Oregon Made Home Knitting Yarns
A great surprise for the home knitters of Oregon, but still a fact. Furthermore, this yarn is absolutely virgin wool yarn; the wool was grown in Linn county, sold by Mr. Senders to the Oregon Worsted Company (mills located at Sellwood), made into worsted yarn by Roy T. Bishop, son of C. P. Bishop, proprietor of the Woolen Mill Store of Salem. Oregon knitters try this yarn out. All colors. 45c per ball of 2 ozs. Sample sent on application. Address C. P. Bishop, Box 75, Salem, Oregon.

You should read every advertisement in the Tribune, as they carry real live news to every reader. Our advertisers are worthy of patronage, and they will appreciate it if you tell them you saw their ad in the Tribune.

A. T. Powell spent a few days in Salem last week attending the legislative assembly. He says several asked him what the prayer was that his father at one time delivered before the senate, and he repeated the prayer—"Lord forgive these legislators for they know not what they do."

Women are entering the bootlegging business on such a scale that the U. S. Government is puzzled on how it is going to care for the fair sex. The federal penitentiaries are now overcrowded with women who have been lured into the bootlegging game, according to the U. S. Attorney General.

According to a recent decision of the United States supreme court, a full blood hindu cannot become a naturalized citizen of the United States, because he is not of white blood. The question came up thru Oregon having granted citizenship papers to Bhagar Singh Thind, who served six months with the Oregon troops the war with in Germany and was honorably discharged.

HERE'S SOME MORE PROOF
Try this. Take a list of membership, by states, of the labor unions of America. Then compare the wages of different trades in the well organized states with those being paid where the unions are weakest. you'll find that with scarcely an exception wages are highest where organization is strongest.

Then try this. Take a list of membership, by sections, in wheat growers' associations. Then compare price being paid for different varieties in those sections with prices in unorganized communities. You'll find, with scarcely an exception, that the organized community quotations are from five the fifteen cents a bushel higher.
Doesn't it prove something?—The Producer.

WHY HE WENT CRAZY.
A gentleman was one day visiting a lunatic asylum, and walking thru the grounds he met a patient to whom he said: "My good man, how did you get here." He answered as follows: "Well, sir, you see, I married a widow with a grown daughter, then my father married that same stepdaughter, and that made my wife the mother-in-law of her father-in-law, and my father became my stepson. Then my stepmother, the daughter of my wife, had a son and that boy, of course, was my brother, because he was my father's son, but he was also the son of my wife's stepdaughter and therefore her grandson, and that made me grandfather of my step-brother. Then my wife had a son, so my mother-in-law, the step-sister of my son, is also his grandmother, because he is her stepson's child. My father-in-law is the brother of my child because his step-sister is his wife, I am the brother of my own son who is also the son of my step-grandmother; I am my mother's brother-in-law; my wife is her own child's aunt, my son is my father's nephew; and I am my own grandfather." Do you blame him for going crazy.—Exchange.

None, we don't blame him a bit.

EDITORIAL ETIQUETTE

Evil thoughts, like green apples, upset the whole system.
The man who lives up to his contract collects interest on his investment as long as he lives.
This country is never too poor to buy more automobiles than it did the year before.

The present legislature proves the utter uselessness of granting a longer session—nothing of real importance has yet been done, and a 60-day period would be worse.

Be cheerful at breakfast. The rest of the day will take care of itself.

Blow your own horn, but for goodness sake change the key once in awhile. Eternally blowing on the key of "I" becomes monotonous.

Lots of fellows save up something for a rainy day and then give it to a bootlegger for a wet night.

Get up front. It is the rear car which gets bumped.

Dr. Prill, who recently installed a radio, says "wine, women and song" will have to be changed now to read "gingerale, woman and radio."

The postoffice department says the average man gets 113 letters a year, but, in the opinion of an exchange, this is a mistake if he pays his bills.

The man who has something to sell and doesn't advertise, is like the man winking at a pretty girl in the dark.

MR. MERCHANT

You need the Newspaper.
The newspaper of today is the most powerful medium of advertising on earth. In the old days the merchant may have thought he was a benefactor and that he was contributing his bit "as a public-spirited citizen" when he carried a two-inch space in the village newspaper every week in the year and generally without change of copy. Possibly he was.

But that is changed now. A new order has arrived. People read advertisements. Many find their greatest interest in looking over the advertising pages to get news that will save them money and take it from John D. Rockefeller, the way to save your dollars is first to save your pennies.

Advertisements today are right up to the minute. They are as fresh as the news of the world or the latest baseball score. Live merchants cater to live people and they know they must not alone be up to the minute, but they must be some distance ahead. They must anticipate the wants of their customers.

And they do. Turn to the advertisements in this paper right now. Just read what the merchants are offering. Notice the invitations for you to do business with them. Notice how attractively the advertisements are set up and how inviting they are.

Do you know that some firms think so much of a style of type that they buy series of it just for their advertisements?

Business men—that is the successful ones—know advertising pays big returns. Unsuccessful men don't Great Woolen Blanket Selling!

The Greatest Blanket Selling Event in the history of the Willamette valley stores has been in progress at our store since Nov. 1.

EXPLANATION.
We own the mills, we buy the wool direct from the wool grower. We manufacture it into blankets and sell direct to you, the consumer. No middleman or commission man stands between you and the grower.
In buying our line you buy direct from manufacturer.
We do not sell any eastern blankets of any kind or quality, but sell our own make only. We employ special blanket salesmen that can talk and present them to our trade intelligently.
We shall sell them at as near the manufacturer's price as it is possible to handle them.

advertise because they are unsuccessful. That's the answer. Look over your town right now and pick out the big firms. They're the advertisers. Advertising is the tonic that puts dividends in the banks.
Everybody reads advertisements today. Mr. Merchant, is your advertisement in this newspaper?

Motherhood Recipes

Mary Carr has the following "tried recipes" for successful motherhood. She ought to know for she is the real mother to a brood of six and is recognized as the ideal screen mother.
1—Mix a little old fashioned watchfulness with an allowance of new-fangled freedom.
2—Take a careful stock of your materials. Don't try to make a lemon pie of potatoes, or a minister of a boy who wants to be a policeman.
3—Make your children always proud of you.
4—Try to comprehend new viewpoints; don't have your children say, "Don't tell mother, she wouldn't understand".
The "easiest way" mother spoils her children in babyhood, then wonders why they are so wilful in later years.
