GIVE PHOTOGRAPHS

DON'T mind what your looking-glass tells you! She is prejudiced in your favor and she'll cherish your photograph and tell you it doesn't really quite do you justice. So have it taken and give it to her for Christmas. The camera has stood many a shock and will doubtless stand many more to come.

Local Brevities

Aunt Becky Morris is expecting her son and family to arrive in Scio the latter part of the week to spend Christmas with her.

Delbert Long and wife are here from Pacific City, where he is teaching school, to spend the holidays with his parents and other relatives.

The station house at Niagara, above Mill City about nine miles, burned to the ground Saturday night. Supposed to have caught from a defective flue.

Ed Stepanek was in town Tuesday and says he has his fence on stilts now ready to move it about 1600 feet, so he will be on the road but says the weather has been against him lately.

The appearing of the local committee before the state highway commissioners last week at least accomplished one important point—it was announced that Scio wanted a paved road from Green's bridge to the city. Maybe we can get that road—some day.

Gordon Wesely has been having considerable trouble with his eyes of late, and for fear that something serious might develop, Dr. Hobson took his patient to Portland Monday to have him treated by a specialist. His many friends will be pained to learn of this ailment.

Warren Gill, son of Dr. J. G. Gill, of Lebanon, while riding his bicycle last Friday, collided with a car driven by Charles Bennett, living near Lebanon, and sustained severe cuts on both legs. It was just after dusk, and he had no lights. The little fellow is a nephew of Frank Gill, and a grandson of M. C. Gill, of Scio.

Read the Tribune's Christmas ad and then act. We are making this sweeping reduction in the face of a rising paper market, in which the Forestry Department of the U. S. government says is occasioned by the action of the government in refusing to allow Canadian pulp wood to come into the country except by heavy duties.

Governor-Elect Pierce has advanced the basic idea of paying the Highway Commissioners for the services they perform. This meets with the belief of the Tribune, for it has always contended that officials serving without pay must in some manner get a substantial return for the time spent in working for the "dear people." But how will it reduce taxes?

A Turkish Judge was asked to make out a warrant for the arrest of some fishermen, who it was thought by one of their number had stolen his net, and accordingly all in the bunch was arrested. None pleading guilty, the judge procured ten small limbs and gave to each of the ten men one of them, saying that the limb received by the thief would grow, while the others would wither. When the time came for bringing them back to him, the judge found that one had been cut off, and he knew that the thief didn't want his to be longer than the others. A good way to ascertain who was the thief, if it did take a little longer to find out.

Geo. L. Sutherland answered the letter of Rev. A. M. Steder, of Jordan, which was published in the Albany Democrat of the 9th, the former's appearing last Saturday, in which he attacked Mr. Steder for his stand, for this country is built upon tolerance and a right to make a stand for God as one sees fit. The letter of Mr. Steder said Rev. Price should have been arrested for his stand on matters religious and in healing the sick. We believe the work of Rev. Price will either stand or fall, and if he is or was a fake it will soon manifest itself and he will be the one to suffer, not those who partook of his beneficence, whether good or bad. There is room in this country for all of us. Be charitable.
