Primry Brings Surprises

With less than 50 per cent of the voters using their franchise last Friday, in both the North and South precincts, the election passed off quietly — so quietly one would hardly know there was an election being held. Owing to a rush of job work this week we are unable to give the vote in detail throughout the county, but only give the names of the nominees. Here in Scio, most of the citizens who voted express a regret at the failure of D. C. Thoms to land the nomination for county judge.

The nominees on both tickets are: Senator, McNary, rep.; Miller, dem.; for congress, Hawley, rep.; H. L. Clark, dem.; secretary of state, Kozler, rep.; Hembree, dem.; state treasurer, Thomas B. Kay, rep.; Jeff Myers, dem.; representative, H. E. Tucker and L. Swan, rep.; S. H. Goin and A. K. McMahan, dem.; county judge, D. B. McKnight, rep.; B. M. Payne, dem.; sheriff, Frank Richard, rep.; P. W. Goodman, dem.; county clerk, R. M. Russell, rep.; H. S. Nolan, dem.; county treasurer, Lenore Powell, dem.; assessor, Grant Froman, rep.; L. J. Giddings, dem.; survivor, C. H. Leonard, rep.; recorder C. C. Curry, rep.; commissioner, Joe Hume, rep.; W. M. Moss, dem.; superintendent of schools, Edna Geer, dem.

From the returns, one would infer that endorsements by leagues or other organizations have no effect upon the voters, as most of those endorsed were turned down, all over the state.

Grand-nephew Visits

Albert Rex, son of Mrs. R. L. Berry of Multnomah, Oregon, came down Tuesday for a several weeks' visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Munkers. Albert is a grand-nephew of Mrs. Munkers.

He had just received word that his grandmother, Mrs. Arron Rex, had died at Stockton, California, on May 8, of paralysis. Mrs. Rex was the mother of Clarence and Ernest Rex, and lived in Scio for many years. Clarence died in Stockton California, last summer of paralysis.

Attend Basket Dinner

An all day meeting was held Sunday by the churches of Jefferson which have been holding revival services conducted by Rev. Teddy Leavitt. At noon a large crowd gathered at the grove at the west end of the bridge on the highway and enjoyed a basket dinner together.

A large number from here were in attendance among whom were the following: E. D. Myers, W. A. Ewing, J. W. Merrit, L. P. Arnold, B. I. Arnold, and their families, and "Aunt Becky" Morris, Mrs. J. W. Shimanek, Mrs. Clara Pepper, and Rev. E. S. Muckley.

Mrs. Leffler Passes

On Monday morning, May 19, Mrs. John Leffler passed away at her home north-east of town, following an illness of several years.

She was born in Scio on September 28, 1881, hence she would have been 43 years of age had she lived till next September. She was married to John Leffler 18 years ago last November.

Surviving Mrs. Leffler are: her husband; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Morrow of Scio; and two sisters, Mrs. Emma Leslie and Mrs. Nellie Boon both of whom reside at Eugene.

Funeral services were held at the residence yesterday afternoon, were conducted by Rev. Clarence Hedrick of the Baptist church; and she was laid to rest in Franklin Butte cemetery.

School Has Picnic

Jordan, Oregon, May 20. (Special) On Monday Mrs. Spackman of Fairview school gave her pupils a picnic. A number of the parents went along with well-filled baskets. After the long walk through the brambles and grass and bracing morning air one of Mrs. Salgel's lovely natural parks was reached. Then the cheery voices of the youngsters rang out in all their delight, for here they played games until the lunch was ready, when all did ample justice to the occasion. At four o'clock the happy groups dispersed with the full assurance that they had had a delightful day, and expressed many thanks to Mrs. Spackman.

Fred Brown Here

Fred Brown, secretary of the state game commission, with field men Hawker and Hadley, was in town Tuesday in regard to a fish ladder at the dam at Jordan. A ladder will be built immediately, the city council voting to conform with the desires of the commission regarding ladders suitable for salmon and other fish to go over the obstruction.

Miss Effie Rhoda of Astoria is spending a two weeks' vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Rhoda. Miss Rhoda is employed in the telephone office at Astoria.

Celebrates Birthday

Sunday was the 43d birthday anniversary of Don McKnight and in honor of the event he was given a birthday picnic dinner by his relatives. Fred Bilyeu and family, W. F. Gill and wife, Mrs. V. A. McKnight and family all went to Guy McKnight's place south-west of town where they enjoyed a picnic dinner followed by a general good time during the afternoon.

