

Added Features

for your vacation wherever you plan to spend it

The low summer roundtrip fares, effective May 22 over the Southern Pacific Lines, enable you to add much to your vacation trip.

For instance, if you are going East you may visit California's famous cities and resorts at an additional cost that is trifling.

Days of rare fun and interest, scenes of unusual beauty—doubled vacation pleasures, in fact, are yours for very little cost.

Or if you plan to visit any of the resorts in Oregon—Tillamook and Newport Beaches, charming mountain resorts, Crater Lake, Oregon Caves, etc.—the low summer fares will make it more than ever easy.

They enable you to visit two or three places instead of only one as you probably planned to do.

And Southern Pacific service makes your trip delightful at every stage.

Fine train service, a courteous, thoughtful personnel and Dinners of unusual excellence on the trains where Dinners are a convenience.

Plan your trip for the fullest enjoyment. Our agents will gladly help you in many valuable ways.

SANTIAM FARM NEWS

May 6

We are having quite a May rain; somewhat a surprise. It was badly needed, as farming is getting well along.

Our fruit and berry crop is badly injured; will not get over a fourth of a crop of berries.

Lee Gaines, wife, son and daughter of Larwood called in at the Santiam Farm for a supply of rhubarb, as the lady is boarding a logging crew, as Lee is cutting a million feet of his timber and will finish the first week in June. They attended the funeral of Mr. Clark at Providence; he was some 85 years old.

John Griffin of Salem drove up Saturday to bring his brother, Elmer, of the Cottage Farm; he returned the same afternoon. Elmer returned Monday by way of Albany.

John Crabtree and mother of Scio, accompanied by Newton Crabtree and two daughters of David Horsburg, drove up to Lebanon Friday to attend the pioneer picnic.

David Horsburg treated his wife and four daughters, as well as himself, to a new car, as the old one was not roomy enough for the family; they are all fair size.

Uncle Geo. Bilveu and wife of Scio called in Saturday on their return home for a supply of rhubarb. They have been out on their farm herding sheep, as they have some 120 fine lambs.

Geo. and Elmer Griffin called on David Horsburg and family Sunday, as they are all cousins, having a fine dinner and a way-up time.

On examining my grape vines I find about two-thirds of them killed, so expect a poor crop of grapes, if any.

S. W. Gaines made a short run for Crabtree Monday morning.

People are on the rush since the fine rain, as all are anxious to finish up their crops and gardens.

Ed Kalina and wife attended the big dance at the hall in Scio Saturday night.

Geo. Griffin attended the community club meeting at Crabtree Monday night. He invited the old man to go with him, but on account of his sore leg he had to regretfully decline the invitation.

Ed Kalina took his stepfather, Mr. Nimic, to Albany Monday, as he is quite poorly with leakage of the heart and is advised by the doctor not to work any.

PIE EATER.

Miss Philippi Honored

Hazel Philippi of Scio has been awarded a gold Barometer pin. The Barometer is the student publication at the O. A. C., Corvallis. Miss Philippi is an assistant day editor.

The Barometer pins are student body awards and are representative of real work. To earn one a staff member must have his name on the masthead for an entire year in addition to the term's work spent in trying out for staff membership. Miss Philippi is a junior in commerce and a member of Beta Kappa sorority.

GILKEY STATION

This community was cast into a gloom of sadness when word reached here of the death of Mrs. Maude Kelly Moore, 46, who died at her home in Salem, May 1. Mrs. Moore spent many of her girlhood days on the old Kelly homestead, where J. G. Holt's now reside, though the house which sheltered her burned down a few years ago. Maude, as she was familiarly known here, taught her first school at Oak View. She afterwards attended the State Normal at Monmouth, where she was graduated with honors in 1902. She has also taught in Albany, Woodburn and Grants Pass, where she met her husband. She was teaching in Salem when stricken with pleuro-pneumonia on Saturday. She leaves to mourn her loss her husband, William Moore, a son and daughter, Kelly and Wilma Eileen, and the following brothers and sisters: Clifford Kelly of Prineville, Mrs. Mary Queener of Salem, J. H. Kelly, W. R. Kelly and Mrs. J. G. Holt of this place, besides many nieces and nephews. The funeral was held at the Rigdon undertaking parlors in Salem Monday afternoon, Rev. B. E. Kirkpatrick of the M. E. church preached the eulogy. Interment was in the City View cemetery at Salem. Flowers were many and beautiful. The Eastern Star had charge of the services at the grave. Thus ends the chapter of one of Oregon's highly intellectual and cultured women.

Frank and Joe Prokop have purchased the threshing machine formerly owned by N. I. Morrison. They plan to thresh their own grain and some for their neighbors.

T. L. Rice and wife and Hubert Rice of Portland visited recently at the home of their sister, Mrs. R. H. McCarter. They left Portland at 4 a. m. and reached here at 7. They took Mrs. McCarter for a ride to the cemetery and via Munkers home, which was a rare treat to her. One of the party stayed with Mr. McCarter while she was away.

Mrs. Clara Chappelle of Woodburn is visiting at W. A. Gilkey's.

The thimble club was delightfully entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank DeWall, with Mrs. John DeWall and Mrs. Fred Eckengren as joint hostesses. Twenty-three members were present and the following visitors: Miss Leona Johnston, Miss Hazel Young, Mrs. Esther Hoff, Mrs. Chris DeWall, Mrs. E. H. Sage and Mrs. Richard Struckmeyer, who became a member. After the business meeting a peanut hunt was enjoyed, and peanut contests staged, which were won by Mrs. S. B. Holt and Mrs. R. H. McDonald. Delicious refreshments of cakes, fruit salad and lemonade were served by the hostesses.

Richard Struckmeyer and wife went to Lacombe Thursday evening.

Edna Gilkey is ill with shingles. Floyd Crenshaw is able to get about again.

Frank Prokop and wife transacted business in Albany Monday. Leonard Gilkey accompanied them over and Mrs. J. F. Sims came back with them and visited Edna Gilkey. Mrs. Sims had been nursing the measles patients at County Clerk Russell's home for a week.

Clifford Kelly, who came from Prineville to attend his sister's funeral, is visiting relatives here for a days.

Lester Holt and wife of Carlton accompanied J. G. Holt and wife home from Salem Sunday evening and stayed till Monday.

Many from here attended the Forum meeting in Crabtree Monday evening.

W. A. McKinnon of Stayton was in these parts a few days ago.

Edna Gilkey has word from Ella (Moore) Miller of Glendale, Calif., saying she is now Mrs. C. G. Woods, having married in Santa Ana, April 21. Mrs. Woods was the widow of Frank Miller of this place and had been a widow for 21 years. Her many relatives and friends here wish her much happiness. She also states that she has a radio and enjoys listening to Oregon news every evening.

O. L. Holt and Will Quinn of Portland were dinner guests at S. B. Holt's Sunday.

Arthur Kelly's visited at J. H. Kelly's Sunday.
