CHIROPRACTIC

MEANS

YOU have been reading our advertising from week to week, and no doubt you are now well acquainted with our methods of removing nerve pressure for all manner of diseases, but you have been putting off from time to time your promised visit to us. Now is the best time to begin adjustments before the disease has gone too far.

If you have been taking treatments from others, and you have not been benefited as you think you should, you owe it to yourself to give Chiropractic a trial. There is no drugs in our methods—just the bare hand in the adjustment of the spine, which, when corrected, will give easy access of all the nerves to all parts of the body to do their work well and effectively.

No matter what your ailment, whether rheumatism, paralysis, nervous breakdown, stomach trouble of long standing, or any of the many ills the human flesh is heir to, we can give you almost instant relief, and a few adjustments in most cases will effect a cure. Let Chiropractic convince you by giving it a trial.
