Willard Grimes Passes

Willard Grimes, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Grimes, died at the parental home Tuesday night from kidney trouble, which was caused by a 30-foot fall while working in a logging camp in Washington last November. For a time he continued to improve and came home in December. He was cautioned by his physician to keep from exercise, but being young and active he came to Scio in January on a truck with his brother Chester, and insisted on driving back home, which aggravated his condition and made an operation necessary in February. Again he seemed to improve, but the poison from his kidneys had so permeated his system that he could not overcome it and passed away as noted above.

Willard was loved by all who knew him. He was born near where he died, and was 21 years old on the 23d day of April, an age ready to tackle the world to reach success, but fate stopped him. He leaves a father, mother and two brothers, Chester and Cecil, and numerous relatives to mourn his untimely taking. The funeral will be held at the family home at 11 o'clock this morning, Rev. F. B. Fellman of Albany officiating, with interment in Bilyeu Den cemetery.

Traffic Agent Here

R. H. Holmes, traffic agent for Southern Pacific, was in town Friday looking after business for his company. He says he is proud of the people of this community for the loyalty they show to the S. P., and assures the public the company will render every aid possible to this community. The S. P. is the largest individual taxpayer in Linn county and is deserving of all the patronage the people can give it.

Santiam Fire Under Control

The forest fires in the Santiam district, which have been burning for the past week, are now under control reports Forester C. C. Hall. While considerable of the area burned over has been logged off land and slashings, yet great damage was also done to a vast amount of virgin forest. We cannot be too careful of fires, especially in the forest and in dead grass.

From Marion Lake

Marion Lake, Oregon, July 15—(Grapevine)—Two fishermen and hunters had arrived here the other day from Scio (wherever that is) and pitched their tent too close to the edge of the water, and that night one or more of the big fish seeing their toes protruding from under the canvas thought it was some kind of food and grabbed hold of Fred Jones' toes and pulled him in. This awoke his side partner, Chris Bilyeu, who saw Fred bobbing up and down like a cork in the water. To save Fred was his first thought and thus get the big fish on his pedal extremity was the second thought, so in he plunged—this awoke them. They were so tired when they retired and so over-anxious to catch big fish they rolled too close to the water's edge.

Picnicked on Thomas Creek

Sunday was an ideal picnic day and Thomas creek an ideal picnic ground, the day and the creek being made good use of. The following took well filled baskets and enjoyed the day on Thomas creek:

Wm. L. Bailey and family and Mrs. Ernest of Portland, W. O. Zielinski and wife of Salem; J. W. Shimanek and family of Red Bluff, Calif.; Frank Bartu and family, Vilas Arnold and family, John Shimanek and wife, and Lester Theodore, Ida, Clarence and Henry Shimanek. The day was spent in fishing, swimming, horseshoe pitching and other sports.

Mrs. Chas. Pennell and daughter, Mrs. Jess L. Rodgers and daughter and Mrs. Gilbert McDonald and children enjoyed a picnic at Green's bridge Sunday.

Former Resident Dies

Mrs. Bertha Price, for several years a resident of the Thomas vicinity, died Sunday at the home of her son, P. W. Price, near Clatskanie, Oregon, aged 70 years. Her remains were shipped to Jefferson, where burial took place yesterday beside her husband, who died some years ago.

Mrs. Price is survived by four sons and two daughters. The sons are John, Frank, Powell W. and Lewis Price. The daughters are Mrs. William Wilson of Jefferson and Mrs. Clifton DeVanev of Wolf, Montana.

T. L. Dugger Visits

T. L. Dugger, former owner of the Scio Tribune, came over from Lebanon Friday, where he is spending the summer, on short visit to friends and ye editor. He says he likes California, that the climate agrees with him, but says there has been practically no rain there for two years and that vegetation is woefully dried up. He is looking fine, and will probably remain in Oregon the coming winter. He returned to Lebanon Saturday evening.

Big Tractor Moved

The big tractor which has been used on the market road to Shindler's bridge, was moved to Gilkey for grading the new market road from Gilkey to connect with the Shelburn road. The crusher will be moved to the gravel bed on the Gilkey place near the bridge as soon as the grading is well under way. Yes, we're getting a few good roads, thank you.

Hubbard Bryant Killed

The span of life is uncertain. Today we are happy amid our neighbors and friends. Tomorrow we are cold in death. How strange, yet it is the inevitable law of nature.

Hubbard Bryant, one of Linn county's best known citizens, and a former resident of this community, was accidentally killed near La Grande early Wednesday morning, July 9, while on his way home to Albany from Union where he made a short visit to his daughter, Mrs. A. R. Hodge, and family.

