LOCAL BREVITIES

A. C. Heyman, former county agent, but now with the National Life Insurance Co. as its district representative, was in Scio Monday. Mr. Heyman has Linn, Benton and Lincoln counties.

Joe Bartu was in Portland last Friday on business. He reports a near serious accident this side of Woodburn, caused by the wet pavement and a stalled truck, but did not learn the name.

G. W. Morrow and family, who are at Eugene, where Mr. Morrow is being treated by a physician, were at their home in Scio a part of last week. They returned to Eugene Saturday. Mr. Morrow is reported to be improving.

W. R. Munkers and wife of Lexington, Oregon, and Joe Munkers and wife of West Scio went to Harris Monday for a family re-union with I. A. Munkers and family and E. A. Woodmansee and family. They will return the last of the week.

The Leap year dance at the Z. C. B. J. hall last Saturday night drew a large crowd, and the ladies entered into the program with a zest that puts to rout the much advertised gallantry of the men. All had a good time, is the report. Excellent music was furnished by Billy Kalina's orchestra.

Ernest Wagner and family, together with his creamery apparatus, expect to leave the latter part of the week for Dallas, where he will establish a creamery on a much larger scale than here. He will continue the manufacture of "Meadow Shade butter, and will have a complete stock on sale in Scio at all times.

Charles Pietka answered a summons sworn out of Justice Olliver's court in Albany last Monday, being charged by Anna Ambrosek with assault and battery. Mr. Pietka plead not guilty to the charge and trial was postponed until next Monday. W. L. Marks is looking after Mr. Pietka's interests.

Arenie Long came in from Pacific City Sunday night, and is spending a few days here looking for some good cows to replace the ones cremated in his recent fire. Bad luck seems to have no terrors for Archie, and he came to the right community for restocking his herd. While here he is stopping with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Long.

Albany is forming a company for the purpose of bringing pure water from the head of the McKenzie river, or Clear Lake, to that city, and also trying to interest other communities along the route to co-operate. Pure water is something that Albany needs, and as filings on the source have been made, no doubt the project will become a reality.

J. D. Densmore and Mrs. MacFarland, Mrs. Densmore's mother, went to Portland Thursday afternoon to spend the remainder of the week. Mr. Densmore will look after business interests and Mrs. MacFarland will visit at the home of V. K. Campbell, Public Service Commissioner. They were old friends when both families lived in Salem.

N. I. Morrison went to Salem last Monday to attend the funeral of an old schoolmate, when he lived in New York many years ago—C. W.

Southworth, who was 53 years old. Burial took place at Eugene, but Mr. Morrison was unable to proceed with the friends to Eugene. Mr. Morrison says he never saw so many floral tributes in his life, and these showed the high esteem in which the deceased was held.

Dr. A. G. Thompson, of Yahk, B. C., arrived in Scio last Friday night for a short visit with his cousin, Mrs. M. E. Scott. On Sunday Dr. C. Ficq came over from Albany and took the doctor and Mrs. Scott over to his home, where he also visited his cousin, Mrs. Ficq. The doctor likes Scio, but is doing well in his home country. The weather there has been fine this year, until recently, when conditions prevailed pretty much as in the states. He left for his home Monday.

In last week's issue of the tribune we said the total amount of money orders sent out from this postoffice was $4,338, when it should have read number. The total amount in dollars would have been nearly $40,000, which would make business pretty good in and around Scio if that amount were spent here. It may be that is necessary for a considerable amount of money to be sent out from this county each year, but if all who mailed money orders to mail order houses depended upon the said mail order house to buy his or her product, there would be no money leaving the community for mail order concerns. Most of us who send money away from home depend upon home business men to extend credit—very few get credit from mail order companies.

CAREFULLY CONDUCTED VISION SURVEYS shows that 62% of all children between the ages of six and sixteen have defective eyes.

Most of these children are being forced to do school work under the handicap of a constant nervous strain caused by neglect of eyes that need help. And the pitiful part is that the parent's ignorance of the conditions does not save the child from the penalty he is constantly paying.

Just two things have made it possible for us to give you this 20% reduction on Tuxedo:

1. A reduction in the cost of Kentucky Burley tobacco and in package materials, as well.
2. The consolidation of three of our big plants into one. (Mr. Ford may not be in the tobacco business but he is right about consolidation.)

You know that it is the desire and policy of The American Tobacco Co. to extend to its customers the maximum of service.

Reducing the price of a great favorite like Tuxedo is our idea of delivering this service.

Tuxedo is always FRESH. Every package is—
