Baseball News

Saturday night the baseball team gave a benefit dance to raise funds with which to buy some needed equipment and to pay rental on the ground they will use as a diamond. A large crowd was in attendance and about $115 was cleared, which will be a good start on expense account for the coming season.

Sunday the Scio baseball team played their first game of the season on the local diamond, the Cherry City Bakers being their opponents. The game resulted in a score of 11 to 2 in favor of Scio.

Scio's lineup was: Philbrink and Ray, pitchers; Glenn Holland, catcher; McAllister, short stop; Ed Holland, first base; J. Kelly, second base; Cox, third base; Gordon Wesley, Harold Hassler, and Walt Brodie, fielders; E. G. Arnold, umpire.

The Scio High School will cross bats with the Lebanon High School on the local grounds tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. The Lebanon boys have been practicing hard for this game, and our boys have been taking on some practice, which ought to assure the fans a good game. The admission is 25¢.

On Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock the Scio baseball team will meet the Albany ball tossers on the local diamond. This will be the second game of the season for the locals, and they will be in fine shape to give the visitors a run for their money. Albany also has a good team this year, and feel they will take the scalp of the locals. Be there and see how it is done.

The Scio Baseball Club wants to thank all who contributed in any manner to the success of their dance Saturday night, when they cleared about $115. Especially to the ladies who furnished the eats, the musicians, the merchants who donated space for advertising the event, and all who danced with us.

Ballin Mill Closes

On account of the dull season at present, and because of an open winter, the Ballin mill has temporarily closed. This has laid off some 40 or 50 men, and some of them we understand have gone out to seek other employment. It is expected the mill will resume operations within the next two weeks. H. A. Ballin, the proprietor, has been considerably under the weather for several weeks, and this has had its effect upon the operation of the mill. It is hoped the mill will soon be humming, and that Mr. Ballin will be restored to robust health.

W. F. Gill and wife, Fred Bilyeu and wife and daughter, Virginia, and Miss Josie Kotan and Mrs. Edna Therber took in the "Blossom Day" at Salem Sunday.

Celebrates Birthday

Mrs. Marion L. Brown of Shelburn entertained several friends and relatives Sunday in honor of her daughter, Aileen's twelfth birthday. Four generations of the Trollinger family were present - Mrs. Nancy "Grandma" Trollinger, Mrs. Lizzie George, Mrs. Marion Brown, and Miss Aileen Brown.

Other guests were: Howard, Mitch and Lorene Trollinger; Walter, Clinton, James, Iola, and Mrs. Lee George; Bue'l, Wilma, Helen, Eleanor, and Agnes Miller; Justin, Harve and Kathryn Ransom; George, Robert, Rose, and Mary Gibbons; Alvin McCleery, Vera Carson and Marion Brown of Shelburn; Mrs. Mary J. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Bennett of Corvallis.

Victim of Explosion

Dr. A. D. Woodmansee, dentist of Milton, Oregon, was injured late Thursday, April 8, when an alcohol stove in his office exploded, blowing out the whole front of the building and badly lacerating the dentist's arm. No damage was done to the fixtures in the office. The plate glass window was blown to atoms.

This is the third misfortune for Dr. Woodmansee this winter, as twice he has been the victim of incendiaryism. Dr. A. D. Woodmansee is well known in Scio where he was born and raised. He is a nephew of Mrs. Joe Munkers of West Scio.

Hold Road Meeting

A county-wide good roads meeting will be held in Lebanon April 23, following a dinner at Hotel Lebanon, when County Roadmaster Cuiver of Salem will be the principal speaker. He will explain the county road-building programme of Marion county under his ten years of road building. Linn county is trying to launch a progressive movement of road building, and a campaign of education has been in progress for some time. Meetings have been held in many communities.—Oregonian.

Congress Bans Japanese

The Johnson immigration bill has passed congress, which carries a ban on foreigners of the Mongolian race, especially the Japanese. According to the papers, Japan is quite sore over the matter, but why should America care, this is our country and we ought to have a right to say who shall or shall not come within our borders. It is probable the Japanese ambassador will resign his post here and return home, in which event some think a grave crisis will develop. Time alone will tell.

Celebrates 13th Birthday

Lyle Shelton entertained a number of his friends at his home Wednesday evening, April ninth, in honor of his thirteenth birthday. The evening was spent in playing games and refreshments were served by Mrs. Floyd Shelton and Bobby Thayer.

Those present were: Myrtle Hollis, Myrtle and Dorris Hodge, Mary Donovan, Bertha Isaac, Vernon DeLauney, Wilbur Johnson, Glenn Philippi, Lois Parrish, Deryl, Maurice, Rex, and Lyle Shelton.

Miss Hazel Hall spent the week end in Corvallis, where she was a guest of the Alpha Phi Delta sorority.

All Oregon to Aid Albany Self-Help College

The entire state of Oregon will be appealed to in a campaign now being organized to raise $600,000 for new buildings, equipment and productive endowment for Albany student self-help college. Albany, Ore., an old-established school under Presbyterian auspices, but not narrowly sectarian. State headquarters are in the Multnomah hotel, Portland. J. Henry Lang being director.