Mr. Bryant had made the trip to Union in his auto, with Ned O. Ellichman as driver, who took the approach to an uncompleted bridge instead of the detour, and in noticing his mistake attempted to back down when he lost control of the car and it went over the embankment, pinning Mr. Bryant beneath the fender and breaking his neck. The driver was but slightly injured.

The funeral was held Friday afternoon at the Presbyterian church in Albany attended by hundreds of his friends from all over the valley. Burial was in the Masonic cemetery in charge of the Masonic fraternity, of which he was a member.

The deceased was 76 years old, and came to Oregon with his parents from Missouri in 1852, when but 3 years old, and had resided in Linn county ever since. He gave Bryant park to Albany in 1918.

Besides his wife, he is survived by nine children: C. C. Bryant, Maude Bryant, James D. Bryant, Mrs. Bessie Knox, Frank W. Bryant and Henry Bryant of Albany, John G. Bryant of Salem, Mrs. Ruth Thunaman of Portland, and Mrs. Mary Hodge of Union, and also 12 grandchildren. Mr. Bryant was one of the largest taxpayers in Linn county.

Women Like This Car

Unusual interest by the women folk is being taken in the new Overland coupe and they are making the hit of the day in motor circles. While it is only a two-passenger car, it is light, yet embodies the manifold advantages of the Overland line, thus making it the handy car for the woman who drives, either in parking or on the highway. It is easily handled and consequently safe, hence it is no wonder the women are eager for it. Well, the men are too. To see it is to want it.

Caravan Starts July 31

What will mean more to Linn county now and in the future than the proposed caravan to Clear Lake on July 31 is hard to visualize. The fact is, to all the Willamette valley, Just now everybody is thinking of water—good, pure, wholesome water for drinking and cooking purposes, and how and where to get it in abundance.

Some weeks ago one of Linn county's greatest boosters, after attending conferences of leading citizens from Salem, Corvallis, Albany, Harrisburg, Junction City, Eugene and other cities, men who had their eye on that great lake of fine fresh water in the southeastern part of Linn county, filed on the water rights of Clear Lake in the name of Linn county, and then set about organizing a caravan to make a three day trip of investigation of the possibility of Clear Lake furnishing water to the cities and towns in the valley as far north as Salem, and his dream is to come true on July 31, when the caravan leaves Albany.

It is expected there will be about 500 in line, among them being Gov. Pierce, State Treasurer Jeff Myers, other state officials, mayors, councilmen, boosters and citizens. Will this caravan bring forth the desired results of the men of the cities above named? There is nothing surer, in our judgment. And to cap the climax, there will be a barbecue, with the fatted steer roasted right before your eyes, plenty of fish and all you can drink—of that good Clear Lake water.

As we said at the beginning of this story, what bigger thing can be done for Linn county than what is being done by Waldo Anderson, for he is the man.

Ten Want the Job

The examination at Lebanon last Saturday to fill the vacancy made by the resignation of Marion Arnold as mail carrier on route 1, and his removal to Eugene, brought out 10 candidates. They are: E. J. Holland, Johnnie Merritt, Earl Brown, Gordon Wesely, Wm. Sims, C. Westenhouse, Lester Shimanek, Vilas Arnold, Ben Thayer and B. A. Holteen. It will be some time before the result of the examination will be known.

R. M. Phillips and wife drove to Silverton Sunday to visit his sister, Mrs. Grant Davis, and family.

Dentist Is Coming

Last Sunday afternoon Dr. Philip Seymour and wife of Portland came in over the Southern Pacific to give Scio the once over with an idea of locating permanently here and opening a dental office. While here the estimable couple were entertained by the editor and wife.

The coming to Scio of Dr. Seymour Sunday was hastily arranged after a long distance call about 12 o'clock, the doctor having been told of the opening here by Prof. and Mrs. L. Ramsey, and he immediately got in touch with the editor and in an hour was on his way here. They like our little city and the surrounding community and think this is the most prosperous of any they have seen. In fact, it took them but two hours to decide to cast their lot among us. Temporarily he will open an office in the parlor of the hotel next Monday. Before leaving for Portland Sunday night he said, "You tell your readers and friends that I am coming to your community because I like your city and the few people I met, and that I hope my work and personality will make the people like me."

We bespeak for the doctor and his wife a most cordial reception.

Sale Went Poor

The public sale in Scio Saturday was poorly attended and with the exception of the small stuff the price realized was also poor. Two exceptionally good teams were offered, one receiving no bid and the best offered for the other team, greys, was $40 per head, which was refused by the owner. One good mare, 7 years old, only brought $25. There was no demand for horses.
