

Bible Thoughts for This Week

Sunday.
A SUN AND SHIELD:—The Lord God is a sun and shield; the Lord will give grace and glory; no good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.—Psalm 84: 11.

Monday.
THE PRINCE OF PEACE:—For unto us a child is born; and the government shall be upon his shoulder; and his name shall be called, The Prince of Peace.—Isaiah 9: 6.

Tuesday.
MERCY ASSURED:—He that covereth his sins shall not prosper; but whoso confesseth and forsaketh them shall have mercy.—Proverbs 28: 13.

Wednesday.
REWARD OF HUMILITY:—Whosoever exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.—Luke 14: 11.

Thursday.
SAFE STEPS:—The steps of a good man are ordered by the Lord; and he delighteth in his way.—Psalm 37: 23.

Friday.
HOW TO GET ON:—Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find.—Matthew 7: 7.

Saturday.
WITHHOLD NOT GOOD:—Withhold not good from them to whom it is due, when it is in the power of thine hand to do it.—Proverbs 3: 27.

To Demonstrate Burner

Linn county will have the opportunity of having one land clearing demonstration during the coming season but just where this demonstration is to be held has not been fully determined, as the county agent, A. C. Heyman, is eager to place it where there will be the greatest demand for such a demonstration. The Zysset stump burner will be featured chiefly as it has been conclusively proved that the bigger the stump the better this burner will work and that in the winter or spring it is found to work the best and this is just the time the farmers have the most time for such work.

There has been one request for the demonstration above Waterloo, says Mr. Heyman. If there are any communities desiring such a demonstration the agent would like to know about it soon so that he can make thorough investigation.

Files for Citizenship

V. Dvorak, of Scio, was in town Monday morning and filed application with the county clerk to become a citizen of the United States. His witnesses of identification were Ed J. Martinak and J. M. Holec, also of Scio. Owing to the fact that sufficient witnesses were not available at this time the application will be held over until next March.—Albany Democrat.

COMMUNITY MEET NEW YEARS DAY

All-day Affair Promises Big Things for Community—
 Prominent Speakers.

When New Year's Day rolls around and ten o'clock arrives on the same day, it is expected the largest crowd ever assembled in Scio will be here. There is much in the community club meetings that are of interest to every resident in the Forks of the Santiam.

The first order of the day will be the business meeting of the club, in which everyone present will be entitled to participate, even though they are not a member as yet. These meetings are full of interest because they take up all questions affecting the community, and a solution is thereby attempted, and sooner or later will bear fruit.

It is expected that Representative McMahan, of Albany, will be with us, and also Representative Goin of our own community, and others of equal prominence. The big talk of the day will be by Miss Jill Cossley Batt, lately of London, England, and who is now making her home in Portland. She has traveled around the world in the interests of the London Times, investigating world trade conditions, and no doubt will bring much information to each of us. She is said to be a fluent speaker and knows how to tell it so all can understand. Report has it that she is engaged in writing a history of California and she is gathering it from one of the early pioneers of that state and who is now a resident of Portland. The informant to her is past 90 years of age and is said to be vigorous in mind and body for one of his years. But the best plan is to come to Scio on New Year's Day and hear her.

The plan for the day is to have a big basket dinner, spread in the dining room of the Z. C. B. J. hall, to which all who care are invited to come. Make it a day in which we will get acquainted with our neighbors, and thus understand each other better. Everything free, so come with well-filled baskets.

The Christmas Fur Coat

NO ONE could understand the will. The old lady was even eccentric in the way she left her money. Among the many personal possessions she had mentioned had been that of her beautiful Russian sable fur coat, worth well into the thousands of dollars. This she had left to the old woman who had brought eggs to them from the country. It was to be given to the egg woman on the first Christmas after the old lady's death, and every Christmas after that she was to be given the interest on a sum of money, the principal of which was to be given to her when she reached a certain age, or before if she became ill.

"It's all very sensible except why in the world did grannie leave that wonderful fur coat to that egg woman?" her grandchildren remarked. "Why, she won't know what to do with it. She's perfectly happy with an old ulster and a good warm sweater."

But they did not fall to carry out what their grandmother had wished, even though they could not understand it.

Never was such a Christmas present received, and never was there such joy, for fairy tales had come true in a great and mighty swoop, and she, who had fancied never throughout her entire life to wear anything on her back that was luxurious, now gloried in her coat. And every week she went about selling eggs, so happy in wearing the superb coat. For old grannie had understood more than any of them knew!

A JOLLY SCRAP-BOOK

By MARTHA B. THOMAS

(©, 1922, Western Newspaper Union.)

JOLLY scrap-books for children who are unfortunate in being ill in hospitals at Christmas time—or in any other place, for that matter—may be made of bright-colored advertisements pasted on cloth. Dark-green cambric makes an excellent background. If it is cut in rectangles of 18 inches by 18 and folded once through the center of the longest side, you have then four large pages for your book. Three of these rectangles make a respectable showing and give enough space for many pictures.

The brighter advertisements the better, and if you can think of a funny name to paste underneath each one, the children will squeal with delight. Sometimes variation may be gained by cutting the pictures in outline, if the figures are large enough. Covers of magazines often afford good material.

A pretty cover for your book may be arranged by cutting small squares into triangles, using the gummed paper

To Decorate Christmas Scrap-Book.

Christmas ribbon of different colors, furnished at all stores in the holiday season. Get as broad a ribbon as possible, cut it to make a square, then cut the square diagonally, i. e., from corner to corner. You will then have four triangles of equal size. Cut another square of smaller size in the same way, giving you four additional triangles. These eight pieces can then be arranged as fancy dictates to make a decoration in the center of your cover. One such simple arrangement is shown. Of course these triangles need to be moistened and stuck on the cover according to the plan of your design.

Raisin Fluff.

Two cupfuls sugar, ½ cupful water, 1 stiffly beaten egg white, ½ cupful chopped raisins, ½ cupful chopped walnut meats, ¼ teaspoonful vanilla. Boil sugar and water until it threads when dropped from the tip of a spoon. Pour on beaten egg white and beat until it holds its shape. Add raisins, nuts, salt and vanilla. Mix well. Drop from teaspoon on paraffine paper and set aside until cold.

Buttermilk for the Face.

Buttermilk is a good substitute for a more costly face preparation. Let it dry on, then massage in to correct the drawing tendency and make the skin soft.

The complete pardon of Jesse P. Webb, who was sent up to the penitentiary for life, after having been sentenced to hang for the murder of a man named Johnson and placing his remains in a trunk, about 10 years ago had the approval of the trial judge and the prosecuting attorney. Webb had proved a model prisoner, had been a great help to the authorities, been editor of the prison paper, "Lend a Hand," and was entitled to the full pardon. He was and is not a bad man at heart—he was no doubt led into the crime, and has paid the price exacted by society. Several others have also been pardoned.

There is a Place for

The Cow in Agriculture

of Every Country

Where the cow has taken her rightful place, and man has done his part, we find the highest type of farming; we find farmers living on their own farms, raising crops in rotation, which is the way the Lord intended us to farm.

We find on the farms, barns with mows and bins and silos—regular factories working the year round, getting the very most from the farm's crops and furnishing an income every week of the year.

We find homes with conveniences. We find intelligent, thrifty, debt-free people with minds and hands alert from steady employment.

We find a good citizenship, a good agriculture.
