

F. M. Arnold and family of Wheeler came up Thursday to spend Decoration Day with Mr. Arnold's parents, W. E. Arnold and wife. Mr. Arnold is president of the First National Bank in Wheeler, and says times are pretty good over his way.

The Odd Fellows of Linn, Benton, Polk and Marion counties are to hold a celebration at Jefferson on July Fourth, and a big time is expected. S. H. Goin is chairman of the general arrangements committee which assures a splendid program for the day.

R. D. Morris and wife came down from Detroit, where they are spending the summer, to spend Decoration Day with home folks. Rollie is one of the proprietors of the pack train from Detroit to Breitenbush Springs, and says the outlook for summer visitors to that health resort is very bright.

Work on the fish ladder at the Jordan dam is progressing rapidly and will soon be finished. W. H. Bartlett has the contract and is being assisted by a brother from Portland. The spillway at the power plant will also be reconstructed and made permanent by the same parties.

George M. Phillips, wife and sons came up from Camas, Wash., to spend Decoration Day with his brother, Roe Phillips. George is the youngest of the Phillips family, and seldom gets to come to the place of his birth. Also Grant Davis and wife of Silverton spent Decoration Day with Mr. Phillips and wife, Mrs. Davis being a sister. George Phillips and family went to Roseburg where they will visit a sister for a few days and then return to Scio for a longer visit.

A letter from Lyle Ficklin says he has been under the weather for several days, but is now well again. Mrs. Julia Bilyeu, his sister, was off from duty four weeks, but is again on the job. They are proprietors of The Eat Shop in Kalama, Wash., where they are doing well.

Fred Kress of Salem was drowned in the north fork of the Santiam near Gates last Friday. He is supposed to have stepped on a floating log in the stream, which gave way and he plunged into the water about 12 feet deep. Searchers found him after quite a time in the pool with his feet straight up.
