

GILKEY STATION

Dec. 18

It would take more than a blinding snow storm to stop the women's club at Gilkey. This was proven Thursday afternoon when sixteen women braved the storm to meet at the home of Mrs. Ida Yunker. Several of the men who took their wives repaired to the home of Leo Zeller, close by, until club adjourned, making the afternoon's enjoyment two-fold. They were treated to grapes by Mr. Zeller, which he had gathered from his own vineyard. The women indulged in fancy work. Then came the election of officers which was as follows: President Mrs. S. B. Holt, Vice-President Mrs. Ernest Kelly, Sec. Treas. Mrs. Fred Sommers. A shower was given for Mrs. William Weinberg, she received many substantial presents, and good wishes in story and verse. Mrs. Jesse Eckengrens who was present for the first time, was received into the club. The hostess served cookies and cocoa. The next meeting will be at home of Mrs. Henry Freaver, Jan. 4. A principal feature of the afternoon was the arrival of a Christmas box from an absent member, Mrs. Anna Chapman, of San Jose, Calif. This is her yearly custom at Xmas time. It contained hand made presents for 28 members. Although Mrs. Chapman is in the land of sunshine, she longs for the pine and fir tree, and for her old friends, whom she keeps in touch with through the papers.

Bifford Kelly, of Post, arrived Sunday, to spend the winter here with relatives and friends.

Will Wruk has moved his family to their new residence. It is a neat bungalow situated on the main road.

The residence of Leonard Gilkey took fire Tuesday evening, when the pipe to the heating stove came loose from the flue. It was soon discovered and the fire extinguished before much damage was done.

Ernest Kelly and Bud Struckmier transacted business in Salem Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Gilkey and Mrs. Leonard Gilkey were on their way to Albany recently, when a front wheel came off of their car. Two young men from Lebanon came past and proved to be "Good Samaritans" to them by going to Crabtree, where they got repairs, and helped fix the car so the journey could be continued.

Mr. and Mrs. John Shepherd were enroute to Albany recently when the steering gear of their car broke. The machine was overturned and damaged some but no one was hurt.

Relatives here have word that Mrs. Sylvania Titus, of Stayton, is ill.

A large crowd attended the turkey, goose, and duck shoot at the Will Moore place. Mrs. J. H. Kelly and Mrs. Walter Morris served coffee to the crowd.

Christmas Times of Long Ago

By Will M. Maupin

TIS CHRISTMAS Eve! Turn low the lights; let quivering shadows fall
 Athwart the curtained windows there, and play along the wall.
 Lay work aside! 'Tis time for rest; 'tis time to put away
 The cares and trials that beset the weary hours of day.
 'Tis Christmas Eve! Quick, stir the fire,
 And in its ruddy glow
 We'll live again those happy hours
 Of Christmas times of long ago!

We'll walk again the old-time paths; the old-time friends we'll meet;
 And to the old-time homes of youth we'll trip with merry feet.
 And hand in hand, and heart to heart, we'll tread youth's golden ways,
 And live again the joyous hopes we lived in other days.
 The clock ticks on; its pendulum
 Swings softly to and fro;
 And every tick a memory brings
 Of Christmas times of long ago.

And so another Christmas comes. We linger in the gloom
 While ghostly forms of childhood's friends troop in and fill the room.
 No words we speak—To memory's view come visions thick and fast,
 And for an hour we live again the dear days of the past.
 Old Time the tide of life turns back,
 And on its ebbing flow
 We glide again through golden hours
 Of Christmas times of long ago!

RECORD MAP OF GUATEMALA

South American Republic Proves It Has Weather Eye Out for the Visiting Capitalist.

The republic of Guatemala, in its endeavor to make it easy for visiting capitalists to see what they are investing in and to decide on the merits of proposed investments, has built and set up what seems by all odds the most extraordinary relief map in the world. This map is two acres in extent, and shows every contour, every town and every stream or lake in Guatemala and the neighboring territory of British Honduras. It is surrounded by water representing the Atlantic and Pacific oceans.

The giant topographical map is of concrete, assembled in sections. Almost two years were spent in making the molds, and in checking them up. The ultimate cost of the map was $100,000, and another like sum was spent in gathering the topographical data on which it is based.

The big map is located in the hippodrome, or race track, at Guatemala City, and its substantial character is indicated by the fact that it has passed through two earthquakes without harm.—Scientific American.