Following are division chairmen and vice-chairmen and their residential headquarters:

Cosco Bay, the Rev. Charles S. Bergner, chairman, Coquille; Grande Ronde, the Rev. L. L. Boyd, chairman, Baker; Mrs. L. R. Stockman, vice chairman, Baker; Pendleton, Judge J. W. Maloney, chairman, Pendleton; J. E. Akoy, vice chairman, Pendleton; Mrs. A. C. Voelker, vice chairman, Helix; Portland, F. I. Fuller, chairman; Mrs. R. W. Shepherd, vice chairman; Southern Oregon, M. C. Gaston, chairman, Grants Pass; W. S. Clough, Klamath Falls and Mrs. Walter Frazier Brown, Medford, vice chairman; Willamette, Homer Saults, motor route A, Eugene, chairman; J. C. Swan and Miss Flora Mason, Eugene, vice chairmen. Mrs. Clarence W. Green serving until the return of Miss Mason from Hawaii.

Income Tax Invalid

At the instance of an outside corporation, whose business is entirely outside of Oregon, the state income tax has been declared invalid in so far as it affects corporations doing business outside the state. Another case will be heard today before Judge Kelly at Salem affecting the income tax law, and no matter how the decision may go, it will be immediately appealed to the supreme court. It's a poor law that has two meanings, as it appears this law has, and if such is the case, it should be declared invalid. There are entirely too many laws with elasticity in them, made so as to fit entirely different cases, and all should be wiped off the statute books. Why should we have a state income tax anyway? Aren't the people taxed to the limit as it is, without stepping in and saying your meagre salary must be taxed because you are industrious and saving? Doesn't an income tax place a premium on laziness or enforced vacation so that the prospect will not come within the scope of paying on his income?

Four Candidates File

Four candidates filed for Linn county offices Monday. Jucze B. M. Payne filed for county judge; L. J. Giddings for assessor; Mrs. Edga Geer for superintendent of schools; and Miss Lenore Powell for treasurer. These are seeking re-election on the democratic ticket.

Frank Bartu Jr. went to Portland Tuesday on business.

Celebrated Birthdays

Last Saturday Miss Dolly Daley came out from Portland to spend her birthday with her mother, Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth Daley, and her brother, Fred. She was accompanied by Mrs. J. E. Calavan and Herbert Arnold. We do not know the age of Miss Dolly, being too polite to ask, but she is old enough to know how to properly celebrate the same, and also assist Donald MacDonald, whose birthday occurred on Sunday.

Dinner was served at the Daley home to P. H. MacDonald and wife and son, Donald, Mrs. Sarah Morris, Mrs. Emma Cyrus, Merle Cyrus and wife, and Mrs. Daley and daughter, Miss Dolly, and son, Fred.

Miss Dolly is employed in one of the large printing establishments in Portland and does not get to come home very often, but her friends are always glad to welcome her to her home town.

Mrs. Sarah Daley is probably the oldest continuous resident of Scio, having lived here since 1863. She is now 76 years old, and she has seen Scio grow to its present proportions, seen its ups and downs, and no doubt can begin to see the dreams of the founders of the city take on their hopes - a growth that will make it the second city in Linn county. Mrs. Daley's maiden name was Cusik, a relative of the Cusiks of Albany, and is therefore among the foremost families of the county.

Portland's Scandal

According to the Portland papers, that city and the county of Multnomah have a real scandal within the borders of that bailiwick. It seems the county commissioners of Multnomah county awarded the contract for constructing some bridges to a large bridge building concern, who said they wanted all the work at a huge sum or none of it—and the commissioners said take all. This brought a storm of protest from the taxpayers and some bidders for the work, with the result that a recall is now going on and otherwise good men are under a cloud. It may be these commissioners are entitled to be recalled, and from the evidence presented by the Portland papers, they should be, but it seems there is entirely too much of this graft and the like and their case should not stop with the recall—they should be placed behind the bars for their crooked work. Attorney General VanWinkle has charge of the investigation, and he says no stone will be left unturned to bring out all the evidence against the commissioners and prosecution follow.

Purchases Factory Site

I. Hoagland, on last Friday, purchased the factory of his sons, Roy, and Othel Wallace, on the south side of Thomas creek, and expects to put the same into shape for operation at an early date. About two years ago the ground was purchased and a building erected for the manufacture of furniture and repairing of same, but has never been operated in all that time. We understand Mr. Hoagland will soon commence the manufacture of various articles commonly used and also caskets, which we believe will make the plant a paying proposition from the start. Mr. Hoagland is showing his belief in the ultimate growth of the city and community by investing his money in his home town.

The thermometer registered 27 degrees at Pendleton Tuesday night and in some of the farming districts a quarter of an inch of ice is reported as well as flurries of snow. The early wheat and fruit are thought to be injured.

The first roses of the season in the lower Willamette Valley are credited to John W. Draper of West Linn, near Portland. Mr. Draper has 275 varieties of roses in his gardens and 450 rose bushes at his West Linn home.

Mrs. Elizabeth Reeder, 80, of Vancouver, Wash., had the thrill of her life the other day when she took her first ride in an airplane.

Figures recently given out show that Portland was outranked in building and construction on the coast during the past year only by Los Angeles and San Francisco. Seattle holds sixth place.

Two Fires Reported

Two fires are reported from the Larwood neighborhood last Wednesday. The home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Williams was completely destroyed except that a part of the furniture was saved. Fire caught from a defective flue at the home of J. F. Bartu on the same day and burned a hole in the roof of the house. Had it not been for the fact that help was close at hand this might have been a serious fire.
