

GILKEY STATION

July 2

James Reiley and wife returned Saturday from a month's visit in Southern California. Their daughter and son-in-law, Earl Brock and wife, of Los Angeles returned with them.

The Gilkeys and Mrs. Cora Smith attended the funeral of their aunt in Stayton Sunday. Mrs. Titus was a noble woman and will be missed by many loving friends and relatives.

Ira Serfling and Russell and Gene Kelly have returned from Myrtle Point, where they have been working with the S. P. bridge crew for six weeks. They came home to assist with the haying.

Miss Juanita Mespelt is home from Monmouth, as the normal has dismissed until after the Fourth.

E. C. Smith and family and Mrs. Minnie Smith of Albany visited Sunday at Fred Mespelt's. The party had just returned from a month's vacation spent in the mountains.

The federal appraiser was doing business in these parts recently.

A surprise dinner was tendered Mrs. J. G. Holt Sunday. When she returned from the cemetery she found her children had arrived and gotten the dinner. Those present were: Lester Holt and wife of Carlton; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jones and Harry of Stayton; Mr. and Mrs. Will Moore and children, Kelly and Aileen of Salem; and J. H. Kelly and wife.

Berry picking began in earnest last week. It seemed there was no sale for loganberries, but through the kindness of the First National Bank of Albany, it was arranged to dry them in Albany.

Mrs. I. N. Lemon of Corvallis and Miss Maude Rhinesmith, who is attending summer normal at Monmouth, visited over the week-end at the S. B. Holt home. On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Holt took them to Waterloo and Sodaville. Miss Rhinesmith and Mrs. Holt are cousins.

Leonard Gilkey and Mr. Miller of Crabtree went to Salem Wednesday to try to sell their loganberries. They met with no success, as some people around Salem with large acreages are unable to sell them.

Fred Mespelt and wife; W. A. Gilkey and wife and Marian; Mrs. W. E. Serfling and Ira and Margaret; Gene Kelly and Leonard Gilkey and family attended the community club meeting at Shelburn Monday night and enjoyed it immensely. The good people of Shelburn "did themselves proud" in getting up the program.

About 100 people gathered at the Orville Gilkey home Friday evening for a Charivari. Most every kind of instrument which could be thought of with which to make a noise was employed. Two auto horns seemed to best answer the purpose. The young couple were married on the 24th birthday of the groom and the 22d birthday of the bride. Dr. Youngson, Methodist pastor of Portland officiated. They returned Friday evening. We wish them a long and happy married life with a lot of "little joys".

SANTIAM FARM NEWS

July 3

We are anxiously waiting to go to the big celebration at Scio as we are all assured of a good time.

James Crum and wife and also his partner of Lebanon were down Sunday for a supply of berries.

The Scio Hotel was represented by Paul Ramalza and his good wife, who were out Sunday for a carload of fruit, berries and vegetables to tide them over the Fourth.

Mr. Frank Summers and wife and three sons called in Sunday for a supply of berries.

Mrs. May Lettenmaier amused herself Sunday by putting up 40 quarts of cherries for Art Griffin, as his wife was away from home.

George Forge and wife and Mr. Bice, an uncle of Mrs. Forge, have just arrived from Montana. Mr. Bice is wonderfully elated over our scenery and climate, securing a lot of Royal Ann cherries which he shipped back to show he had just arrived in Heaven to him.

Mrs. Ina Stoddart and daughter of Larwood called in Thursday for a short visit with her old uncle and to get a supply of vegetables.

Joseph Kalina, since bringing home his new wife, has turned over a new leaf on his farm by stocking up with several fine cows, also running it up to snuff.

Ed Kalina has so much of his heavy hay down and without help he has to put up hay till midnight, as it looks so much like rain.

George Griffin got somewhat on the warpath Thursday and killed one of his fine mutton sheep, and knowing the old man is fond of mutton, turned him over a quarter, on which the old Pie Eater made a square meal.

