

LOCAL BREVITIES

Sheep raisers of this section are beginning to sell their fleeces. Roe Phillips has sold his fleeces to George Rodgers, the price being 37c per pound. Mr. Phillips had about 2000 pounds of wool.

A. F. Frederickson, who is acting station agent at West Scio during the absence of C. W. Bragg, spent Sunday at Hubbard.

Ellis Donovan and wife, Carol Ward and mother; and Mrs. Lena

Peterson of Portland spent Sunday with the C. M. Donovans. They left Portland at 12:30 and arrived in Scio at 3:30 Sunday morning.

Word has been received here that Fred Axe, who was badly injured in a saw mill some time ago is so much improved as to be able to go to his home at Waterloo. He will not be able to do much work this summer.

George Warrick and wife of Lebanon were in Scio Sunday. Mr. Warrick has the contract for grading and graveling the roads for a number of miles south and north from Scio.

Last Saturday Mr. Holub of Scio purchased at executor's sale in this city, the entire Serfling property, located South of Scio, and comprised 320 acres, paying therefor $5,100.—Albany Sunday Democrat, twenty-five years ago today.

Tuesday we received a note from Rollie Morris, who is spending the summer at Detroit, in which he says: "Dear Editor: will you please send us the Tribune for the summer months? We can't get along without news from home while away."

Mr. and Mrs. H. Everson and son, Leslie, and Miss May of Eugene visited Joe Oupor and wife over Sunday. Mrs. Everson and Mrs. Oupor are cousins. They had not seen each other for 39 years.

James Conner, age 80, one of the early pioneers of Linn county, died at his home at Lacombe Friday night of the infirmities of old age.

Last Thursday while splitting wood Joe Oupor had the misfortune to cut his left hand quite badly. Four stitches were required to close the wound.

Mrs. Clara Pepper cut her hand quite badly Monday while opening a jar of fruit. Two stitches were required to close the wound.

C. M. Donovan and daughters, Ina and Mary, were in Lebanon Saturday.
