

A REAL OPPORTUNITY IN MOTION PICTURES!

You have heard of the thousands made in Motion Pictures. Have you ever thought of sharing these enormous profits? Or, have you ever had a longing to appear before the camera? The opportunity is now knocking at your door—old or young, rich or poor may take advantage of this offer and get in on the ground floor with this company, which we are now organizing.

Shares $10.00 Each and only 500 shares will be sold at this price. If interested in appearing in these productions, enclose photo with order, as we are looking for types—old and young, pretty and homely.

Your investment will be amply secured by the fact that your check will be placed in the Bank of Italy here in Sacramento until the entire cast for the first production has been selected and all arrangements completed, at which time your stock will be promptly issued to you.

Zenith Film Co., ^{Box 775} Sacramento, Calif.

MICKIE SAYS—

YEAH, I KNOW, TH' BOSS LOOKS HUMBLE, BUT JEST BETWEEN YOU 'N ME HE'S PURTY PROUD OF THIS PAPER AN' TH' FOLKS 'AT READ IT AN' TH' TOWN 'S PRAYIN' IN. YESSIR!

County Paragraphs

Edited from our exchanges by Mrs. I. V. McAdoo

Edgar Enger of Brownsville has been appointed to West Point Military academy. He is the first Brownsville boy to enter West Point.

About 300 people attended the seventh annual benefit dinner of the cemetery association an Albany Friday night. The affair netted the association $200 which will be used in improving the cemetery. The endowment at present is said to be $17,000 with a fund for current expenses of $1,000. During the past nine years $12,000 have been spent in improvements.

Dates for the Albany Chautauque this year have been set for July 3 to July 7, inclusive.

The giving away of three automobiles and a public wedding are to be leading attractions of the Linn County fair this year.

A deed conveying the remaining 61,000 acres of land in Linn county belonging to the Oregon and Western Colonization company to Louis J. Hill has been recorded at the court house.

Rev. T. R. Applebury has resigned the pastorate of the Christian church at Jefferson to take effect June 1.

Strawberry picking will begin in the Dever community within the next few days.

Forest Supervisor C. C. Hall says he has received orders to take over improvement on the Santiam road above Cascadia, and do whatever work that is necessary to render it passable to vehicles.

The dates for the Lebanon Strawberry Fair and Rose Show have been set for Friday and Saturday, June 8th and 9th.

O. B. Phelps of Enterprise, Ore., manufacturer of wooden articles, has rented a building in Stayton and will move his plant there.

The managers of the Santiam woolen mills at Stayton are planning a picnic for their employees and their families to be held June 23rd.

The Lebanon Electric Light company has petitioned the Oregon Public Service Commission to grant them the power to raise the water and light rates.

Joseph Hume of Brownsville has set out a nursery and nut tree farm containing over 1000 trees raised by him from nuts produced by the Kirk Walnut tree.

A. P. Galleley, aged 72, died of paralysis Saturday at his home in Plainview.

The Oakville school closed Tuesday by holding a community picnic with the Greenback and Bell Plain schools as special guests.

June 24 is the date set for the seventh annual group gathering of rural Sunday schools, held under the auspices of the American Sunday school union, at Waterloo.

The Albany boy scouts were victors in two ball games last week. Tuesday afternoon they defeated Lebanon on their grounds by a score of 8 to 6 and on Wednesday afternoon they went to Corvallis and won a 13 to 8 victory over the Corvallis team.

George P. Dooley, an employee of the Southern Pacific company at Albany, was married to Miss Irene Elizabeth Johnston at Lewiston, Idaho, last Thursday.

A trail crew has gone through to Pamela lake this year, although snow was encountered the last couple of miles. The snow in this vicinity is low for this time of the year, although in other places of the same altitude it is deeper than usual.

A Dodge touring car belonging to E. M. Reagan of Albany and a Ford touring car driven by Frank Hubbard of Bellingham, Wash., collided on Pacific Highway near Jefferson last Wednesday night.

Brownsville citizens have voted favorably on seven charter amendments and turned down three very important ones, including an amendment to spend $1,750.00 for improvement of the water system, one to increase the city tax to 10 mills, and a proposed amendment providing for the re-assessment of the streets where paving has been done.

Veterans of the 65th artillery will hold a reunion at Seaside on June 9th and 10th.

Mayor P. A. Young of Albany was rendered unconscious and otherwise injured and F. E. Callister received minor injuries last Friday morning on Pacific Highway, about six miles north of Salem when their car collided with another car at the crossroads on Chemawa Hill. The Callister car, which was wrecked, took fire but was extinguished. Mr. Young is recovering in a Salem hospital.

Martin Ludwig, pioneer plumber, for 33 years a resident of Albany, died of paralysis at his home there Friday.

Ilen Bishop, aged 60, for several years a resident of Lebanon, died at his home there last Tuesday, after an illness extending over two years.

W. H. Goltra celebrated his 90th birthday at his home in Albany last Thursday by giving a dinner to a party of relatives and friends.

Last Friday in Albany the pupils of the fourth fifth and sixth grades of the three public schools held a track meet. It was their annual field day. After the races the Eugene and Albany baseball teams took the field for their return games.

78 seniors of the Albany high school attended the baccalaureate services at the First Presbyterian church Sunday night.

Mr. Mary Douglas, 59, died at her home near Tangent Monday. She was a native of England.

Mr. A. Joanna Beard, secretary of the Near East relief campaign in Oregon, has forwarded 1,000 pounds of clothing to the Portland office.

J. K. Weatherford of Albany, president of the board of regents of O. A. C. for many years, was graduated from the institution 50 years ago and he had the pleasure of signing his grand daughter's diploma last week.

The senior class of the Halsey high school played "Come out of the kitchen" to a full house last Saturday evening.

Christopher Hauxwell, 83, native of England, and former Free Methodist minister, died at his home in Lebanon last Wednesday.

Crawfordsville is preparing for its annual home coming of the graduates of the Brush Creek school to be held on June 19.

During the last week of June the Brownsville Knights of Pythias and Pythian Sisters will be hosts on the occasion of the annual district convention. This will be held in the city park, and a basket dinner supplemented with barbecued meat will be one of the big attractions. Sevelodges, Cottage Grove, Eugene, Corvallis, Scio, Lebanon, and Brownsville, will participate.

Mrs. Sue Reeves, aged 50 years, died at her home in Albany Tuesday following a lingering illness.

Mrs. Charity Jane Luper, 82, for 71 years a resident of the Tangent neighborhood, died in Salem Monday.

Buy Direct

Six volt Starting Batteries $14.00
Urban Battery Mfg., Scio, Oregon.

They Work While You Sleep!

We are proud of our Classified column, because it is full of human interest—it brings people together as nothing else can do. If you have anything to sell, or want to buy something, there is nothing quicker nor surer. And the cost is cheap. Yes, we are also proud of our job department and the work we do. See us for anything in the printing line.

Bring Your Job

Printing to Tribune.