

Chiropractic Talks

PARALYSIS is usually the direct result of loss of nerve energy. When the nerves fail to function in a member of the body that member becomes useless. Chiropractic will help you.

Phone for Consultation.

Drs. Scott & Scofield

Palmer Chiropractors
Rooms 414-419 U. S. Bank Building
Telephone 87
SALEM - OREGON

SUITS

With Extra Trousers

Recently we received a new shipment of Men's Suits with an extra pair of pants. This means almost double the wear out of a suit.

—This extremely good value comes in hard finished worsted in dark colors, with a neat stripe.

—Choice of dark brown, gray, and dark mixed colors. Sizes 36 to 42. Very reasonable

$25.00

Special Clothcraft
Serges

$30 and $35

BLAIN CLOTHING CO.

ALBANY, OREGON

Riley Shelton

Real Estate Broker
and Notary Public

Abstracts Obtained, Examined

SCIO - OREGON

W. A. Ewing, President
T. J. Munkers, Vice Pres.
E. D. Myers, Cashier

THE SCIO STATE BANK

Does a General Banking Business. Interest paid on time deposits.

We want you

Fat Lambs

Will pay the highest market price. See us before you sell.

SHELTON & COMPANY

Our advertisers are good boosters. They are the cream of the trade. Give them your patronage.

LOCAL BREVITIES

Charles Vsetecka was in Albany on business last Friday.

Dr. C. Fieq left last Thursday for an indefinite sojourn in Eastern Oregon.

Mrs. Matt Craft of Albany attended the funeral of Mrs. Cary on Wednesday.

Mrs. G. M. Biggar will leave the latter part of the week for her home in Covelo, Calif.

Mrs. Elizabeth Sutherland left Friday for Portland, where she will visit friends for a few days.

Miss Rhoda Denman, of McMinnville, was a guest for a few days last week at the Cary home.

See Hagey, the jeweler, for fine quality Goodrich Cold Swaged Sewing Machine Needles—none better made.

Mr. and Mrs. Newt Weddle, Mr. and Mrs. George Bilyeu and Miss Maysell Hassler were in Albany Saturday.

A Pie Social will be given at the Richardson Gap school house April 27th, 8 p. m. Everyone cordially invited.

I have the best market for Fat Lambs and Sheep that can be had. So before selling, call me for prices. J. L. Rodgers. 34tf

Mrs. R. W. King will leave in a few days for Port Angeles, Wash., where her husband is pastor of the Baptist church.

G. W. Hunsaker of Turner, a lifelong friend of the family, came up Wednesday to attend the funeral of Mrs. H. J. Cary.

Robert L. Cary and wife took the Shasta limited Friday for California. Mr. Cary is the Southern Pacific agent at Los Gatos.

Remember the Forks of the Santiam Community Club will meet in Lacombe on Monday night, May 7, and everybody is invited.

Mrs. Irma Kelsay came up from Portland Wednesday to attend the funeral of Mrs. H. J. Cary. She returned the same evening.

Hagey, the jeweler, has just received a shipment of the old reliable Illinois Springfield Watches along with other new jewelry that he is now receiving.

Miss Roberta Cary came over from Albany Wednesday to attend the funeral of Mrs. H. J. Cary. She spent several days with her brothers and sisters, returning to Albany on Saturday.

Donald McKnight and E. D. Myers drove to Portland Saturday evening. They returned Sunday, accompanied by Mrs. Myers and daughter, Helen, and Mrs. W. F. Gill, who had spent the week there.

Dr. and Mrs. Edward G. Cary left by auto for Tacoma Saturday morning. Dr. Cary is in charge of the bacteriological laboratory in the Tacoma general hospital. He has but recently recovered from an attack of influenza, followed by pneumonia, during which his recovery was in doubt.

Mark M. Peery and wife of Springfield, Oregon, are visiting Mrs. Peery's mother and sister, Mrs. Sarah Morris and Mrs. Ollie MacDonald. Mr. Peery was formerly in the drug business in Scio, having owned the store now owned by J. L. Kelly.