Billy Richardson called Friday evening for a supply of peas, the English Cluster, the best peas ever grown.

Oldrich Peska will give a talk at the Z.C.B.J. hall Saturday night, July 7, on "Around the World on Foot" and a hypnotic act. The date was set for Sunday night. The talk will be in the Bohemian language unless enough attend to warrant it be given in English. No admission charged, but a collection will be taken. Everybody invited.

The new 10-horse motor and pump has been installed at the water plant, and now the water supply of the city will be attended to regularly through the automatic switch which was installed with the motor. This switch will go on when the water in the tank reaches a certain low level and when the tank is filled it will shut off. The pump has a capacity of 250 gallons of water per minute, and will fill the present tank in 20 minutes.

Leonard Gilkey and family and Mrs. G. H. Smith attended the funeral of their aunt, Mrs. Sylvia Titus, in Stayton Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Titus suffered a stroke of paralysis about three or four weeks ago, from which she never recovered, passing away last Thursday. She was well known here, having many friends who will be pained to learn of her death.

Art Chandler of the Scio hotel underwent an operation in Portland Sunday for the relief of a nerve pain in his left cheek, caused by the pulling of his teeth several months ago. For several weeks he has been suffering excruciating pain, and it seemed nothing else would relieve it but an operation. He returned home Monday evening.

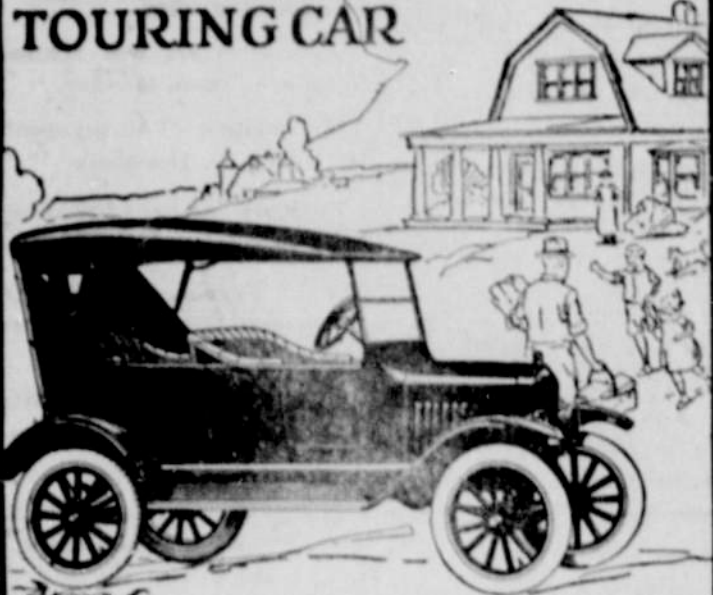

Wm. Hiron, a former resident on route 2, has purchased a home in Portland, also a half interest in a barber shop there. About six months ago he moved to Portland and soon began learning the trade in barber college there, with the result that he is now a boss barber.

The undertaking firm of Wright & Poole of Lebanon has been dissolved, Mr. Wright taking the interests at Brownsville and Mr. Poole holding the business at Lebanon. Mr. Poole is well known here and we wish him success in his new venture alone.

Mrs. E. E. Wert of Turner underwent a major operation at Albany Monday morning. Drs. Prill of Scio and Davis of Albany performed the operation. Latest reports are that she is doing nicely.

"Aunt Ollie" Shelton, who is confined to her home with dropsy, is reported to be holding her own.

T. L. Dugger was over from Lebanon on a visit the first of the week.

A Greater Touring Car Value

The present price of the Ford Touring Car is the lowest ever made.

And yet the car itself is a greater value. It is better looking with slanting windshield, a one-man top and improved seats. And there are many refinements in chassis construction.

The demand is so great that deliveries will soon be impossible. To protect yourself, order now. Make a small down payment.
