

Locals

The Salvation Army of Albany paid Scio a visit Saturday afternoon.

John Wesely has traded his Chevrolet Coupe for a four passenger Chevrolet Coupe. It has balloon tires, which are something new in this community.

A. C. Rahn, of route 1, was a pleasant caller at the Tribune last Friday.

Henry Hassler and wife visited Mr. Hassler's mother, Mrs. Emma-line Hassler, at Larwood Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert of Salem spent the week-end with the C. M. Donovan and W. J. Chromy families.

J. B. Couey and daughters moved the first of the week from the I.

Hoagland place on North Main Street to the Arnold place on South Main Street.

E. C. Shelton and wife went to Salem Sunday to visit at the home of their son, Roy Shelton and family.

The faculty of the school and D. C. Thoms and wife enjoyed a picnic at Green's bridge last Thursday after school.

Chris Bilyeu and wife were out to their farm, east of town, Thursday afternoon and report having found ripe strawberries.

N. I. Morrison and wife went to Portland Monday. Because of tire troubles they spent nearly all night on the road home.

Misses Franc Gilbert and Ruth Bronberg of O. A. C., spent the week-end with Miss Rose Chromy, who also attends O. A. C.

A short program consisting of a play and dancing was given at the Z. C. B. J. hall last Saturday night, at which all who attended had a most enjoyable evening.

Mrs. C. L. Pennell, who underwent a major operation at Albany several weeks ago, has returned to her home greatly improved. She will soon be completely well.

Frank Donovan and family of Corvallis, the Misses Myrtle and Lena Donovan, and Mr. Carol Ward of Portland spent the week-end with their parents, C. M. Donovan and wife.

The baseball game which was to have been played between Stayton and Scio at Stayton last Sunday was postponed because of rain. Dallas will play Scio on the local diamond next Sunday.

In giving the names last week of the teachers employed for the Scio school next year we gave the name of Miss Ethel Zysset as the primary teacher and it should have been Miss Mabel Zysset.

Mrs. F. A. Bliss and daughter of Juliette, Idaho, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Bliss' sister, Mrs. W. S. Carpenter. They are enroute home from a visit at Rogue River, in Southern Oregon.

T. J. Munkers and wife of Portland have returned to their home after having spent a week with relatives and friends here. While here they were taken on a trip to Salem to view the tulip farm.

Wilbur Davis, who is employed at The Tribune office, was taken quite ill at an early hour Tuesday morning. His mother came over from Corvallis Tuesday evening and took him home Wednesday afternoon.

A change in management at the Scio Creamery took place the first of the month, Harold Hassler replacing E. J. Holland. Mr. Holland is working on the road between here and Shelburn.

Last Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Joe Oupor were called to Corvallis to attend the bedside of the latter's son, H. A. Stann, who was operated on that day for appendicitis. Mr. Stann is about 30 years of age and is getting along nicely according to the last reports.

During April 60,000 tons of express was shipped out of Scio and 3,000 tons was shipped in, which shows a good balance in favor of Scio. During the two weeks just past Fred Mumper, who recently opened a commission house here, has shipped 700 young chickens, which averaged 1 1/4 pounds in weight.

Mrs. Edna Therber of Springville, New York, who has been visiting at the home of Dr. and Mrs. A. G. Prill for several months, left Tuesday night for her home. She will spend some time enroute, stopping at San Francisco, Los Angeles, Salt Lake City, Ogden, Denver, and other points. The Dr. and wife accompanied her to Albany.

John Sumpter and Mrs. Mark Freeman, a former resident of Crabtree, but recently living in Salem, were married Sunday in Jefferson, Rev. Teddy Leavitt performing the ceremony. Mr. Sumpter is the father of Ray Sumpter, who was married to Hazel Howard the first of last week. All the parties are well known in Scio.

Russel McDonald and wife, Gilbert McDonald and family, Kenneth McDonald and wife, and Archie Lindley and family left Scio about four o'clock Sunday morning and drove to Portland, Astoria, Seaside, and Tillamook, a distance of about 400 miles, returning in "The Wee Small Hours" Monday morning. Kenneth has a new Star car and this gave it a good try-out. At Oswego they passed where a Ford and a Big Studebaker had just collided, which they said was the worst wreck they ever saw. The ambulance was there and the injured were being removed. They did not learn how the accident happened nor the extent of the injuries.

Parrish-Hoagland

On Friday night, April 25, Lois Parrish, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Parrish, went to Aumsville to visit the Stoddard family over the week-end, but on Saturday morning she left the Stoddard home and went to Kalama, Wash., where she met Roy Hoagland and on Monday was married to Mr. Hoagland. The only information available at the time of writing this story is the following clipping, sent to the Tribune by L. J. Ficklin of Kalama:

"A marriage licence was issued on Monday by county auditor Renner to LeRoy Hoagland of Portland, and Lois Parrish, of Kalama. They were married by Judge G. A. Poland."

Card of Thanks

We wish in this way to express our sincere thanks to our many friends for their kind sympathies and kindly acts during the sickness and death of our beloved husband and father, also for the beautiful floral offerings.

Mrs. Mary Walters and Children.

We wish to express our heartfelt thanks to our many friends for the kind assistance and sympathy given us during the illness and death of our dear wife and mother, and for the beautiful floral offerings.

Joseph Oupor and family.

High School Notes

May 6

The Scio high school baseball team was defeated at Lebanon last Friday. Cliff Khuen put the game out of the Scio boys' reach with a three bagger when the bases were full.

The Scio boys will meet Jefferson HI on the local diamond next Friday.

We have only three weeks of school after this one.

The gym dance Saturday evening was well attended. Excellent music was furnished by the Derby Five orchestra of Lebanon.
