

SANTIAM FARM NEWS

Sept. 5

John Griffin and son, Eldon, pulled out Friday for Hedges hop yard, where they have a good job.

We all went to the big sale at Ed Chrz Friday, which was a big success. Everything sold at a reasonable figure.

The Santiam farmer amused himself Sunday reading the Producers Call and the Oregon Patriot, two of the most interesting papers published for the upbuilding of the United States. Ought to be read by every American citizen.

Mrs. Dr. Browne and Mrs. Lucy Pietka, formerly Miss Wesely, were out Sunday afternoon for a supply of berries and tomatoes, having a nice short visit.

Clifford Griffin called in Sunday evening for a square meal, as he has been batching the past ten days.

The Griffin brothers have not yet arrived from Eastern Oregon, after an absence of two weeks. They were to return by Sept. 1.

A light Shower was highly appreciated.

Oregon Made Home Knitting Yarns

A great surprise for the home knitters of Oregon, but still a fact. Furthermore, this yarn is absolutely virgin wool yarn; the wool was grown in Linn county, sold by Mr. Senders to the Oregon Worsted Company (mills located at Sellwood), made into worsted yarn by Roy T. Bishop, son of C. P. Bishop, proprietor of the Woolen Mill Store of Salem. Oregon knitters try this yarn out. All colors. 45c per ball of 2 ozs. Samples sent on application. Address C. P. Bishop, Box 75, Salem, Oregon.

GILKEY STATION

Mrs. Mae Higginbotham came Sunday to visit relatives here.

Ethel, Mabel and Coele Zysset, Alvin, Orville, Franklin and Murrel Gilkey, motored to Woodburn Saturday to visit relatives. They returned Sunday.

Merle DeWall fell from his bicycle Saturday and sustained an injury to his arm. It is not thought serious, though it is quite painful.

S. F. Zysset left Saturday for Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Lemon, of Corvallis, visited at the S. B. Holt home Sunday, returning home Monday.

Mrs. J. F. Sims, Errol and Pauline Sims, called on Mrs. Cora Smith Sunday.

Buys Half Interest

A surprise to some, but not to the principals, was the announcement last week-end that W. M. Chambers, who a month ago acquired the interest of the late O. M. Shelton in the Sanitary Meat Market, had sold his interest to Ed Pelan, who took charge Monday. Mr. Pelan is well and favorably known here, and he and Herbert Shelton should make an excellent team. We feel safe in saying success is theirs. Mr. Chambers has returned to his home in Portland.

To Improve Store

J. L. Kelley has let the contract to remodel the interior of his store and will soon have a drug store second to none in the valley, being all in white. The growing of the community, the belief in keeping up with the procession in the business world, prompted Mr. Kelly to improve his store. Keep your eye on Scio—it will grow, and the business men will grow with it.

FOR SALE—Old papers, 10c per bundle at the Tribune office.

Mrs. J. W. Parrish has returned from a short visit with relatives in Portland.

Albert Randel has purchased property in Albany, and will move here about October 1st.

Miss Mamie Brodecky, of Corvallis, is here on a visit with the Kotan's, southeast of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Barney Cowgill and children, of Clarks, Nebr., are visiting Mrs. Cowgill's sister, Mrs. R. S. Thurston, on route two.

J. S. Sticha and wife and Misses Vella Brenner and Dorris Weddle attended a show in Albany Wednesday night of last week.

The concrete sidewalk, on the south side of the school building, has been repaired and now is as good as it was before the flood last November, which caused its wash-out.

Albert Randel has traded his old Dodge car for a new one, being delivered to him Saturday. Yesterday he and his wife and Daisy Buckner, accompanied by Frank Bartu, drove up the Columbia highway.

The painters have finished putting the remaining touches on the interior of E. D. Myers home, and it is a beauty, being all in ivory white. Mr. Myers believes in having the best going when it is in his home.

It has been definitely settled by the school board that the Scio schools will begin operations Wednesday, Sept. 20. This enables the children to get started on the way right by the following Monday, although the principal says the real work begins with the opening date.

Lyle Ficklin is attending to business matters in Portland this week. Mr. Ficklin will commence work on the Scio Tribune next Monday, as advertising man and manager of the subscription department. Mr. Ficklin is well and favorably known among our people, having been born here, and has had a lot of experience in the newspaper business, both with it and patronizing it. We ask our friends to remember him when they have any printing to do or have any news. Also remember him with your subscriptions.

WHEN AND WHERE?

With Middle Age comes a full appreciation of what money is for. With the mistakes of youth behind and the needs of old age ahead, the importance of saving shows up unmistakably. Do not wait for middle age—start to save today. Open an account, by mail or personally, with the First Savings Bank and your money will work for you.

First Duty of the Poet.

Poets do not write for poets alone but for men. Unless, therefore, we are advocates for that admiration which subsists upon ignorance, and that pleasure which arises from hearing what we do not understand the poet must descend from his supposed height; and, in order to excite national sympathy, he must express himself as other men express themselves.—Wordsworth.

Queen Disliked Long Sermons.

Visitors to the Savoy chapel, off the Strand, are often asked to look at the "old hour-glass" on the pulpit. It is not "old," for it was not placed there until Queen Victoria restored the chapel in 1807; it is not an "hour-glass," for the sand runs for 18 minutes only. That period is said to have been chosen by the queen as a protest against long sermons.—Christian Science Monitor.
