

OWL-LAFFS

Howdy neighbors. When a woman tells her husband she will be ready in a minute, she picks out a minute about half an hour away.

MINIMUM'S THE WORD

Want ad in Boston Globe says: "1921 Ford Sedan, Good condition, completely equipped with lots of extras to give minimum comfort."

"Tired of waiting, dearie?" she asked, emerging from her dressing room after exhausting her feminine arts in the attempt to appear beautiful.

Oh, no, he replied, wearily, "it's all in a wife-time."

Do right and fear no man. Don't write and fear no woman, says Theodore Shimanek.

A JUG OF? AND THOU

Water is a wondrous blessing,
Good for washing necks and ears;
Just the thing for irrigation,
And the surrounding ships and piers;

Nice to park beneath the bridges;
Swell for making rain and ink;
Water is a wondrous blessing,
But it makes a darn poor drink.

"A bridegroom is missing." Suggestion to bridegrooms who complain that no one ever takes any notice of them.

The report that nickle cigars have dropped to six cents cannot be verified.

A man in New York who rang twice for an elevator was killed by the operator. More and more the day is passing when labor can be trodden on with impunity.

Wives of rich men all remind us

We could make our wives sublime
If we only had the money and could
Dress them up to "time".

HIS FUNERAL FLOWERS

London Times—New York Times copyright by arrangement with Earl of Carnarvon.

In the tomb of Tut-Ankh-Amen, king of Egypt, who died more than three thousand years ago, were found these funeral flowers, which are wonderfully preserved, still showing a trace of green.

Pays Us Visit

W. M. Smith, assistant to the State superintendent of Public Instruction, was here last Thursday. The purpose of his visit was to inspect all apparatus and the library. By careful inspection and estimation he found that there are still a few more things that we need to keep our school standard. During the last three years nearly all the necessary equipment has been purchased. The district realizes the advantage of a standard school. Each standard school receives a certain amount of help from the county, that it would not get if it was not standard.

In the afternoon he gave a short talk, in which he expressed his admiration of our gymnasium. He also admired the way the money was secured and the patience we have had in digging out the debt.

He encouraged the high school to read more good books which are beneficial.

Appointment of Robert N. Torbet as postmaster at Albany, Ore., to succeed Postmaster C. H. Stewart, who resigned last fall on account of ill health, and others nominated Friday by president Harding, for installation, is merely a matter of formality with Postmaster General Works. C. E. Ingalls, editor of the Corvallis Gazette-Times, was also named postmaster at Corvallis.

Casmond Decator Miller was in town Wednesday on his way to Albany, where he went to prove a three-year old claim on his homestead, east of Scio.
