

High School Notes

May 20

The Scio boys were defeated in the last game of the season at Aumsville last Friday. Scio started the game with a three run lead in the first inning, but was soon overtaken and defeated 16 to 6.

The annual will be out May 24th. Any one wanting a copy give your order to any high school pupil.

There will be a gym dance May 24th. The "Derby Five" will furnish the music and a good time is assured.

Mrs. Shotwell surprised everyone Monday by appearing with her hair bobbed.

Our school resembles a bee hive this last week of school. We are all busy as bees, preparing for our examinations which start Friday.

An attractive and instructive household art exhibit was held in the Home Economics department Friday afternoon. The work done by the sewing classes during the year was on display. Punch was served to the visitors during the afternoon.

The baseball game between Shedd and Scio on the local diamond Sunday afternoon was well attended and was an interesting game. The score was four to six in favor of Scio. A hotly contested game is expected next Sunday when Albany comes to cross bats with Scio.

Little Miss Jaunice Thayer has returned to her home in Scio after a visit of a week with her aunt, Miss Freda Thayer, who is teaching school near Oregon City.

An all day meeting will be held at the Baptist church on Sunday, May 25, 1924. Regular morning services. Bring a well filled basket. Roll call will be held in the afternoon. All city churches are invited to join in and have their roll called.