Johnnie Merrit passed the 24th milestone of his life Saturday and to help him to remember the occasion a party was given him at which fifty-five were present. The guests all brought well filled baskets of lunch, and all enjoyed a good time till after midnight. George Bilyeu and wife and Henry Hassler and wife of Scio were among those who attended.

Last Saturday afternoon Mrs. Oscar Lindley entertained a party of little folks in honor of the sixth birthday of her daughter, Evelyn. Three cars carried the little folks to Gerald McDonald's grove where they made merry by playing games, reciting poetry and singing until a late hour when ice cream and cake were served.

Those present were: Helen Myers, Irene and Velma Pelan, Loraine Hixson, Angaline Wesely, Virginia Bilyeu, Alta Pennel, Edris Thayer, Marjorie and Helen Zavodsky, Emily Skokan, Geraldine Rodgers, Harry Wesely, Donald MacDonald, Robert Kalina, Clement Cain, and Rex and Morris Shelton.

Is He Getting Lazy

Ever since he put in electric lights on his farm, Roe Phillips has been figuring on how he could save himself some labor and have the comforts of city life. He solved the problem the other day by purchasing an automatic electric motor for pumping purposes, and soon he will just sit around all day and let the Scio power plant do his work. Good decision, Roe, and we congratulate you on your good judgement. Some say it is just laziness, but we can't see it that way.

Commutes Hecker Sentence

Tuesday at noon, Governor Pierce commuted the death sentence of Russell Hecker to life imprisonment. The governor said he found from new evidence and a careful and accurate survey of the old evidence, that the murder of Bowker by Hecker was not premeditated. Hecker was to have hanged yesterday morning at 10 o'clock.

Nolan Parrish has accepted employment with the Kirkpatrick-Pollock garage in Albany and has moved to that city.

$60 Subscribed

A few weeks ago a petition was started for raising funds for the purpose of erecting a large sign on the highway at Jefferson directing tourists toward Scio. To date $60 has been subscribed which will insure the large sign. Those who have not given so far and feel that it is their duty may do so and all above the required amount for the large sign will be used to place smaller signs at convenient places along the highway.

Those who have subscribed are: W. A. Gilkey, R. M. Cain, Bartu Motor Co., J. L. Kelly, F. T. Bilyeu, J. B. Couey, Scio Mill & Elevator Co., N. I. Mrs. Hensen Dies

Mrs. Hensen, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Turnidge of Crabtree, died in Portland last Sunday from abscess in the head.

She leaves to mourn her loss, her husband and two children and her parents.

Funeral services were held at Lebanon Tuesday, a Portland minister officiating.

Mrs. Hensen was born at Lacombe and was 24 years of age.

Memorial Day Service

On account of the Baccalaureate sermon, Rev. J. Y. Stewart will preach in the Christian church in the morning on Sunday. This will be a memorial service and it is hoped that all ex-service men who can will attend.

Miss Mary Kotan came home from Fort Klamath Monday, having closed her school there on Friday. Miss Kotan closed her school two weeks early because of so many of her pupils being absent with the mumps.

A number from here attended the May Day exercises at Richardson Gap Z. C. B. J. hall last Sunday and report a pleasant time and a nice dinner. The Bohemian band of Mill City furnished music.

Airplane Visits Scio

Last Friday afternoon one of the airplanes which gave the flying circus at Lebanon last week-end came to Scio and spent the afternoon carrying passengers. Three of our citizens took short rides, Othal Wallace, being first, and it is said he paid the pilot an extra fee to do some extra stunts while in the air. He did the tail spin, nose dive and several other thrilling stunts. Ralph Hollis and M. B. Cyrus followed Mr. Wallace in taking a ride in the air.

The two men with the machine went to Portland for the night and returned Saturday morning. They said they made the flight from Portland to Scio, a distance of about 60 miles by air route, in just one hour. They remained only a short time Saturday morning and took L. F. Jones for a short ride during their stay.

It is said they are thinking of putting on a flying circus at Scio some time soon.

Household Art Exhibit

The eleven girls of the household art class with their teacher, Miss Hazel Hall, gave an exhibit at the school house Friday afternoon. A very creditable showing of their work was made on well arranged tables on which were placed large vases of spring flowers.

The work done by the girls during the year consisted of cotton dresses, wool dresses, blouses, under garments, and embroidery work. Two of the girls who finished their problems ahead of the allotted time were allowed to make themselves each a hat. These were very nicely done.

The girls served punch to all the visitors.

Jersey Cattle Club to Picnic

The Linn County Jersey Cattle Club and all others who wish to attend, will hold their annual picnic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McConnell near Shedd on Saturday, May 24.

Those who attend are asked to bring their lunch and their own cup.