Wm. Gorgar, of near Jordan, has traded his 99-acre ranch for 40 acres of irrigated land near Boardman, in Eastern Oregon. Chas. Weech being the new owner of the Gorgar ranch. The gentlemen have already made the change, each moving in and out the last week-end.

Antone Holub and Wm. Kalina were in Albany Monday.

Fred Bilyeu has just received a $500 shipment of Ford parts.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Craft were in Albany last Thursday on a business and pleasure trip.

Wm. Young and wife of Camas, Wash., are visiting Mrs. Young's mother, Mrs. L. C. Alexander.

Mr. and Mrs. Newt Weddle went to Portland yesterday to visit their daughter, Mrs. Fred Ohlemier.

Meadow Shade Butter is now 45c per pound, and you can get it at your grocers. Yes, it's pasteurized.

Wm. Knauff of Camas, Wash., is visiting his mother, Mrs. Art Shelton. Mr. Knauff has sold his property in Camas and is looking for a new location.

The United Evangelical and Evangelical Association, two separate bodies of the Evangelical church, voted to merge, at their state convention in Salem last week.

The Linn county high school track meet will not be held this year as was planned by the students of Albany college on account of conflicting dates, no track teams and various other reasons.

N. I. Morrison will attend a number of Odd Fellow meetings this week. He went to Salem Tuesday; to Lebanon Tuesday night; to Portland Wednesday; and to Lebanon Saturday night.

Mrs. Claudie Gill has been chosen to represent Leodus Temple at the district convention of the Pythian Sisters to be held in Albany Tuesday, May 1. About 25 members of the lodge will attend.

We note in the Lebanon Express that Mrs. Ivy Abbott of Scio was made a member of the enrollment committee at the Baptist convention held at Lacombe on April 11 and 12. She was also elected vice-president of the district Missionary Society.

Quite a number from here went to Salem Sunday afternoon and drove out to see the tulip farm, on the Polk county side, and report it was a most pleasing sight. The tulip farm there is attracting much attention from all over the Willamette Valley.

Mrs. W. A. Ewing and Mrs. Maude Montgomery are elected delegates from Leone Rebekah lodge to the state assembly which will be held at North Bend May 22. Chris Bilyeu and Charles Oglesby will represent the local Odd Fellows lodge at the same time and place.

Mr. Leonard Gilkey took a load of broccoli to Albany one day last week. Mr. Gilkey said that he weighed one head and that it weighed a little over seven pounds. We can testify as to the quality of this broccoli because we were the recipients of a fine head from Mr. and Mrs. Gilkey.

In making our rounds Monday we noticed the show windows of R. M. Cain and Hollis' confectionery. Mr. Cain is displaying an ivory enameled bedroom suite of late design and the confectionery windows are attractively dressed with a display of fruits with a background of wild currants and dogwood.

J. J. Carr and wife and Edwin G. Olson of LaGrande returned to their home Thursday. Mr. Carr is proprietor of the largest furniture store in Eastern Oregon. A disastrous fire in December destroyed the building in which he was established with all its contents. A new building is just ready for occupancy, equipped with every modern convenience. Mr. Carr returned recently from a trip to Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Louis, where he purchased a fine new stock of goods with which he will reopen business at once. Mr. Olson is an employee of the Carr Furniture Co.

OWL-LAFFS

Hello Folks, Kukuluxing ain't what it used to be, repeated one of 'em recently.

FORE!

Mary's flivver had a horn. But the steam train had no bell—The steam train couldn't stop in time So the flivver went too, too.

The rose is red, the violet's blue, and so is a man when his rent falls due.

Dyna Mite says a blank book and a baby's mind is somehow mighty kin—both of 'em's virgin soil for the recording of big thoughts or glorious deeds. Ain't it a shame how many just get scribbled on!

Leonard Gilkey thinks prosperity does not depend half as much on politics as on hustle.

Candidates being initiated into the league of nations do not have to ride the goat. At present the league has no goat; efforts to get ours having proved futile.

