MAY 25-26-27

Harold Bell Wright's great novel
"When a Man's a Man"
We Advise You to Come Early

SOON—
HAROLD LLOYD in
"Girl Shy"

The Need Is Imperative

Coats, dresses, suits (all sizes), sweaters, mittens, stockings, boots and shoes (broad toes, low heels and tied in pairs), woolen gloves, shirts, underwear, shop-worn goods, new garments, cloth by the yard, sheets for bandages, blankets and comforts.

Send anything your own family would need now or next winter if you had been driven from home one year ago with not a possession in the world except the clothes you are wearing.

Ask your friends to contribute. Bundle up every practical garment in your closets and bureau drawers that has outlived its usefulness to your family, and bring them ODAY, FRIDAY or SATURDAY to CLARENCE E. HEDRICK, pastor of the Baptist church, residence in the house formerly occupied by J. B. Coney, across the street north from the Scio Garage.
