Oregon Made Home Knitting Yarns

A great surprise for the home knitters of Oregon, but still a fact. Furthermore, this yarn is absolutely virgin wool yarn; the wool was grown in Linn county, sold by Mr. Sanders to the Oregon Worsted Company (mills located at Sellwood), made into worsted yarn by Roy T. Bishop, son of C. P. Bishop, proprietor of the Woolen Mill Store of Salem. Oregon knitters try this yarn out. All colors, 45c per ball of 2 ozs. Samples sent on application. Address C. P. Bishop, Box 75, Salem, Oregon.

White and lavender lilacs formed the decorations at the home of Mrs. Katherine Kester last Friday afternoon when she entertained the 500 club at their last meeting for the season. After the game the hostesses served refreshments. Mrs. A. G. Prill won high score and Mrs. Olive MacDonald won second high while Mrs. Minnie Shelton had to be content with the consolation. At this meeting the scores for the year were tallied up and Mrs. J. S. Sticha was found to be entitled to the grand prize.

Mrs. J. L. Rodgers entertained a few friends with a delightful 500 party last Wednesday evening. Mrs. Florence Everett won first and Mrs. Dixie Hagey second honors.

Mrs. Claudie Gill and Mrs. Audrey Hobson were hostesses at the social hour following the regular meeting of the Pythian Sisters last night. Refreshments were served and the remainder of the evening was spent in playing five-hand 500.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Warner, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hanekamp and Emil Tschanz, all old college friends of Miss Esther Humphrey, came down from Eugene Saturday to visit her and attend the festival dance. On Sunday Miss Humphrey accompanied them home. They stopped for a picnic dinner in Wilson park at Salem, and she returned Monday morning.

Miss Esther Humphrey has accepted a position to teach next year in Reedsport Union High school No. 8, at a salary of more than $35 per month more than is offered here for the same work. Pupils of Reedsport high school, about 35 in number, are transported to and from school each day by means of a good cabin boat.

Tuesday while shearing sheep, Vilas Phillippi had the misfortune to cut a small blood vessel in his left temple. The sheep, in trying to free its self, jerked Mr. Phillippi's arm in such a manner as to cause the wound with the point of the shears.

The Cameron portable saw mill has been moved from the Williams place near the old Providence church to the Henry Dolegal place near Larwood. It is estimated that there is in this vicinity about four million feet of timber to be cut.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Veal of Albany attended the services at the Christian church Monday evening.
