Authorization for a new school district, to be known as district No. 139, was given last Saturday by the district boundary board. The new district will compose the west side of what was formerly district No. 40, or Harmony district, near Peoria. It is reported that the new district has already been given gratis a tract of land and is planning the erection of a schoolhouse by means of private subscription.

Mrs. J. W. Miller, of Shelburn, fell one day last week and broke one of her ankles. She is getting along nicely.

War Saving Stamps are soon due, and the government is anxious to have them redeemed and for the owners to again invest in government securities. Ask Postmaster Sticha for more information.

The sale of Christmas seals is being conducted by the school children this week. This is a worthy cause and everyone should buy enough to seal their Christmas packages. The proceeds go to help tubercular patients in Oregon.

A double header basket ball game will be played here on Dec. 22, between the Scio high school boys and girls and Stayton high school boys and girls. It promises to be a good game, and all should hold this date in mind. The admission will be 20c and 35c.

Senator McNary has introduced a bill in the senate appropriating $3,000,000 for the relief of Astoria, because of the recent fire, assisting in rebuilding. Congressman Hawley has also introduced a bill for $1,000,000 for immediate relief work. Both bills are approved by President Harding.

The revival meetings at Albany have come to a close, and it is said that over six hundred have been converted and been healed of sins and ailments. The collection, according to the Albany papers, taken on the last day, amounted to $2471.37, a pretty good sum for four week's work. But if one's soul has been saved, this amount is not too much.

About twenty Knights of Pythias were present at the meeting Tuesday night and partook of nice little feed prepared by Dr. Hobson, Chris Bilyeu and Jess Rodgers. Several were kept at home no doubt by the severe weather, which is the coldest so far this year. At one place the thermometer registered 26 above zero on both Monday and Tuesday mornings. Hydrants are frozen and owners of autos took good care to see that radiators were drained.

The following from here attended the banquet and election of officers in the Santiam Fish and Game Propagation and Protective Association at Albany Tuesday night: Dr. C. Fieg, Dr. E. H. Hobson, Dean Morris, Tony Faultus and I. V. McAdoo. F. C. Stellmacher was again elected president, a Mr. Worrel was elected secretary-treasurer and C. C. Hall as field secretary. The banquet was a venison feed, which was provided for by Ed Hawker, district game warden. Many excellent speeches were delivered by Senators-elect Garland and Fisk, State Game Warden Burghduff, Ed Hawker, Waldo Anderson, Mr. Worrel and others.

F. F. Sims, a young man of Mill City, and his brother, Roy, attempted to rob a store at that place Wednesday morning about 1:20, and the former was shot in the side by the nightwatchman. They attempted to make their escape, but the wound was too severe, so both gave themselves up to a farmer by the name of Charles Dall. The wounded may recover and Roy is in jail at Salem.

Read every ad in this issue—they carry a message of interest to every home. In fact, each issue is full of good things for the people of this district. A present that will be appreciated for a whole year would be to send the Tribune to some absent member of the family or to a friend that has moved away. It would be a letter from home each week. Make us happy by renewing your subscription.

Next week we will have something to say about the lady invited by the Business Men to come here New Year's Day. She is said to be a splendid speaker, and will bring a message of world conditions to us that will be eye-openers. She has traveled for the London Times investigating world trade conditions in all parts of the world. She comes here on Jan. 1, for an all-day community club meet.

If you are in need of good specialties, see Hagey, the Jeweler, he has the best line to be found in any small store.
