with high marks, one of the pupils being out of school for two years. Mr. McDonald is "a born teacher," being considered of the best rural teachers in the county, and this school is fortunate to secure his services.

Clifford Kelly was a dinner guest at the Leonard Gilkey home Tuesday. He left Wednesday by auto for his home at Post, accompanied by Douglas Smead of Albany.

Mrs. Bertha Hanson and daughter, Rowena, of Tillamook drove over from Salem Wednesday for a visit with Mrs. Fred Sommer until Thursday. The two ladies were associated in teaching in the Tillamook country many years ago. Mrs. Hanson still teaches there, but has been in Salem helping the State Superintendent grade examination papers.

Leo Zellar has moved into his large new modern house. He is a model housekeeper, and is also beautifying the lawn with flowers.

W. A. Gilkey's and E. F. Gilkey journeyed to Corvallis Sunday. Marion returned with them from summer school.

Leonard Gilkey and John Shepherd attended berry meetings in Albany Tuesday and Friday evenings of last week.

Fred Sommer and wife and Mrs. T. M. Holt attended the State Holstein Association meeting in Corvallis Friday and brought their children home.

Gordon Gilkey returned from summer school Saturday. He was much interested in seeing just how much his flowers had grown while away and went to look at them before greeting his family. He is passionately fond of flowers.

Mrs. Ernest Kelly was the motif for a shower at the home of her mother, Mrs. Fred Mespelt, Thursday afternoon. Over thirty women were present. Mrs. R. H. F. Struckmeier of Salem attended, Mrs. Grace Peterson and Mrs. Vada Whetstone attended from Albany. Mrs. John Shepherd presided. Miss Leona Johnston gave several piano solos. The gifts were many and beautiful. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

SANTIAM FARM NEWS

June 26

Clarence Lovejoy and wife of Dallas came over Saturday to spend Sunday with the old Pie Eater, as it was his 80th birthday. He is enjoying the best of health.

Mrs. Lulu Milligen is the proud mother of a baby boy, born on the 20th inst. Uncle Jim is as proud of him as a boy is of his first long pants.

We are all quite sorry to learn of our good neighbors, Henry Preever and wife, separating over a trifling matter.

We are sorry to learn of the death of Fred Randall, Aunt Becky Morris' son, and a nephew of Albert Randall, who passed away on the 20th inst. in a Portland hospital. He had been paralyzed for some time.

The old man has given away his favorite Fox Terrier dog. He was a sad-sance, as he killed my chicks.

As Joe and Ed Kalina have patch of strawberries near the Sanderson bridge they went down Sunday and brought home a supply well worth going after.

Anyone wishing vegetables should call in at the Santiam Farm, as he has a fine assortment at reasonable prices. Potatoes, $1 a bushel; peas, 20c per gallon; rhubarb, 2c per lb.; beets, 25c per dozen; carrots, 10c per dozen; Royal Ann cherries, 25c per gallon; loganberries, 25c per gallon; onions, 10c per lb. Come out and the old man will treat you right, as he is not able to run his peddling wagon.

The old man and good wife made a pleasant call in Scio Monday, where we enjoyed our old friends, which is the pleasure of our lives.

Our cool, rainy weather still continues, doing more harm than good.

The old man is now ready to accommodate his old customers when they see fit to call on him.

PIE EATER.

Because of rain and cool weather the Waterloo Sunday school convention has been postponed from June 26 to July 8.

Miss Josephine Powell of East Knox Butte has been visiting with Miss Hazel Howard and Miss Bernice Davenport the last week.

Ben Schmidt and wife and Mrs. Geo. Tietjen motored to Lebanon Saturday.

The patrons of Bergen Hollow, Dist. 98, met on the 18th and elected O. K. Howard as director and Geo. Tietjen as clerk. The board now consists of Henry Dolezal, Ed Stepanek and O. K. Howard.

Mrs. Geo. Westenhause and son, Artie, visited at the home of Con Westenhause last Saturday. They picked and took back with them a nice lot of wild blackberries, which Mrs. Westenhause will put up for the winter. Nothing increases the number of one's guests so much as wild blackberry pie.

Our school election for a union high school was a failure, but we hope to do better next time. We pay a higher high school tax in our district (and not have a high school) than other districts pay that have a high school. Why not have a high school at home and at the same time cut down taxes? As it is at present we are compelled to help pay for all high school students in Linn county who do not live in high school districts. Why not educate our own children in a union school at home and keep our tax money where it belongs and not have it taken out of our district and divided up among the high schools of Linn county? The county court levies a high school tax on our property, why not reap the benefits?

Geo. Tietjen is building a good barn. Has it almost completed. George has been buying some good cows lately.

Keeping late hours at night is having quite a noticeable effect on Bob Elliott.

Geo. L. Curry and Geo. D. Webb are this day making final proof on their homesteads. John L. Davenport and Rockford White are witnesses. Proof is being taken by County Clerk R. M. Russell.

Con Westenhause and wife are shipping poultry to the Portland market.

The fire wardens have been clearing the trails in this vicinity.

Robt. Elliot has taken charge of the barber shop at Crabtree, where he works on Saturdays.

The Howards have been furnishing the neighbors with strawberries this season.

Chas. Rockwell has killed two coyotes recently.

Students of Albany College passed through this vicinity on their way to Snow Peak, where they spent their vacation. Two boys drove a red bug, which they wrecked on a stump. The one who was not the driver told the one who was driving that "you orter have went on the other side." "Yes," said the driver, "I know that's what I should have did." My, the boys shore do learn grammar when they go to college! The professor of mathematics was in the crowd, but we didn't notice the professor of English.

Several parties have been buying shakes from O. K. Howard lately. Howard advertised his shakes in the Scio Tribune, and since then the demand has been greater than the supply.

C. C. Davenport and family and Mrs. O. K. Howard motored to Lebanon last Friday afternoon.

The Cameron saw mill has been closed down for some time on account of having no logs on hand.

A good motto: "Do all the good you can to all the people you can in all the ways you can." Present day motto is: "Give 'em h—!"

A Greater Touring Car Value

The present price of the Ford Touring Car is the lowest ever made.

And yet the car itself is a greater value. It is better looking with slanting windshield, a one-man top and improved seats. And there are many refinements in chassis construction.

The demand is so great that deliveries will soon be impossible. To protect yourself, order now. Make a small down payment:
