High School Notes

The K. of P. basket ball team was defeated by the High School team Tuesday, Dec. 5, in a hard fought game at the new gym. The final score was 19 to 7 in the High School's favor. The score was a 7 to 7 tie at the end of the first half. The K. of P. team substituted freely but were unable to win even with fresh men.

The assignment for 3rd year English, Wednesday was an oral discussion of some local problem. Each member of the class gave an interesting talk.

An umbrella was found in the gym after the game Friday.

The Turner High School basket ball team was defeated by the Scio High School five by a score of 17 to 16. This was a very hard and interesting game, it being the first defeat suffered by the Turner team this year. Among those who have been beaten by Turner are Wilamette University Freshmen and Sophomores. The Scio team hopes, by the use of more team work and by plenty of practice, to win by a larger score when the two teams meet in Turner Feb. 2.

After the game a fine lunch was served by the Girls Basket Ball team and an enjoyable evening was spent by playing games in the school house.

Several tests have been given the past week. Two in Civics, two in Algebra I, and one each in Physiology, Social Problems, Geometry I, Domestic Science, English I, and General Science.

The School library is now up to the standard as sixty new books have recently been added. The public is welcome to get books as well as school children.

A small crowd attended the Parent-Teachers meeting Thursday. They held a discussion of the budget.

Don't forget the big double header here Dec. 22. Both the boy's and girl's basket ball teams of Stayton and Scio will meet in the new gym on this date.

"The Little Dairy Cow"

Oregon dairy cows have done their part better than those of any other state, but Oregon butter used to be the bunk for quality. That was not "the little mortgage lifters" fault, and the better class of Oregon dairymen insist that she be given the best and wisest help possible in boosting for Oregon. So lots of improvement has been made lately in the quality of butter and there is no good reason why it should not be brought up to high rank of Oregon cheese.

Care of the cream is the start for high grade butter. This means bacterial as well as general, cleanliness, pasteurization of sweet and sour cream, ripening the cream, use of starters, and churning. Milk and cream testing, moisture of butter, salt and fat determination, need be understood. These are all taught by instruction and laboratory practice in the big commercial creamery at O. A. C. in the short course, Jan. 2, 27.

Cheesemaking and icecream making, along with refrigeration and general creamery management, will also be given the once-over.

Poultry Co-op Prospers

The Pacific Cooperative Poultry producers are now admitting new members, reports E. J. Dixon, manager. Prices that are generally satisfactory to growers are also being returned, the manager says. This is one of the "big six" cooperatives bodies that represent 8 thousand Oregon farmers, who sold more than 7 million dollars worth of farm produce cooperatively in 1921.

Honor these Seals

A NATION-WIDE movement is carrying on a warfare against the scourge of Consumption. In saving over 100,000 lives last year, it actually cut the death rate from tuberculosis in half.

Each year these organizations sell Tuberculosis Christmas Seals. The proceeds from these sales are devoted to the work of caring for and curing tuberculosis patients and to educational and other work to prevent the dread disease.

Buy these Seals and urge your friends to buy and use them. To do this is both Charity and Patriotism.

There is a Place for
The Cow in Agriculture
of Every Country

Where the cow has taken her rightful place, and man has done his part, we find the highest type of farming; we find farmers living on their own farms, raising crops in rotation, which is the way the Lord intended us to farm.

We find on the farms, barns with mows and bins and silos—regular factories working the year round, getting the very most from the farm's crops and furnishing an income every week of the year.

We find intelligent, thrifty, debt-free people with minds and hands alert from steady employment.

We find a good citizenship, a good agriculture.
