

"DON'T KISS THE COOK"

"Don't Kiss the Cook" is a farce comedy in three acts, which will be staged by the Senior class of the Scio High School.

The play is quite different from any that have been given in Scio for a long time. As there are only five seniors in our class, we will use students from other classes.

It deals with an aristocratic southern family, butlers, a maid, a poet, a negro; a distinguished lawyer, who is always making love to someone.

"Don't Kiss the Cook" is a very clever play, and needs a well-chosen cast to make it a success.

The main plot of the story is concerning the children of the aristocratic family who are struggling to provide the much needed funds to aid their failing father.

A jolly colored mammy, who is the chief source of laughter, is always at hand. But nevertheless she can cook and three or four gentlemen fall in love with her as well as her cooking. Yes, there are a number of other mirth making characters.

Half of the proceeds earned from the play will be turned over to the Student Body and the other half will be used for graduation expenses of the Seniors. Watch for the date.

High School Notes

The Seniors are hard at work practicing their play. They want to give it about the 15th.

The Sphinx will be off the press Tuesday. Miss Sutherland has resigned as editor, and Miss Vsetecka will take her place.

Last Friday the Scio girl's basketball team defeated the Gervais girls by a score of 10 to 3. The score stood 8 to 0 at the end of the first quarter.

The Scio boys were defeated last Friday at Independence by the one sided score of 30 to 11.

The boys have one more game this season, with Lebanon at Scio on the 9th. They play the mutes at Salem tonight. (Monday).

A botany test was given Friday and another Monday.

Tests were also given in each of the following subjects: English III, English II, Economics, and General Science.

Ella Tucek returned to school Monday. She has been absent from school on account of sickness.

Grace Bilyeu was absent from school last week due to an attack of the "flu."

The school was given a very interesting talk last Friday by Mr. Smith, Assistant State Supt. of Public Instruction.

Boys Lose Two Games

In the last two games played by the local basketball team, they have been the losers, and not altogether because of their own fault. They have gone up against the best teams in the valley, the one at Independence and the other with the deaf mutes at Salem.

In the Independence game of last Friday night, the boys were losers by a score of 30 to 11, with Independence having a lead of 11 points at the very start. Try as hard as they could, the local boys were unable to overcome this lead, and those who saw the game, say the boys were good losers.

In the game at Salem Monday night, the deaf mutes still held their hoodoo over the locals, and although it looked at the start as if the game would be a one-sided affair the locals made a spurt in the second half and brought the score at the end of the game to 27 to 21, with but a bare six points in favor of the mutes.

All in all, our boys have performed mighty well this year, and have gone up against some of the best teams in the state. They rightly feel that they are entitled to a game with any team in the county, or in Eugene, for a try-out as to who shall represent this district in the state tournament to be held in Salem, March 15-16.

First American Piano.

Evidence seems to prove that the piano was invented by Bartolomeo Cristofori, a harpsichord maker of Padua in 1710. A half century later pianos were manufactured in England by German mechanics. The first American piano was made in Boston in 1822 by a firm that has continued to make that instrument for a hundred years.

Treasures in Tomb of Tut-Ankh-Amen of Egypt

London Times—New York Times copyright by arrangement with Earl of Carnarvon.

Opening of the tomb of Tut-Ankh-Amen, the "heretic" king of the Eighteenth Egyptian dynasty, at Luxor, has revealed an unexampled storehouse of treasures. This photograph gives a view of the antechamber looking west. Among the articles shown are a box containing the king's undergarments and other things; a large gilt couch with supports in the form of lions; a couch with supports in the form of "hat-hor" cows; numerous boxes containing mummified meat; a painted red box containing jewelry and ornaments; a papyrus rush-work stool, much decayed; the king's stool; another couch; four alabaster unguent vases of unique type and beauty; a semi-circular veneered box having minute detail of inlaid ivory.

The Halsey vegetable garden club is composed of Karl R. Stewart, leader; Cedric Williamson, president; Ivan S. Smith, vice-president; Joseph Enos, secretary, and Stephen Smith, Fred Enos and Delburn Williamson, members.

Mrs. John Wesely and Mrs. Roy Hickson gave a "500" party to forty of their friends at Knights of Pythias hall last Thursday night. Mrs. E. D. Myers and P. H. MacDonald won high scores and Mr. and Mrs. Rolla Shelton, low scores. After the games the hostesses served refreshments, assisted by Misses Pauline Sims and Rose Jiroch.

A state meeting of the Oregon Mint Growers association was held in Albany Saturday in the community house with E. B. Wallace of the Harmony community presiding. Problems of growing the product and marketing it cooperatively to better advantage were taken up at the session with eight or 10 present from other points in the Willamette valley.

"Industrial Edition"

April 5, 1923

Read! Think! Act!

¶ There is need for more and more publicity concerning the environments surrounding this great community, and in order to do our part in spreading the news, we are going to issue an Industrial Number on April 5th and with appropriate articles and advertising tell the world what we have in the Forks of the Santiam and what is needed.

¶ If you operate a Flour or Feed Mill, a Lumber Mill of any capacity, a Planing Mill, a Prune Dryer or any other Fruit Processing Plant; if you are breeder of Pure-bred Stock, a producer of Pure-bred Chickens; if you are a grower of any particular Seeds peculiar to this section—if you manufacture anything, if you have anything to sell, or want to buy anything—advertise it in this edition, April 5th, and watch results.

¶ There will be no raise in advertising rates, but should we have to go out and solicit the business it would force us to make a substantial increase in our rates for this issue. Mr. Citizen, if you believe in this community, give us your unqualified support—the success of this issue will prove your loyalty. Mr. Business Man, this is your best opportunity to tell the people what your business is and where you can be found.

¶ Remember, April 5, 1923, is the date. The time is short, so get your copy in as soon as possible. Help us a little in this matter by helping yourself and your community most. "Do it today."
