Ed Kalina went to Scio Sunday to see the buckaroos do some expert riding on bronchos and bulls which was quite interesting and furnished a lot of fun for the crowd as well as netting the performers about $250.

James Milligau is farming on the Bill Joby Crabtree farm near Crabtree.

Elmer Griffin spent Monday night in Scio with Mrs. Crabtree.

It looks like every true blooded American who wished to learn the condition of our country should read the Producer's Call, as it is full of information and truth which ought to interest any true American.

The old man called at bumper's hotel in Scio Monday and found everything floating along nicely and the lady of the Inn feeling fine.

I see the Scio hotel running on full time, a lovely place to get a square meal and the lady always jolly as a 19-year-old girl.

Ed and Joe Kalina are making good use of all the sunshine plowing up Joe's farm.

David Horsburgh has his new fence finished with new rails and it looks up equal to a frog in a pan of milk.
