I am still on the market for fat hogs. J. D. Densmore.

When you entertain, let us furnish you, with 500 score cards.

E. C. Peery of Portland was in Scio Tuesday on business.

J. C. Edwards of Grants Pass is visiting at the home of Mrs. Edwards' mother, Mrs. M. C. Gill.

Six inmates of the state hospital at Salem are to be deported to their native lands in the near future.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martzell, who lives on the Wm. Mesple place southwest of Scio, is confined to her home with measles.

It is reported that there were 25 automobiles piled up along the way-side between Jefferson and Salem Monday. Presumably caused by trying to pass on the icy pavement.

Marion Arnold and wife went to Eugene Saturday to look after property interests there. The Arnolds will move to Eugene, it is said, as soon as the school year is ended here.

A. L. Arnold has purchased from Joe Boyanovsky the old J. B. Couey place and Mr. Boyanovsky has purchased the Antone Holub farm. Both these sales were put through by Tom Large.

Paul Lardon and wife are spending the cold weather with relatives and friends in Portland.

Vilas Phillipi left Monday for Leona, in southern Oregon, to look after some sheep he has there.

Mrs. E. H. Hobson came over from Salem Monday to finish packing her household goods and forward them to her new home.

J. W. White and family of Wellington, Kansas, have recently visited at the home of G. A. Morgan. Mrs. White is a niece of Mrs. Morgan and Mrs. Albert Shelton.

The weight of the licenses for 1924 totals over 85 tons, according to information given out by Secretary of State Koser. It is thought the total licenses for this year will go near the 200,000 mark.

C. E. Hunt, who issued the Tribune during the absence of Editor McAdoo and wife, has gone to Raymond, Wash., where he has accepted a situation on the Press. As soon as possible, Mr. Hunt expects to move his family there. We wish Charley success in his new field.

J. R. Geddes of Gates was the first man in Linn county to take out a bee keepers' license, he having six stands. W. W. Powell of Tangent was the second, he having 50 colonies. Under the present law, every bee owner must take out a license, which is $1.00, regardless of the number of colonies.

E. G. Arnold and wife were in Albany Monday.

Good potatoes, $1.25 per sack, delivered. Scio Creamery Company.

Hagey, the jeweler, is stocking some fine strands of pearls, and the price is only $5.00 each.

Mrs. Don McKnight went to Salem Saturday to meet her daughter, Esther, who was enroute home from a visit at McMinnville.

Marion county has over 175,000 acres planted to fall wheat and in readiness for spring sowing. This is in addition to the acreages planted to fruits.

Scio Creamery Company.

Oliver Powell and family have taken housekeeping rooms at the Scio Hotel, during the time Mr. Powell is employed at the Ballin Planing Mill. They are from Lebanon.

Dr. Fieq, dentist, Albany, Oregon wishes to announce to his patients that he has moved his office from 312 W. Second street, to the Cusick Bank Building, corner First and Broadalbin.

On account of the cold weather, the dance at the Z. C. B. J. hall and the theatre was not so well attended last Saturday night as formerly, but those who missed these events are the losers—the dance and the show were the best ever.

Most of our young people and some of the older ones have been having the time of their lives since the snow fell over a week ago by coasting on the hillsides. It is not often the people of this community have the privilege of coasting for so long a time, and they have made the most of it.

The long-continued cold spell, with the snow laying on the ground ever since it fell on Sunday night, a week ago, has caused many of the dairymen to resort to full feeding of their herds. So far we have heard of no fatalities from the cold among livestock, and there is no probability any will occur now. The entire country has suffered from this same cold spell, and in many places the thermometer has gone to below zero and stayed there. Indeed we are fortunate here in Oregon.

Girls Win; Boys Lose

In spite of the cold weather, the girls' basketball team motored to Lyons last Friday, Jan. 4th. The Lyons girls were easily defeated in spite of the disadvantages for the Scio team. These disadvantages were, lack of practice, due to the Christmas holidays, and the small playing floor at Lyons. However, the better or more experienced playing of the Scio team won the game for them by a score of 17-4. The Lyons team took their defeat gracefully and served a nice supper after the game.

A double header will be played at Mill City next Friday, Jan. 11. This promises to be a more interesting girls' game than the last two with Lyons.

The girls team will play the Silverton girls here on Friday, January 18. Everybody come and boost your team.

The Scio boys journeyed to Stayton Jan. 4th, where they were defeated 17-11. This was a rough and hard fought game, and the local boys showed lack of practice. The Scio boys will go to Mill City next Friday to meet the high school team of that city.

YES! we have "500" Score cards 2c each. At the Tribune Office.

News From Lyons.

Jan. 8.

Don't think for a minute folks around Lyons aren't busy these days with pipes to thaw, wood to cut, fires to keep and cooking to do. It's just the busiest time in all the season. No time to play. There are some of us who'll be pretty glad to have a change in the weather, even if it rains.

The funeral services were held last Friday, in the Methodist church at Lyons for Oscar R. Ballard, a brother of Mrs. Aldred Martin.

The young man was instantly killed in a logging camp, near Raymond, Wash. the first of the week. He was well known in this vicinity and a large crowd was in attendance at the funeral. The services were conducted by Mr. Cross, the local minister. Some beautiful floral pieces were given, by the camp boys as well as many other nice flowers for this time of the year.

Mr. Ballard made his home with the Martin families when here. He had just gone back to Washing a few days before the accident occurred. He leaves besides his father, a sister, Mrs. Aldred Martin and two brothers, also a host of friends to mourn his sudden departure.

The community gathering in Lyons Monday was a successful meeting. The carpenter work was well begun at 10 o'clock on the ceiling of the community hall and the ladies responded, with a good wholesome dinner in due time.

Mrs. Henry Talbot returned from a few days visit with relatives in Lebanon.

Mrs. Marion Forrest has been very ill the past week, but is reported much improved.

Friends and readers of the Scio Tribune are glad to know the Editor and his wife had such a pleasant trip East and surely enjoyed reading the account published in the Tribune of their trip and experiences. Our community joins in wishing the McAdoo family a prosperous New Year in 1924.

Original Estimate Sheet

To the Taxpayers of the City of Scio, Oregon

Notice is hereby given that on January 26, 1924, at 7:30 p. m., the budget committee will meet at the council chamber of the City of Scio, Oregon, for the purpose of approving the estimates as prepared by said committee and published herewith, which constitutes the basis for making the tax levy for the following year. At this meeting objections will be heard, if there be any.
