciate the superior quality of CHERRO Flour when you see the white and light bread it makes, with that natural nutty flavor.

Ask your Grocer for CHERRO Flour.

CARRIED BY J. B. COUEY

Cherro Poultry Feeds

The quality of a finished product depends upon the quality of the separate parts it is made of, and how it is made. The manufacturers of CHERRO Poultry Feeds guarantee that nothing but the best, purest and cleanest products are used in the manufacture of CHERRO Poultry Feeds.

Carried by Scio Milling Co.

HURRY!

Time Draws closer to the end of our special subscription offer of $1.25 if all arrearages are paid to date, the offer being for one year in advance. This also applies to new subscribers. Hurry! Offer ends Aug. 31 at 6 p. m.

The Scio Tribune

LOWE & MORRISON

RELIABLE UNDERTAKERS

All funerals given personal attention by Mr. Lowe. Services and prices Guaranteed to Satisfy Every Customer. Lady Attendant if desired.

N. C. LOWE
 Lebanon
 Phone 9

Auto
 Equipment

N. I. MORRISON
 Phone—Day, 397
 Phone—Night, 395

WHEN AND WHERE?

With Middle Age comes a full appreciation of what money is for. With the mistakes of youth behind and the needs of old age ahead, the importance of saving shows up unmistakably. Do not wait for middle age—start to save today. Open an account, by mail or personally, with the First Savings Bank and your money will work for you.

The First Savings Bank of Albany, Oregon

"WHERE SAVINGS ARE SAFE" 4% Interest and no worry

WE will be in the GRAIN market for at market prices.

Will have Grain Bags and Twine for you when you need them.

When Your Hogs are Ready for Market, phone 367

Densmore's Feed Store