W. H. McLain says it is foolish to acquire a principal at the sacrifice of principle.

Blessed be those who are not rich enough to be unhappily married.

The report that Ford and Hearst may start a new party suggests that what's needed is not new parties but getting the old ones to live up to their promises.

A Scio matron says when a young girl marries an old man who doesn't have any money we can rightly judge that it is a love match.

It is all right for a man to be cool in case of danger, provided all the coolness is not in his feet.

And there are more sufferings from brain lag than brain fag.

Indianapolis man became so despondent because his wife lavished her affection on cats that he went to the dogs.

SUICIDE, SHIMMY-SHER AND CONTORTIONIST

Wanted—Young woman for hanging up, shaking out and folding. Wages $12 weekly, with bonus to start. Apply Tabor Laundry. Ad n Toroto Evening Telegram.

"You're stuffing me," said the mattress to the factory hand.

If only some motorists wouldn't try to see how many miles they can make on a quart.

Insults are always plentiful when one goes around looking for them.

We're sick of jokes
About home brew—
Humorists, please
Invent something new.

Down our way they tell of a man who was so hard that he could ride a porcupine through a bed of cactus and never get a scratch.

The difference between the average player-piano and the average piano player is that the former can be stopped.

Pencil Stub to Office Sponge—Well, they say the stuff's hard to get nowadays, but I notice that old Fountain Pen seems to keep pretty well filled up.

Little Jack Kelly, son of J. L. Kelly, met with a painful accident one day last week while playing with some other children, when one of them swung a croquet mallet and the mallet flew off of the handle and struck him on the forehead, cutting a gash. No stitches were taken. He is getting along alright and the wound is healing rapidly. It seems the Kelly family is having more than its share of bad luck.

You'll Find Your Want Here

1c per line, but nothing under 25c per issue

For Sale—A bedroom suite. Inquire at this office.

For Rent—Good piano. Inquire at the Tribune office.

For Sale—Prunes at 8c per pound in 25 pound lots. Densmore's Feed Store.

Good wagon for sale—good as new. 3½ inch axle, all in fine shape. S. W. Gaines 31c

For Sale—Chevrolet 490, 1919 model; new top, new tires, in good condition, $150 and terms if desired. Bartu Motor Co.

For Sale—Three head of grade Holstein and one grade Short horn cows—been fresh about a month. See Chas White, route 2, Scio. 37-p

For Sale—Bed, springs and mattress, library table, two oak dining chairs, four Mrs. Potts' irons, a Hoosier kitchen cabinet, and several other articles. Inquire at The Tribune Office. 33 tf

For Sale—The Maple Spring Farm is for Sale, 163 acres. Anyone wishing to buy, will give satisfactory terms at 5 per cent. See Frank Sommers, Scio, or write to C. H. Waln, Junction City, Ore. 17tf.

For Sale—Golden Glow or Golden Beauty Seed Corn; steel range stove with reservoir, good as new; good top buggy; two-horse walking cultivator. Will trade buggy or cultivator for good shoats. Chas. Chrz, Phone 19, Scio, Ore. tf 17½ acres of Santiam river bottom land, 8 miles east of Albany; fair house and other buildings; 10 acres in cultivation; ½ acre each in Munger raspberries, strawberries and loganberries. A splendid buy and a big bargain at $2750. For particulars write RR, care of Scio Tribune.

Money to Loan at 5½%—The Federal Land Bank of Spokane, Wash., will make loans through the Forks of the Santiam National Farm Loan Association in amounts from $100 to $25,000, for a period of 5 to 34½ years, on first mortgage security. Inquire of W. H. McLain, Sec.-Treas., route 2, Scio, Oregon. 33tf

Scio Hotel for CHINESE NOODLES

LOWE & MORRISON

RELIABLE UNDERTAKERS

All funerals given personal attention by Mr. Lowe Services and Prices Guaranteed to Satisfy Every Customer Lady Attendant if desired

N. C. Lowe
Lebanon
Phone 9

Auto
Equipment

N. I. Morrison
Phone—Day, 397
Phone—Night, 365