In Society

In observance of Mother's Day, Sunday, May 13, a jolly surprise awaited Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Merritt when they returned from church. Their daughters and a few friends had gathered at their home with well-filled baskets. An elaborate dinner was later enjoyed. The table was decorated with a beautiful bouquet of roses, presented by Delbert Merritt.

The usual diversion made the afternoon a pleasant one.

These present were: Ivan Miller, wife and children, Carol and Lloyd of Turner; E. F. Powell, wife and daughter, June of Jefferson; B. I. Arnold and children, Vera and Glenn; L. P. Arnold, wife and children, Maxine and Johnnie; Delbert, Alvin, Laverne and Donald Merritt; W. E. Arnold and wife and J. B. Couey and daughters, Leita and Mildred and Miss Maysell Hassler.

Little Helen Hodge entertained 20 of her friends Sunday afternoon in honor of her ninth birthday. The merry little bunch played games until 4:30, when they were led to a long veranda, which was decorated with wild flowers and ferns. At the table each little guest took her place under a bright-colored balloon, after which candles were lighted and refreshments served. The hostess received many gifts from her little guests who were: Alma Philippi, Vera Carson, Esther McKnight, Genevieve Sims, Evelyn Lindley, Virginia Bilyeu, Ardith Shelton, Junior Ballin, Anna Ficq, Brenda Scott, Gladys and Fern Shelton, Myrtle and Dorris Hodge, Frances Everett, Viola Fuller, Isolene Kester, Virginia Randolph and Donald MacDonald.

Last Saturday was the 91st birthday anniversary of Eli Plummer and the day was fittingly celebrated by the coming home of his children, Mrs. J. E. Denny and little son,
